outreach to the poor, and community living.*

RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION FOR ADULTS (RCIA)~2016-2017

I am looking forward to my new role as the Coordinator for the RCIA at St. Thomas More. I became Catholic by going through the RCIA program and have worked with the RCIA program for six years. I also studied the RCIA process as part of the Rockford Diocese's Lay Ministry Program.

If you know someone who has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic, or was baptized Catholic as a child but never received the sacraments of the Eucharist or Confirmation, please encourage them to think about RCIA and attend our Open House. The Open House is Wednesday August 31 at 7pm in the Church and is a great opportunity to learn about the RCIA process at STM and to ask any questions you might have.

If you have questions or need more information please contact me at lmcewan@stthomasmorechurch.org

WORD OF LIFE

"The threats to religious freedom are more subtle (in the West); many people don't even perceive them...Whereas in other parts of the world...it's bloody, violent, overt, but in both cases it's a denial of the rights of conscience, it's a denial of the fundamental freedom to relate to one's own God."

CAN WE BE COUNTED
AMONG THE LABORERS?

14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." Can we be counted among the laborers? Are we ready and willing to work for the sake of our faith, or are we looking for the easy way out?

Our faith is more than a personal experience. It's more than a routine that fits into our weekly schedule. Our faith is meant to be shared with others, even when that requires a bit of work on our part. In today's Gospel, Jesus calls his followers to "Go on your way," to prepare people for the Lord. And we are called to do the same. We are meant to go on our way-out of our homes, and even out of our churches-to share the good news of the Gospel and to serve those in need.

It can be tempting to think, "I believe, I go to church, isn't that enough?" But Jesus tells us that there is an abundant harvest out there-countless people who may just need to know that Jesus loves them or that someone is willing to help. If we don't step up to the task then those people will miss out on that word of encouragement, that personal invitation to Mass, that act of kindness that might have made all the difference in their life. God may be calling some of us to an even deeper commitment -to be a lay minister in a parish or to discern a religious vocation, for example-but there is no doubt that God is calling all of us to labor for his kingdom in some way.

This mission isn't for someone else. It's for us to carry out the work of the disciples because we are today's disciples. When we accept this mission, we will not only enjoy seeing the benefits that others receive, we will also rejoice with those whose "names are written in heaven."

"Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.'"

- Lk 10:8-9

FOR OUR CHILDREN Sharing the Gospel

Jesus sent out 72 of his followers to spread the good news about God. They were not to bring anything with them - no food, no extra clothes or shoes, not even money to spend. They were to visit strangers and completely depend on God to give them what they needed. That took a lot of faith!

Prayer

Dear God,
as we celebrate today with fireworks
and festivals,
help us never to forget the reason for our joy.
Help us remember that our rights to life, liberty
and the pursuit of happiness were signed into our heritage with the willing blood of American patriots.
Most of all, help us remember that the rights of all people are more than words on a document, and that all people have rights because you have given us the dignity of human life.
Grant freedom to all,
and give us the strength to protect the rights of others.
Amen.
