St. Basil's Parish's
"Conversations for our Times"
Webinar:

L'Arche and Jean Vanier One Year Later - A Constructive Response

with Kevin Burns on Sunday, June 20, 2021 at 2:30 p.m.

Focusing on "What do we do now?", writer and documentary producer Kevin Burns explores the impact of witnessing a celebrated hero fall. He offers some "building blocks" that can help as we work to rebuild resilience both individually and as a community. History, after all, is filled with troubling legacies and even more surprising turnarounds. This is a form of live radio presentation that combines archival clips, music, and photography. He hopes to promote a thoughtful conversation about remembering and about moving forward beyond disappointment, given the vital importance of L'Arche.

Memorial for 215 Children from the former Kamloops Residential School:

Some of our parish's CWL members are planning a shoe memorial at the Church to honour the Indigenous children who died so tragically at residential schools. They are asking for gently used children's shoes for the memorial. Please place any shoes you can contribute in the marked box outside the office entrance. They hope to have the memorial completed over the next three weeks.
