✠ ✠ ✠

Finally, all of you, be of one mind, sympathetic, loving toward one another, compassionate, humble.

Tengan todo unos mismos sentimientos, sean compasivos, ámense como hermanos, sean misericordiosos y humildes.
1 Peter 3:8

And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful.

Que la paz de Cristo reine en sus corazones: esa paz a la que han sido llamados, porque formamos un solo Cuerpo

Question:
Why do we give gifts at Christmas?

Answer:
Great events in and of themselves are not tangible. They occur in life but leave no mark behind, nothing that someone could come across and know that something significant occurred. So we mark the event with monuments, holidays, gold watches or plaques, making a meaningful event tangible and memorable.

Gifts at Christmas do the same thing. They mark the occasion of the birth of Jesus, communicating a bit of the joy of the day by allowing us to be both giver and receiver. Gift-giving sets aside the day as special and different. The special foods, customs, decorations, and gifts all help focus our attention on the importance and meaning of the day and at the same time allow us to share personally in its joy and happiness.

In giving gifts, though, we can share in the meaning of Christmas in a significant way. We imitate God in sharing with others. We give a bit of ourselves to others in the gifts we give, just as God gives us the gift of his Son. No wonder we often say that the best gifts are those that come from the heart. Given in love, these presents are wrapped in the best covering of all.

Pregunta:
¿Por qué hacemos regalos en Navidad?

Respuesta:
Los grandes acontecimientos en sí mismos no son tangibles. Ocurren en la vida, pero no dejan huella, nada con lo que alguien pueda encontrarse y saber que algo significativo ocurrió. Por lo tanto, marcamos el evento con monumentos, días festivos, relojes o placas de oro, haciendo que un evento significativo sea tangible y memorable.

Los regalos en Navidad hacen lo mismo. Marcan la ocasión del nacimiento de Jesús, comunicando un poco del gozo del día al permitirnos ser tanto dadores como receptores. La entrega de regalos hace que el día sea especial y diferente. Las comidas especiales, las costumbres, las decoraciones y los regalos ayudan a centrar nuestra atención en la importancia y el significado del día y, al mismo tiempo, nos permiten compartir personalmente su alegría y felicidad.

Sin embargo, al dar regalos, podemos compartir el significado de la Navidad de una manera significativa. Imitamos a Dios al compartir con los demás. Damos un poco de nosotros mismos a los demás en los regalos que damos, así como Dios nos da el don de su Hijo. No es de extrañar que a menudo digamos que los mejores regalos son los que salen del corazón. Entregados con amor, estos regalos están envueltos en la mejor cubierta de todas.
