LETTER from Fr. Browning

Historical Fact II - Post-Mortem Appearances

In the previous article, we saw indisputable historical evidence for the empty tomb. The empty tomb, of course, does not prove the bodily Resurrection of Jesus, but it is an important fact.

The second historical fact is the appearances of Jesus after his death or his post-mortem appearances. We have multiple independent reports of these appearances, as with the empty tomb, which gives us confidence. We find the primary account in Paul's first letter to the Corinthians, chapter 15:

"For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the Twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me (1 Cor 15:3-8)."

Scholars date this passage to within 5-10 years of the resurrection appearances (see the previous article for more information). Paul gives it even more credibility when he says, "Then he appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom are still alive..." (1 Cor 15:6). Paul suggests that if you don't believe him, ask one of the five hundred who saw him risen because most of them are still alive. If the event had never occurred and there were no eyewitnesses, then Paul would not have challenged the people to speak with them. There were many still alive, and Paul issued the challenge to those who doubted.

Paul mentions the other appearances of Jesus to Peter and the disciples, which are also well-attested. We have multiple independent accounts of each encounter (see below for a list of appearances). Finally, Jesus appears to James and Paul, two people not inclined to think Jesus rose from the dead.

James was a relative of Jesus and deeply skeptical of Jesus. James is the cousin of Jesus, the son of Mary, the wife of Clopas, who was the Virgin Mary's close relative. We have good evidence from the gospels that during Jesus' lifetime, James was skeptical of Jesus and did not come to believe in him until after his death and Resurrection (see <https://youtu.be/>

A-p38y9cjU and <https://www.reasonablefaith.org/writings/popular-writings/jesus-of-nazareth/the-resurrection-of-jesus/>).

Saul, who later became Paul, was an enemy of Christians and participated in their murder (1 Tim 1:13; Acts 7:58, 22:6-21; Gal 1:11-24). It is hard to believe that either James or Paul would sincerely claim that Jesus had appeared to them bodily unless it happened.

The post-mortem Resurrection appearances of Jesus is the second fact on which most scholars and historians agree. We are confident from a historical perspective that several people from various walks of life encountered the risen Jesus (bodily) after his death.

We gather these facts from multiple historically reliable accounts, but at this point, we have yet to attempt to explain the evidence. Right now, we are still collecting it. The following article will cover our third historical fact: Christianity's sudden and surprising birth.

In the joy of the Resurrection,
Fr. Browning

Happy Mother's Day!

Fr. Browning and his Mom Donna

During the season of Easter, what a great time to remember our mothers and ask for God's blessing on them. It is God who ultimately gave us life. It is through God's unselfish love--mirrored in our mothers' willingness to associate their love with God's and take the risk to love us into life--that we have the opportunity for life. We remember our mothers this Mother's Day with much love.

Let us pray for each of them:

God our heavenly Father,
you give to each the ability to share your generative love.
Bless those women in our lives who mirror your love and bring forth life through their willingness to risk bringing new life into this world.
Help us to show them our gratitude for the gift of life and the gift of a mother's love.
May our life-giving God continue to bless them
and show them his unfailing love.
We ask this through Jesus, God's Son and our brother.
Amen.

Parishioner Information Update

Please call the parish office at 847.888.1682.

A LETTER FROM FR. EJAY

Fr. Edil Jarapa

KONTI LANG: "Orphans"

To be an orphan means to live alone without parents, provider, instructor and defender. It's like living a miserable life. This what worries Jesus' disciples because they get used to their Master always being on their side taking care of them. But Jesus gives them an assurance; "I will not leave you orphans." For us Christians struggling in this life, it is a big relief knowing that God will not abandon us. It gives us great advantage to survive trials and difficulties, because we are not orphans but beloved children of God.
