

GOSPEL MEDITATION

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"Whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." This verse is part of a beautiful reflection on childlike faith. We're reminded of the innocence of children, how eager they are to experience life and how quick they are to trust. Rarely do we hear it with the story that immediately proceeds it. The Pharisees question Jesus on the lawfulness of divorce! Hardly the sort of thorny moral conversation one typically has in front of children. Yet here we are.

Jesus' response goes further back than the Mosaic law. "From the beginning, God made them male and female - the two shall become one flesh - what God has joined together, no human being must separate." Jesus cites a particular set of passages from Genesis 1 and 2, before the Fall in Genesis 3. Adam and Eve possessed original innocence.

How eager they were to encounter one another and to explore the garden! How immediate their initial trust in God. We no longer live in Eden. As we age in our fallen world, our childlike trust is wounded and betrayed. We become hardened to the beauties of life. We're quick to find a way around difficult moments.

In brief, things become complicated as we lose our innocence. The teachings of Christ and the Church on sexuality become more challenging or more objectionable. Jesus recognizes this in today's Gospel. His invitation is not to compromise with our broken reality. It is a return to beauty, to the fullness of life as it was meant to be. We can affirm our trust in God. We can view life with gratitude. We can experience healing of our lost innocence. This is possible today now! -- by grace. Indeed, "the kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

Friendship Sunday

Do you wish you knew more people at St. Thomas More?

One easy way to meet more of your fellow parishioners is to volunteer for Friendship Sunday. The first Sunday of each month, after the 8:00 and 10:00 Masses, between October and May, will be Friendship Sundays. Coffee and doughnuts are offered to all your hungry friends from the pews! Such a fun and casual way to meet people. Volunteers set up, serve, and clean up. You can choose to be a part of the team after the 8:00 or 10:00 Mass. This is a great opportunity for couples or whole families to be a more active part of St. Thomas More. Visit our volunteer page on our website to volunteer.

Eucharistic Ministers

Our beautiful celebration of the Mass on the weekends could not happen without the men and women who volunteer to assist the priest with sharing The Eucharist with us. Often called Eucharistic Ministers these volunteers receive training and then choose which Mass times they are available to serve. Those interested should contact Sharon Hall at shall@stthomasmorechurch.org

What is Family Choir?

Family Choir is open to anyone 5 years old (with a parent/guardian present) and older. We sing at the Noon Mass once a month, usually every other month. Rehearsals are 45 minutes before Mass at 11:15 a.m. in the Lancaster Room.

Family Choir is designed to give families the chance to sing together. Kids, parents, and grandparents can come together and join in singing praises to God. The choir is not limited to families, however. The entire family of God is invited. We hope that all members of our church who like to sing will feel comfortable to join. To join, simply come to our rehearsal before Mass or visit our church website to complete the Membership Form.
