Deacon Ed Garza

Happiness is an emotion we all seek to achieve and maintain in our lives. It is an essential aspect of "Holistic Health" The following is an article taken from The Raphael Remedy web site. The Raphael Remedy is a Catholic Counselling Agency

The One Indispensable Requirement for Happiness

Abbreviated article by Allison Ricciardi

theraphaelremedy.com

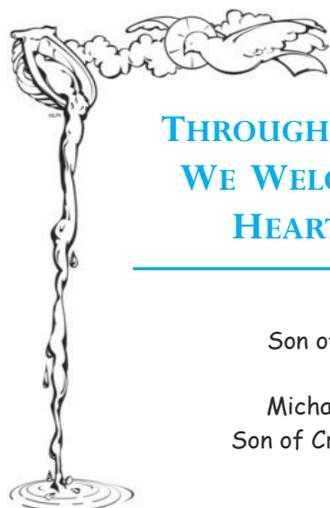

One can readily assert that there are many conditions that are needed to be truly happy. Health, good relationships, satisfying work, and purpose are the first that come to mind. That one necessity I learned is decision. We must decide to be happy. You may be thinking one of two things. First, that since you want to be happy that that is a decision, or second, that no one would actually make a decision to be unhappy and so my supposition is ridiculous. To which I reply, you're wrong...well actually, you're just not completely right.

To the first point, just wanting to be happy is not actually a decision to be. Deciding to be happy is a mindset that looks for the good in every situation and is determined to find ways to make the best of any circumstance. It's literally a decision not only to be happy, but a decision not to be unhappy as well.

To the second point, you're right to think that no one really wants to be unhappy. All of our efforts are aimed at finding happiness. So, if that's the case, is it correct to say anyone can make a decision to be unhappy? We are created for happiness but we often sabotage our own happiness by either looking for it wrongly or deciding what will make us happy and deciding to be unhappy if we don't attain that. So why would we sabotage our happiness? Well, sometimes there are secondary gains of being unhappy. We may have learned to get attention that way. Or, we can use it as a way to punish others. Or maybe, it just makes us feel in control and past experiences of trauma create anxiety when we can't control a situation. Misery that we control is sometimes preferable to happiness that we don't. Fear of loss can also cause us to avoid happiness. For some, never being happy is preferable to losing it once attained.

In my own life this decision component became apparent when I finally got a clue and starting trusting God with my happiness. Instead of deciding what I believed would make me happy and then trying to convince God and deciding to be unhappy if He disagreed, I simply decided that I had better find happiness in the present moment as that was all I really had. Imagine if instead of saying something like, "If it rains tomorrow I'm going to be so upset!" we said something like this: "Lord, you know how important tomorrow is for me and how much I would like it to be sunny. If it's Your will, please let the sun come out but if it's not, please let it not bother me and let me enjoy the rain." Imagine how different your life would be if you really actually trusted God and prayed like that?

In this year dedicated to God's infinite Mercy, make a resolution simply to be happy. No conditions. Ask God for the grace of gratitude, for the ability to see the silver lining in every cloud. Believe that He has a plan and is weaving a beautiful tapestry with whatever dark threads you may seem to get tangled in. And watch what you say...even passing remarks can be decisions that can unravel your peace. Remember, Jesus came that you may have life and have it to the full. Decide to believe that and to trust that no matter what the situation, He is there in the midst of it working His plan for your good...and happiness will surely follow.

RCIA—RITE OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

WOULD YOU INVITE SOMEONE TO LEARN MORE ABOUT BECOMING CATHOLIC? The Catholic Church is a beautiful repository for the many, many graces and gifts that God wants to share with all of us. Do you know someone who is not Catholic but might be open to learning more about all the Catholic Church has to offer? The Catholic Church has a process called RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) that is used to guide unbaptized persons through the process of becoming Catholic. We also use a modified form of RCIA for baptized Christians who were formed in the Christian faith in another Christian denomination and would now like to join the Catholic Church.

We welcome new inquirers at any time, and encourage you to contact us so we can help you with your questions and walk you through the steps to becoming Catholic. There is no pressure or obligation to join the Church as you learn what being Catholic is all about. To learn more, contact Casey Conner at casey.conner@sacredheartwdm.org or call 515-225-6414 ext. 309. More information can also be found on the parish website: www.sacredheartwdm.org/rcia.

"Sacred Heart and the community have made me feel at home. My journey through RCIA has changed my life." -Rebecca, new member 2014.

ALREADY CATHOLIC? Consider becoming an RCIA sponsor. See the parish website for more details: www.sacredheartwdm.org/rcia.

Hailey Liston is a Sacred Heart parishioner who recently graduated from Northwest Missouri State University and accepted a full-time position as a Missionary with the Fellowship of Catholic University Students (FOCUS) and will be serving at the University of Tulsa in Tulsa, Oklahoma in the fall.

"FOCUS is a campus outreach that pursues college students with intentionality and love. We invite them into a growing relationship with Jesus and the Catholic faith, inspiring and equipping them for a lifetime of Christ-centered evangelization, discipleship and friendship in which they can lead others to do the same.

I'm incredibly excited to share with the students of Tulsa how Christ has impacted my life and how He can impact theirs if they allow Him in! Preparing for campus, I am making it a goal to share with the Sacred Heart family how God has called me higher, my resistance at first, and then my loud and joyous 'YES!' So, please, do not be afraid to call me and I would love to meet up and share my story so you could hopefully be touched by it or share it with others as well!

I have just a couple of short weeks left here in Des Moines before having to report on mission in Tulsa on August 8th. Through the help of mission partners, I am able to be funded enough to make it to campus on time. Feel free to contact me from my information below and show your support by meeting up if you are interested in becoming a mission partner or by sharing any prayer intentions that I can prayerfully send to the Lord in my daily prayer!

St. Joseph The Worker, pray for me!

REFLECTIONS FOR THE WEEK

- What is the most important thing in your life?
- It is easy to get self-centered and greedy. What do you have in your life that is unnecessary? In your life, what keeps you close to God? What distracts you from your relationship with God?
- What wisdom do you pull out of this reading to help you set priorities in your life?

Matthew 25:35

We will be collecting casseroles again this year for the Family Violence Center the first full weekend of each month. The goal is to provide 20 casseroles each month. We can do that!! Here is what you do...

1. Make any casserole you want in an 8X8 aluminum container. (For example: ham and cheese potatoes, chicken and rice, shepherd's pie, chili, hot dogs and beans.)
2. Bake it.
3. Cool it.
4. Wrap it in aluminum foil.
5. Put the casserole in a Ziplock bag.
6. Include a slip of visible paper that says: "To the Family Violence Center".
7. Slip a recipe in the bag and sign it: "Your friends at Sacred Heart Catholic Church".
8. Freeze it.
9. Drop the frozen casserole off in the parish center freezer before the Sunday 11:15 Mass the first full weekend of the month. Note: We ask, PLEASE do not drop off casseroles throughout the month, as the freezer is used for other church events.

Jennifer and David Smith and family will drop the casseroles off to the Family Violence Center. They have done this for many years! If you see them, stop and say "THANK YOU"! They have done a great job!

If you could spread the word and forward this link on to friends, that might make a big difference AND remember, this would be a great project for group service hours!

Cuál es la diferencia entre orar y recitar? La oración: es la manera por la cual nos comunicamos con Dios. Es canal por el cual lo creado se comunica con su creador. Recitar: es decir en voz alta algo que nos sabemos de memoria. Es también exclamar una poesía hermosa que nos sabemos de memoria. Por muchos años los católicos hemos recitado la oración del Padre Nuestro. Lo hacemos en todos las misas, cuando rezamos el rosario, en oraciones personales de grupo. En nuestra práctica esta oración tan profunda pasa a ser el recitaje de un bonito poema bíblico.

En el evangelio de la semana pasada, Jesús presenta la oración del Padre Nuestro no en forma de poseía; más bien como una guía de cómo debe de ser la oración del Cristiano. Queridos hermanos en el contexto de la comunicación con Dios el orar supera al recitar, porque recitar lo hace cualquiera; en cambio orar no todos. Para los cristianos católicos el Padre Nuestro debe de ser una de las oraciones más bellas y profundas en el cual el orar supere al recitar. La pregunta a meditar es: como rezamos el Padre Nuestro?
