✠ ✠ ✠

Finally, all of you, be of one mind, sympathetic, loving toward one another, compassionate, humble.

Tengan todo unos mismos sentimientos, sean compasivos, ámense como hermanos, sean misericordiosos y humildes.
1 Peter 3:8

And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful.

Que la paz de Cristo reine en sus corazones: esa paz a la que han sido llamados, porque formamos un solo Cuerpo

Question:
What's the story behind the Advent wreath?

Answer:
Each season in the liturgical calendar comes with its own local and regional rituals. During the Advent season, wreathes adorn church sanctuaries and family dining room tables. You may have said Advent wreath prayers in childhood or taken a turn lighting the candles. The Advent wreath is full of symbolism about Christ and his coming at Christmas. The wreath is made of evergreen boughs, reminding us that the life of grace doesn't falter with the changing seasons. It always remains fresh and new. Similarly, a circular wreath reminds us of the eternal, never-ending nature of God's love.

Candles remind us that Christ is the light of the world, the One who "shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it." We use four candles to represent each week of Advent. Traditionally they come in the liturgical colors of the season. Purple has historically represented penance and sacrifice. We see the same color for the season of Lent. On the third Sunday of Advent, however, we light a rose color. The priest will wear rose vestments at Mass. This is Gaudete Sunday. Gaudete means "rejoice" in Latin. On the third Sunday of Advent, we're roughly halfway through the season. The Church chooses the midpoint to remind us to celebrate in the midst of our anticipation! Whatever the color and whatever the day, the Advent wreath is a beautiful practice to focus our attention on Christ's coming at Christmas.

Pregunta:
¿Cuál es la historia detrás de la corona de Adviento?

Respuesta:
Cada estación del calendario litúrgico viene con sus propios rituales locales y regionales. Durante la temporada de Adviento, las coronas adornan los santuarios de las iglesias y las mesas de los comedores familiares. Es posible que hayas rezado oraciones de la corona de Adviento en la infancia o que hayas tomado un turno para encender las velas. La corona de Adviento está llena de simbolismo sobre Cristo y su venida en Navidad. La corona está hecha de ramas de hoja perenne, recordándonos que la vida de gracia no flaquea con el cambio de estaciones. Siempre se mantiene fresco y nuevo. Del mismo modo, una corona circular nos recuerda la naturaleza eterna e interminable del amor de Dios.

Las velas nos recuerdan que Cristo es la luz del mundo, Aquel que "resplandece en las tinieblas, y las tinieblas no han prevalecido." Usamos cuatro velas para representar cada semana de Adviento. Tradicionalmente vienen en los colores litúrgicos de la temporada. El púrpura ha representado históricamente la penitencia y el sacrificio. Vemos el mismo color para la temporada de Cuaresma. En el tercer domingo de Adviento, sin embargo, encendemos un color rosa. El sacerdote usará vestiduras rosas en la Misa. Este es el domingo de Gaudete. Gaudete significa "regocijarse" en latín. En el tercer domingo de Adviento, estamos aproximadamente a la mitad de la temporada. ¡La Iglesia elige el punto medio para recordarnos que debemos celebrar en medio de nuestra anticipación! Sea cual sea el color y el día, la corona de Adviento es una hermosa práctica para enfocar nuestra atención a la venida de Cristo en Navidad.
