Gathering Song The Day of Resurrection

1. The day of resurrection! Earth, spread the news abroad; the Paschal feast of gladness, the Paschal feast of God. From death to life eternal, from earth to heaven's height Our Savior Christ has brought us, The glorious Lord of Light.
2. His love is everlasting; His mercies never cease; the resurrected Savior, will all our joys increase. He'll keep us in his favor, supplying holy grace, to all his pilgrim people who seek his heav'nly place.

The Gloria: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 5:12-16

Many signs and wonders were done among the people at the hands of the apostles. They were all together in Solomon's portico. None of the others dared to join them, but the people esteemed them. Yet more than ever, believers in the Lord, great numbers of men and women, were added to them. Thus they even carried the sick out into the streets and laid them on cots and mats so that when Peter came by, at least his shadow might fall on one or another of them. A large number of people from the towns in the vicinity of Jerusalem also gathered, bringing the sick and those disturbed by unclean spirits, and they were all cured.

Second Reading

Revelation 1:9-11a

I, John, your brother, who share with you the distress, the kingdom, and the endurance we have in Jesus, found myself on the island called Patmos because I proclaimed God's word and gave testimony to Jesus. I was caught up in spirit on the Lord's day and heard behind me a voice as loud as a trumpet, which said, "Write on a scroll what you see." Then I turned to see whose voice it was that spoke to me, and when I turned, I saw seven gold lampstands and in the midst of the lampstands one like a son of man, wearing an ankle-length robe, with a gold sash around his chest. When I caught sight of him, I fell down at his feet as though dead. He touched me with his right hand and said, "Do not be afraid. I am the first and the last, the one who lives. Once I was dead, but now I am alive forever and ever. I hold the keys to death and the netherworld. Write down, therefore, what you have seen, and what is happening, and what will happen afterwards."

Responsorial Psalm Refrain: Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Gospel

John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

The Nicene Creed: I believe in God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered, death, and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Song During The Preparation Of Gifts: I Know That My Redeemer Lives

1. I know that my Redeemer lives! What joy the blest assurance gives! He lives, he lives, who once was dead; He lives, my ever-living head!
2. He lives triumphant from the grave; He lives eternally to save; He lives in majesty above; He lives to guide his Church in love.
3. He lives to silence all my fears; He lives to wipe away my tears; He lives to calm my troubled heart; He lives all blessings to impart.

Songs During Eye Has Not Seen

Refrain

Eye has not seen, ear has not heard what God has ready for those who love him; Spirit of love, come, give us the mind of Jesus, teach us the wisdom of God.

1. When pain and sorrow weigh us down, be near to us, O Lord, forgive the weakness of our faith, and bear us up within your peaceful word.
2. Our lives are but a single breath, we flower and we fade, yet all our days are in your hands, so we return in love what love has made.
3. To those who see with eyes of faith, the Lord is ever near, reflected in the faces of all the poor and lowly of the world.
4. We sing a myst'ry from the past in halls where saints have trod, yet ever new the music rings to Jesus, Living Song of God.

Song As We Go Forth: The Day Of Resurrection

3. His love is everlasting; His mercies never cease; the resurrected Savior, Will all our joys increase. He'll keep us in his favor, supplying holy grace, to all his pilgrim people who seek his heav'nly place.
4. Now let the heav'ns be joyful, and earth her song begin; the whole world keep high triumph And all that is therein; let all things in creation their notes of gladness blend, for Christ the Lord is risen, our joy that has no end.

Office of
THE BISHOP

April 22, 2025
Tuesday within the Octave of Easter

Reverend Charles H. Lana
Holy Family Parish
Lloyd Avenue
Florham Park, New Jersey 07932

Dear Father Lana:

I am pleased to appoint you the Vocation Director in the Diocese of Paterson, effective May 1, 2025, while remaining in residence at Holy Family Parish, Florham Park. I thank you for your dedicated work at Holy Family Parish over the past six years in your role as Parochial Vicar. You have served this community with great zeal and enthusiasm, and your legacy of devoted pastoral care and integrity will most certainly endure. I am equally grateful for your generous response to the needs of our diocese and for the valuable assistance that you have provided to Father Edward Rama in your role as Assistant Vocation Director during the last year and a half. I know Father Rama has been an excellent role model and has provided a meaningful foundation for you as you begin in this new role.

Your reliance upon the grace of God, along with your intelligence and wisdom, will serve you well as you begin a new chapter in your priestly service to the Diocese of Paterson and to the incoming seminarians discerning their vocation. Proclaim the Lord's goodness through your priestly ministry by replicating the attributes of justice, truth, and peace. Be zealous in that effort, humbly recognizing that only with the grace of God and the intercession of our Lord we are able to accomplish what we do.

You have already shown yourself to be an effective minister to the church. Continue that spirit and build upon it as you form the seminarians of the Diocese of Paterson in their Catholic identity and attend to their sacramental life, in particular their relationship with our Eucharistic Lord.

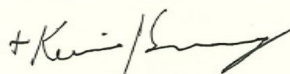

Your counsel will continue to be invaluable to me and the Vocation Board as together we discern, with the help of the Holy Spirit, acceptance of candidates for the priesthood and as we accompany them through the arduous process of priestly formation. Your own experience in ministry and spiritual direction will be a gift to candidates for the priesthood in the years ahead.

In your new service to the diocese, especially to pastors assisting those considering a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, let the words of Saint Paul be your encouragement, "I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you" (Ephesians 1:18). Your own priestly heart will be a source of insight and wisdom for the candidates you will assist.

Our indispensable hope for vocations is prayer. We pray that the Lord of the harvest will open the hearts of many young people to the gift of lifelong selfless service to the Lord and his Church.

With prayers for God's blessings on you and on your work as the Vocation Director, I remain

Devotedly yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Kevin J. Sweeney, D.D.
Bishop of Paterson

With Gratitude and Joy - Thank You, Fr. Charlie!

We give heartfelt thanks to Fr. Charlie for six wonderful years of dedicated and zealous pastoral service at Holy Family Parish. His presence among us has been a true blessing, and we are deeply grateful for his faithful priesthood, compassionate heart, and unwavering commitment to our community.

We also offer our warmest congratulations as he takes on his new role as Vocation Director of our Diocese—an important and sacred responsibility in shaping the future of our clergy. We pray that the Holy Spirit will guide and strengthen him in this vital mission.

The good news is: Fr. Charlie will remain with us at Holy Family as a resident, continuing to celebrate Sunday Masses and share his ministry with our parish family. We are overjoyed that he will continue to walk with us in faith, and we thank God for the gift of his presence among us.

May the Lord continue to bless Fr. Charlie in his priestly journey and in this exciting new chapter of service!

Fr. Thomas and all Parish Staff

Pilgrims of Hope

On April 12, 2025, the weather was cold and rainy, but it did not stop Holy Family's Pilgrims of Hope journey to the Shrine of St. Joseph.

With Anne Ippolito's enthusiasm and vision she brought the door's of St. Peter's in Rome to everyone at the Shrine of St. Joseph. The scene warmed the heart's of all...

Fr. Thomas said "We couldn't think of a better way to start Holy Week with the grace of a plenary indulgence and with the sharing of our faith and friendship"
