Question:

What is the difference between a "Saint" and a "Blessed"?

Answer:

The process of proclaiming someone as a saint in the Catholic Church has evolved over the course of many centuries. In the beginning, those honored as saints were almost exclusively biblical figures or martyrs. However, after the legalization of Christianity in the fourth century, new holy women and men came to be honored as saints, and this was often done by popular acclaim or by the local bishop or abbot.

It was Pope Gregory IX (who was pope from 1227 to 1241) who officially proclaimed that only the pope had the authority to add someone to the official list (the "canon") of saints. This is the meaning of the word "canonization." Today, the saint-making process includes several steps, including detailed studies of the person's life and a recognition that they died as a martyr or lived a life of "heroic virtue." Once someone is recognized as a martyr or if a miracle is attributed to their intercession, they will be beatified and honored as "Blessed." This means that they can be celebrated by Catholics in a particular country or region or by the members of certain religious community. If another miracle occurs and is approved, then the "Blessed" is canonized and honored with the title "Saint," meaning that they are now officially recognized as a universal model of holiness and an intercessor.

Pregunta:

¿Qué diferencia hay entre un "Santo" y un "Beato"?

Respuesta:

En la Iglesia Católica el proceso de proclamar a alguien como santo ha evolucionado a lo largo de muchos siglos. Al principio, los honrados como santos eran casi exclusivamente figuras bíblicas o mártires. Sin embargo, después de la legalización del cristianismo en el siglo IV, mujeres y hombres santos llegaron a ser honrados como Santos, y a menudo esto se hizo por aclamación popular o por el obispo o abad local.

El Papa Gregorio IX (que sirvió como Papa desde 1227 hasta 1241) declaró oficialmente que sólo el Papa tiene la autoridad para añadir a alguien a la lista oficial (el "canon") de los santos. Por eso tenemos el significado de la palabra "canonización."

Hoy, el proceso de proclamar a alguien como santo incluye muchos pasos, incluidos estudios detallados de la vida de la persona y un reconocimiento de que él o ella murió como mártir o vivió una vida de "virtud heroica." Tan pronto como alguien se reconoce como mártir o si se atribuye un milagro a su intercesión, será beatificado y honrado como "Beato." Esto significa que la persona se puede ser celebrada por los católicos en un país o región en particular, o por los miembros de cierta comunidad religiosa. Si ocurre otro milagro y es aprobado, entonces el "Beato" es canonizado y honrado con el título de "Santo," lo que significa que ahora son reconocidos oficialmente como un modelo universal de santidad e intercesor.
