Prayer Shawl Ministry: Our ministry has been a meaningful way the parish has had of supporting those suffering illness, medical treatments, grieving, and parents of children being baptized, by giving a hand knitted shawl, a symbol of God's all-embracing love surrounding the wearing and the prayers and caring of our St. Basil's community. We are looking for new people interested in knitting to join us as the need for shawls has increased. We invite you to join in prayer for those who have received a shawl as well as letting us know of someone who would appreciate receiving one. If interested in joining the ministry, please call Maureen Ramsay at 613-726-2767.

Re: the late †Alberta Casey: Funeral arrangements are to be announced when they have been made.

Woman in desperate need of housing:

I am looking to rent a room or a basement ASAP. I am quiet and respectful. My current landlord is bringing in family and I have no choice but to move. I do have 2 small dogs; they are my babies, and I need a space that will accept them.

The Blanket Exercise – Learning more about our Canadian History:

The CWL invites you to take part in the Blanket Exercise at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, September 24th. The Kateri Ministry will facilitate it using Indigenous methodologies. The goal is to build our understanding about our shared history as Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada by walking through pre-contact, treaty-making, colonization, and resistance. In the first part of the exercise, participants stand on blankets that represent lands inhabited by First Nations, Inuit, and Métis people. The facilitator, playing the role of a European "settler", walks the group through a script, telling the story of the first contact between Indigenous and non-Indigenous people. Slowly participants lose their land and way of life and must leave their spot on their blanket. This can take from 30 to 60 minutes, depending on the size of the group. At the end of this participant exercise, we have time to discuss what this history means to us and what our reactions are to past events.

The event is open to everyone at no cost. But we need to know the numbers attending to make our plans. Please reserve your spot by September 19th by e-mailing: stbasilcwl@gmail.com or calling the parish office.

Wednesday Bridge is back! Come join us: Wednesdays at 1:00 pm in the Church Hall. We play all conventions, no conventions ... everyone welcome!

Basic Income:

The Basic Income Ottawa Team is planning a rally at the Opening Session of Parliament this Tuesday, September 20. We will meet at 9:45 a.m. at the corner of Bank and Wellington. Please join us and let others know. Too many Canadians are living in poverty: Senator Croll said more than 50 years ago that poverty is a cancer in our society of which we should be ashamed. We want to bring to the attention of politicians, the media and the general public the urgent need to address this issue through a national basic income program. We would welcome your support. A statement of the principles of Basic Income is available at the back of the church.

A Message from the Green Team:

Pope Francis in one of his homilies urged people to move past the "barriers of habit, beyond banal consumerism ..." Over-consumption is at the root of the planet's environmental crisis. Take actions in our day-to-day life to lower our environmental impact by reducing unnecessary consumption, avoiding single-use plastic items and creating less waste. In the meantime, encourage other people to do the same things.
