GOSPEL QUESTIONS TO MEDITATE ON

1. Has Jesus sent you out before?
2. Do you like having someone with you? Why/Why not?
3. What hopes and fears do you have?
4. What do you do when you first enter a town?
5. How do people respond to you?
6. What's it like to stay with people you don't know?

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Even though we might find it annoying when a pair of young Mormons ring our doorbells, I believe we also bear a certain grudging respect for them. After all, they are practicing what they preach. At the same time, we realize they are acting in the context of our culture, one that generally disregards religion and pushes it out the door to land in the trash bin of the “real world.” I know that one of our online comedians picks up on that opinion and tells his audiences that a sure way to ruin a party is to say to someone “I’d like to talk about Jesus.”

Our personal temperament may be such that precludes us from ever being a “knock on the door” type of evangelist. Still, there is a duty that we all must be missionary disciples. So how do we fulfill that baptismal obligation to spread the Gospel? One way for sure is to take on the project of living the way the bible tells us, specifically Our Lord Jesus, and to live it daily. This would make clear to any observer that Jesus Christ is central in our lives. That decision of ours has consequences. In short, it is the primary ingredient of all our decisions, big and little. What shall I buy? How shall I converse with others? How should I raise my children if I’m blessed to have them? What do we watch on TV or online?

Those questions and the answers we give are noticed. Yes, by God of course. But also, by everybody else, be they friends or strangers. Presume for the sake of argument that someone at the supermarket knows you are a parishioner at St. X parish and overhears your conversation. It happens to be all about a pesky neighbor of yours who has got on your nerves for way too many reasons and for way too long. What can that observer conclude about your take on the obligation Christ commanded to love one’s neighbor?

The early Christian author Tertullian wrote about behavior way back in the 2nd century. He wrote: “The heathens were accustomed to exclaiming with astonishment: ‘Behold how these Christians love one another, and how they are ready to die for one another.’” Could a present-day writer say the same about us? Or would he/she declare on the editorial page of a respected publication the following observation: “Too many Christians today are no longer fishers of men but keepers of the aquarium.” God love you and give you His peace.

Gathering Song Our God Is Here

1. Here in this time, here in this place, here we are standing face to face. Here in our hearts, here in our lives, our God is here. Here for the broken, here for the strong, here in this temple we belong. Here in our hearts, here in our lives, our God is here.

Refrain

And we cry: "Holy! Holy! Holy are you!" We cry "Holy! Holy! Holy and true!" Amen, we do believe our God is here. Our God is here.

2. Here in the Word, God is revealed, here where the wounded can be healed. Here in our hearts, here in our lives, our God is here.

Here we become what we receive, here in this Eucharistic feast.

We are his body, living as one; our God is here.

The Gloria: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading

Acts 12:1-11

Thus says the LORD: Rejoice with Jerusalem and be glad because of her, all you who love her; exult, exult with her, all you who were mourning over her! Oh, that you may suck fully of the milk of her comfort, that you may nurse with delight at her abundant breasts! For thus says the LORD: Lo, I will spread prosperity over Jerusalem like a river and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing torrent. As nurslings, you shall be carried in her arms and fondled in her lap; as a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; in Jerusalem you shall find your comfort. When you see this, your heart shall rejoice and your bodies flourish like the grass; the LORD's power shall be known to his servants.

Responsorial Psalm Refrain: Let all the earth cry out to God with joy. (repeat)

Second Reading

2 Timothy 4:6-8

Brothers and sisters: May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither does circumcision mean anything, nor does uncircumcision, but only a new creation. Peace and mercy be to all who follow this rule and to the Israel of God. From now on, let no one make troubles for me; for I bear the marks of Jesus on my body. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

Gospel

Matthew 16:13-19

At that time the Lord appointed seventy-two others whom he sent ahead of him in pairs to every town and place he intended to visit. He said to them, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest. Go on your way; behold, I am sending you like lambs among wolves. Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals; and greet no one along the way. Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.' If a peaceful person lives there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. Stay in the same house and eat and drink what is offered to you, for the laborer deserves his payment. Do not move about from one house to another. Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you. 'Whatever town you enter and they do not receive you, go out into the streets and say, 'The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off against you.' Yet know this: the kingdom of God is at hand. I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom on that day than for that town." The seventy-two returned rejoicing, and said, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us because of your name. "Jesus said, "I have observed Satan fall like lightning from the sky. Behold, I have given you the power to 'tread upon serpents' and scorpions and upon the full force of the enemy and nothing will harm you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven."

The Nicene Creed: I believe in God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven: and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered, death, and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and His kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Song During The Preparation Go Make of All Disciples

2. 'Go make of all disciples:' Baptizing in the name Of Father, Son, and Spirit' from age to age the same. We call each new disciple to follow you, O Lord, redeeming soul and body by water and the Word.

3. 'Go make of all disciples:' We at your feet would stay until each life's vocation accents your holy way. We cultivate the nature God plants in ev'ry heart, revealing in our witness The Master Teacher's art.

Song During Communion Taste and See

Refrain Taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord. O taste and see, taste and see the goodness of the Lord, of the Lord.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times. His praise shall always be on my lips; my soul shall glory in the Lord for he has been so good to me.

2. Glorify the Lord with me. Together let us all praise his name.

I called the Lord and he answered me; from all my troubles I was set free.

3. Worship the Lord, all you people. You'll want for nothing if you ask. Taste and see that God is good; in him we need put all our trust.

Song As We Go Forth God Bless America

God bless America land that I love stand beside her and guide her through the night with a light from above from the mountains to the prairies to the oceans white with foam God bless America my home, sweet home God bless America my home, sweet home.

"Recently at the Knights of Columbus 4th Degree Assembly Communion Breakfast, Michael Dreitlein of our local Dr. McDowell Knights Council was awarded "Patriot of the Year" for his work with the Bring a Hero Home (BAHH) Program. This program works with various branches of the United States Military to bring service personnel home for holidays and special occasions; although these service members have the leave time, they lack the funds to return to their family events. This year, thanks to your support, the Dr. McDowell Council was able to help bring 59 service member's home. While the entire Dr. McDowell Council is involved, it's been Mike's spearheading the program, along with the hard work of the other BAHH committee members that made this collaboration a Hugh success for the program. Congratulations Mike! Well Deserved!

"The Family Rosary Box"

The saying, "A family that prays together stays together," is very true. To honor our Blessed Mother, the Rosary Fellowship would like to share Mary's powerful prayer of the Rosary to our parish families through our new project, "The Family Rosary Box."

This box will be presented to a parish family at the end of the 10:00 am Sunday Mass by our Celebrant. It includes Rosary Beads, kid-friendly activities on how to pray the Rosary, and a statue of Mary. We invite the family to designate a place in their home to display the statue and set time aside to pray the Rosary together during the week. Please email a picture of your family praying the Rosary along with a few sentences reflecting on the experience to rectory@holyfamilyp.org and with your permission, it will be included in our parish bulletin. The box will then be passed on to another family at the next 10:00 am Sunday Mass. There are several ways to sign up: Please use the following link :

Dear Parishioners,

We've officially begun the long-awaited renovation of our beloved church — and we're thrilled to share that everything is going smoothly and on schedule!

Here's what's underway:

- A beautiful new floor is being installed
- The entire interior is getting a fresh coat of paint
- Our pews are being replaced with new, more comfortable seating
- All church furnishings are being restored and renewed
- And we're upgrading all lighting to bright, energy-efficient LED bulbs

This is such an exciting time for our parish family! While there's still much work ahead, each step brings us closer to creating a more beautiful, welcoming, and sacred space where we can worship and pray together for years to come.

Mass During Renovation

- Daily Mass will be celebrated in Room 11 of the school (entrance from the parking lot).
- Weekend Masses (Saturday & Sunday) will take place in the Church Hall, which comfortably seats about 150 people — so please continue to join us and witness the progress as it unfolds!

Your Generosity Makes This Possible

Thank you from the bottom of my heart to all who have shown such interest, support, and generosity. Your kindness is not only helping to renovate a building — it's helping to renew the heart of our parish. Your love and faith truly shine through!

A Piece of Parish History — Available to You

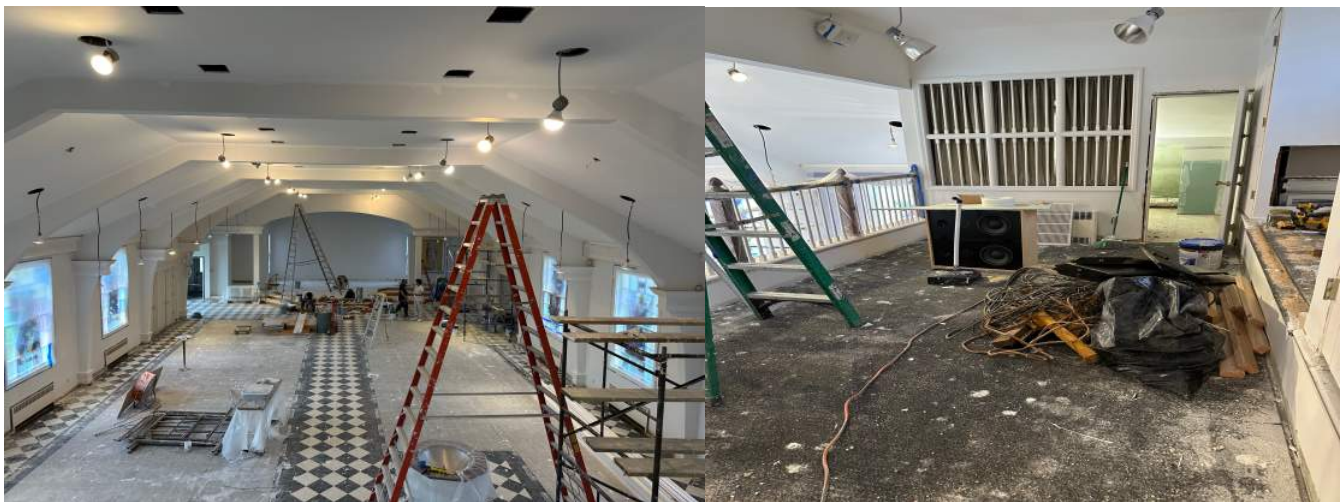

Our current pews, which have held so many prayers and memories, are available to parishioners who would like to take one home. Before we respond to outside interest, we want to offer them first to our parish family. If you're interested, please contact the rectory soon.

If you have any questions, suggestions, or simply want to chat, please feel free to reach out:

☎ Fr. Thomas – (973) 452-5256 ✉ Email – thomasrek@gmail.com 📍 Parish Office – (973) 377-1817

Let us keep one another in prayer during this joyful and transformative time. May God bless every step of this journey — and may we continue building together a home of faith for generations to come.

With gratitude and blessings,
Fr. Thomas

WHEN PEOPLE MAKE VOWS

Vows have sustained the holiness of many women religious who have become saints, including St. Katharine Drexel, a philanthropist who shows us what justice looks like when it is invaded by love; St. Thérèse of Lisieux, a Doctor of the Church whose "little way" demonstrates a prudence radicalized by Christ; St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein), a philosopher and martyr who is an icon of evangelical courage; and St. Teresa of Kolkata, a missionary of charity who embodies the power of poverty and asceticism when placed in the service of Jesus. [Bishop Robert Barron, email message, 6-14-25.]

"God is more pleased by one work, however small, done secretly, without desire that it be known, than a thousand done with desire that men know of them." -St. Gregory of Nyssa
