REFLECT ON OUR PAST

Church Bulletins
ACTS Core records
Actsmissions.org

In May 2011 under the invitation of Msgr. J. Robert Romero, a team from Beaumont and Lake

Charles travelled to Eunice to introduce St. Anthony Parish to the ACTS retreat. Adoration Community Theology and Service retreats began in 1986 in San Antonio, TX, when members of a church parish were searching for a parish-based event. "ACTS Retreats are given by parishioners for parishioners, and in this way, serve to build Christian community at the parish."

St. Anthony began hosting the retreat in 2013. Msgr. Romero would organize St. Anthony's first ACTS Core with twelve members of the community. Several of these members would go on to help establish the Diocese of Lafayette first ACTS Chapter. Within a year of its inception, St. Anthony parishioners would begin assisting neighboring church parishes with hosting their own ACTS retreats. By the end of 2025, St. Anthony had sponsored 39 retreats and missioned 16 retreats welcoming over 1,500 men and women into the ACTS Community.

In 2025, St. Anthony joined with St. Thomas More and St. Mathilda churches to create the ACTS on the Prairie coalition expanding the opportunity for participation.

If you have not yet made an ACTS retreat, we invite you to consider adding this weekend of prayer to your spiritual journey.

If you have made a retreat, whether years ago or recently, we invite you to join a retreat team.

Upcoming retreat dates can be found in the bulletin; or call the Rectory for more information.
