OUR PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

The Parish of St. John Bosco is a multi-cultural, multi-lingual Catholic Faith community that proclaims Jesus Christ. In the spirit of St. John Bosco, we do this by being a Home that welcomes all especially the young and the poor; a School that prepares for life through religious, educational and social services; a Parish that evangelizes through Word & Sacrament, Worship and Faith Formation; a Playground where lasting friendship and relationships are formed and developed through recreational and social opportunities.

From the Desk of Fr. Tom

This weekend we are celebrating our Multicultural Day. It is a reminder that we come from many different places, but together we form one parish community. The highlight of the day is the serving of the many different foods from the various countries represented. While food is a very important aspect of what makes a culture unique, the differences between national groups goes much deeper than that. Along with different languages, different cultural groups can have different ways of seeing the same problem. Behavior that may be totally polite to one group can seem terribly insulting to another. When working cross culturally it is important to begin with a spirit of charity and openness; assuming the good in the other person and giving the benefit of the doubt. As we grow in mutual understanding we come to be unified while maintaining our unique identities.

What is true for ethnic differences is also true for parishes. Each parish develops its own way of living the faith that we can rightly call a culture. Since 2015 the four parish communities of Port Chester have worked at coming together to form a new, unified Parish of St. John Bosco. Together we are still about the work of taking these four distinct parish cultures and bringing them together. This does not mean destroying what came before, but finding a way, through the Spirit's guidance, to join them together so that a new parish culture can be formed.

If food is a way that makes us distinct, it is the heavenly food we receive at the Supper of Lamb that joins us together. Christ invites us to come together, hearing the same word of God, sharing the same Bread and same Cup. He wants us together to proclaim the same Creed. It is in Christ that we are unified. Let us rightfully and in good will celebrate our various cultures. But let us more so celebrate our common faith in Jesus Christ, who dies and rose to make us united in Him.

Desde el Escritorio de P. Tom

Este fin de semana celebramos nuestro Día Multicultural. Es un recordatorio de que venimos de muchos lugares diferentes, pero juntos formamos una comunidad parroquial. El punto culminante del día es el servicio de los diferentes alimentos de los distintos países representados. Si bien la comida es un aspecto muy importante de lo que hace que una cultura sea única, las diferencias entre los grupos nacionales son mucho más profundas que eso. Junto con diferentes idiomas, diferentes grupos culturales pueden tener diferentes formas de ver el mismo problema. El comportamiento que puede ser totalmente cortés para un grupo puede parecer terriblemente insultante para otro. Cuando se trabaja de manera intercultural, es importante comenzar con un espíritu de caridad y apertura; asumiendo el bien en la otra persona y dando el beneficio de la duda. A medida que crecemos en el entendimiento mutuo, nos unificamos y al mismo tiempo mantenemos nuestras identidades únicas.

Lo que es cierto para las diferencias étnicas también es cierto para las parroquias. Cada parroquia desarrolla su propia forma de vivir la fe que con razón podemos llamar cultura. Desde 2015, las cuatro comunidades parroquiales de Port Chester han trabajado para unirse para formar una nueva parroquia unificada de St. John Bosco. Juntos todavía estamos sobre el trabajo de tomar estas cuatro culturas parroquiales distintas y unirlos. Esto no significa destruir lo que vino antes, sino encontrar una manera, a través de la guía del Espíritu, de unirlos para que se pueda formar una nueva cultura parroquial.

Si la comida es una forma que nos distingue, es la comida celestial que recibimos en la Cena del Cordero lo que nos une. Cristo nos invita a unirnos, a escuchar la misma palabra de Dios, a compartir el mismo Pan y la misma Copa. Quiere que juntos proclamemos el mismo Credo. En Cristo estamos unidos. Celebremos con razón y de buena voluntad nuestras diversas culturas. Pero celebremos más nuestra fe común en Jesucristo, que murió y resucitó para unirnos en Él.

Thank you for using online giving for your support of our parish. Online giving is safe, simple and convenient. It benefits our parish by streamlining our administrative processes.

Click on the WeShare button on the parish website to set up a new password on your existing account or establish a new account. If you need help you may call LPi support at (800) 950-9952 and choose option 1. You will begin receiving emails from LPi shortly. These emails are regarding WeShare.

We encourage our parishioners to consider online giving. It's safe, easy and dependable. Studies show that Catholics are away from their home parish 15 weeks a year because of graduation, communions, confirmation, and illness etc.

Celebrating Sunday Throughout the Week
26th Sunday in Ordinary Time Mark 9:38-43, 45,
47-48

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples that other people can use his name to do good. In the Gospel today, Jesus tells his disciples that they should let other people use his name to do good works. The disciples want to tell the person who is casting out demons to stop. But Jesus lets his friends know that they do not belong to a special group that leaves people out. If other people are doing good works and helping people in need, they can call on the name of Jesus. This week, make an effort to use your talents to show others Jesus' love.

Celebrando el domingo durante toda la semana 26o Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario Marcos 9: 38-43, 45, 47-48. En el evangelio de hoy, Jesús les dice a sus discípulos que otras personas pueden usar su nombre para hacer el bien.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús les dice a sus discípulos que deben permitir que otras personas usen su nombre para hacer buenas obras. Los discípulos quieren decirle a la persona que está expulsando demonios que se detenga. Pero Jesús les hace saber a sus amigos que no pertenecen a un grupo especial que deja fuera a la gente. Si otras personas están haciendo buenas obras y ayudando a las personas necesitadas, pueden invocar el nombre de Jesús. Esta semana, esfuércese por usar sus talentos para mostrar a los demás el amor de Jesús.

Special Announcement

Pro Life
Rosary

Please join us before the Sunday Masses on the weekend of October 2 and 3 for the praying of the Rosary for Life. This is a special way of kicking off the month of October, which is dedicated to both the praying of the Rosary and Pro-Life activities. The special praying for the Rosary for Life will begin 45 minutes before each Mass.

Únase a nosotros antes de las misas dominicales el fin de semana del 2 y 3 de octubre para rezar el Rosario por la vida. Esta es una forma especial de comenzar el mes de octubre, que está dedicado tanto al rezo del Rosario como a las actividades Pro-Vida. La oración especial del Rosario por la Vida comenzará 45 minutos antes de cada Misa.
