OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

The Parish of St. John Bosco is a multi-cultural, multi-lingual Catholic Faith community that proclaims Jesus Christ. In the spirit of St. John Bosco, we do this by being a Home that welcomes all especially the young and the poor; a School that prepares for life through religious, educational and social services; a Parish that evangelizes through Word & Sacrament, Worship and Faith Formation; a Playground where lasting friendship and relationships are formed and developed through recreational and social opportunities.

From the Desk of Fr. Tom

This weekend we observe the twentieth anniversary of 9/11. For anyone over about 35 years old those numbers evoke great emotion and a flood of memories. Much like Pearl Harbor and the Kennedy Assassination were burned into the memories of those who lived through those tragic events, the terrorist attacks on New York City, Washington D.C. and Shanksville Pennsylvania that occurred on September 11, 2001, still stand as a defining moment of our lives. I was a newly ordained priest serving in Paterson, New Jersey when the attacks happened. The Friday after I was with a group of other Salesian priests counseling young people at Don Bosco Prep in Ramsey, New Jersey, who were still waiting to get word of relatives and friends who were missing after the collapse of the Twin Towers. That evening I was with a friend in downtown Newark as small groups huddled together to observe a moment of silence for those lost. The quiet was only broken by the sound of patrolling fighter jets making a pass above us.

It was a time of uncertainty. Our peace as a nation had been shattered. People did return to church in the weeks after. Many pastors reported an increase in both Mass attendance and people coming for confessions. This revival was short lived, though. As time went on, and the danger seemed to subside, many people went back to their former ways.

As I look back, I take away two lessons. First is that we should keep our history alive. For many in their 20's today, the 9/11 attacks are either a faint memory, or not a memory at all. If we don't remember this day, or the attack on Pearl Harbor and the sacrifices made by so many men and women to protect our freedom, we can begin to take that freedom for granted. We can forget just how unique our nation is. When that happens, we become complacent, and the real danger is that we will lose our freedoms, not because they were taken away, but because we were unwilling to hold on to them.

The second is that we need to keep God at the center of our lives always, not just when times get hard. God wants to be invited into our hearts, to dwell with us and guide us. God does not promise us peace and tranquility in this life. What he does promise is that we will persevere in faith no matter the challenge if we stay close to him. The society that turns its back on God can not endure for long. Let this remembrance of 9/11 lead us to understand the importance of God in our lives, not only as individuals, but as a community and a nation. The future of our souls and our country depends on it.

Desde el Escritorio de P. Tom

Este fin de semana celebramos el vigésimo aniversario del 9/11. Para cualquier persona mayor de 35 años, esos números evocan una gran emoción y una avalancha de recuerdos. Al igual que Pearl Harbor y el asesinato de Kennedy fueron grabados en la memoria de aquellos que vivieron esos trágicos eventos, los ataques terroristas en la ciudad de Nueva York, Washington D.C. y Shanksville Pennsylvania que ocurrieron el 11 de septiembre de 2001, todavía se mantienen como un momento decisivo de nuestras vidas. Yo era un sacerdote recién ordenado que servía en Paterson, Nueva Jersey cuando ocurrieron los ataques. El viernes siguiente estuve con un grupo de otros sacerdotes salesianos que aconsejaban a jóvenes en Don Bosco Prep en Ramsey, Nueva Jersey, que todavía estaban esperando recibir noticias de familiares y amigos que estaban desaparecidos después del colapso de las Torres Gemelas. Esa noche estaba con un amigo en el centro de Newark mientras pequeños grupos se acurrucaron para observar un momento de silencio por los perdidos. La tranquilidad solo se rompió por el sonido de los aviones de combate que patrullaban haciendo un paso por encima de nosotros.

Fue una época de incertidumbre. Nuestra paz como nación había sido destrozada. La gente regresó a la iglesia en las semanas posteriores. Muchos pastores reportaron un aumento tanto en la asistencia a misa como en las personas que vienen a confesarse. Sin embargo, este renacimiento duró poco. A medida que pasaba el tiempo, y el peligro parecía disminuir, muchas personas volvieron a sus antiguas costumbres.

Cuando miro hacia atrás, tomo dos lecciones. La primera es que debemos mantener viva nuestra historia. Para muchos en sus 20 años de hoy, los ataques del 9/11 son un recuerdo débil o no son un recuerdo en absoluto. Si no recordamos este día, o el ataque a Pearl Harbor y los sacrificios hechos por tantos hombres y mujeres para proteger nuestra libertad, podemos comenzar a dar esa libertad por sentada. Podemos olvidar cuán única es nuestra nación. Cuando eso sucede, nos volvemos complacientes, y el verdadero peligro es que perderemos nuestras libertades, no porque nos las quitaron, sino porque no estábamos dispuestos a aferrarnos a ellas.

La segunda es que necesitamos mantener a Dios en el centro de nuestras vidas siempre, no solo cuando los tiempos se ponen difíciles. Dios quiere ser invitado a nuestros corazones, a morar con nosotros y guiarnos. Dios no nos promete paz y tranquilidad en esta vida. Lo que él promete es que perseveraremos en la fe sin importar el desafío si nos mantenemos cerca de Él. La sociedad que le da la espalda a Dios no puede aguantar mucho tiempo. Que este recuerdo del 9/11 nos lleve a entender la importancia de Dios en nuestras vidas, no sólo como individuos, sino como comunidad y nación. El futuro de nuestras almas y de nuestro país depende de ello.

Religious Education

Celebrating Sunday Throughout the Week
24th Sunday in Ordinary Time Mark
8:27-35. Listen to the Gospel to hear the way
Jesus cared for someone who was suffering.

In today's Gospel, Jesus begins his journey toward Jerusalem, where he will die, be buried, and rise from the dead. The disciples have come to understand that Jesus is the Son of God, but they still have the idea that there is an earthly glory to this title. Peter in particular has a hard time understanding how Jesus will become the Messiah if he is to suffer and die. Jesus explains that all people who follow him must do the same, and to begin following, Peter must get behind Jesus. What will you do this week to put your faith into action?

Celebrando el domingo durante toda la semana
Vigésimo cuarto domingo del tiempo ordinario Marcos
8, 27-35. Escuche el Evangelio para escuchar la forma en que Jesús se preocupó por alguien que estaba sufriendo.

En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús comienza su viaje hacia Jerusalén, donde morirá, será sepultado y resucitará de entre los muertos. Los discípulos han llegado a comprender que Jesús es el Hijo de Dios, pero todavía tienen la idea de que este título tiene una gloria terrenal. A Pedro, en particular, le cuesta entender cómo Jesús se convertirá en el Mesías si sufre y muere. Jesús explica que todas las personas que lo siguen deben hacer lo mismo, y para comenzar a seguirlo, Pedro. ¿Qué harás esta semana para poner tu fe en acción?

Jesus told His followers something important.

Jesus asked the disciples,
