

Dear Parishioners,

Thank you for your beautiful participation on Ash Wednesday as we began our Lenten journey together. It is always inspiring to see how deeply we value this sacred season, a special gift from God that invites us to let go of what is not life-giving and to grow more intentionally in following Christ, building the Kingdom of Heaven here on earth.

Lent is not a journey we walk alone. As a parish community, we are called to walk together, supporting one another in prayer, faith, and love. As you will see in the calendar, there are many opportunities during this season to deepen our faith and strengthen our bonds as a community. Wishing you a fruitful and blessed Lent. Fr. Thomas

Gathering Song Led By The Spirit

1. Led by the Spirit of our God, we go to fast and pray with Christ into the wilderness; we join his paschal way. "Rend not your garments, rend your hearts. Turn back your lives to me." Thus says our kind and gracious God, whose reign is liberty.
2. Led by the Spirit, we confront temptation face to face, and know full well we must rely on God's redeeming grace. On bread alone we cannot live, but nourished by the Word we seek the will of God to do: this is our drink and food.

First Reading

Genesis 2:7-9, 3:1-7

The LORD God formed man out of the clay of the ground and blew into his nostrils the breath of life, and so man became a living being. Then the LORD God planted a garden in Eden, in the east, and placed there the man whom he had formed. Out of the ground the LORD God made various trees grow that were delightful to look at and good for food, with the tree of life in the middle of the garden and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Now the serpent was the most cunning of all the animals that the LORD God had made. The serpent asked the woman, "Did God really tell you not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?" The woman answered the serpent: "We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden; it is only about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden that God said, 'You shall not eat it or even touch it, lest you die.'" But the serpent said to the woman: "You certainly will not die! No, God knows well that the moment you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods who know what is good and what is evil." The woman saw that the tree was good for food, pleasing to the eyes, and desirable for gaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realized that they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

Responsorial Psalm Refrain: Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned; be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned.

Second Reading

Romans 5:12-19

Brothers and sisters: Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned—for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law. But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come. But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one, the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many. And the gift is not like the result of the one who sinned. For after one sin there was the judgment that brought condemnation; but the gift, after many transgressions, brought acquittal. For if, by the transgression of the one, death came to reign through that one, how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of justification come to reign in life through the one Jesus Christ. In conclusion, just as through one transgression condemnation came upon all, so, through one righteous act, acquittal and life came to all. For just as through the disobedience of the one man the many were made sinners, so, through the obedience of the one, the many will be made righteous.

Gospel

Matthew 4:1-11

At that time Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was hungry. The tempter approached and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread." He said in reply, "It is written: One does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes forth from the mouth of God." Then the devil took him to the holy city, and made him stand on the parapet of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down. For it is written: He will command his angels concerning you and with their hands they will support you, lest you dash your foot against a stone." Jesus answered him, "Again it is written, You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test." Then the devil took him up to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world in their magnificence, and he said to him, "All these I shall give to you, if you will prostrate yourself and worship me." At this, Jesus said to him, "Get away, Satan! It is written: The Lord, your God, shall you worship and him alone shall you serve." Then the devil left him and, behold, angels came and ministered to him.

Song During the Preparation Again We Keep This Solemn Fast

1. Again we keep this solemn fast, a gift of faith from ages past, this Lent which binds us lovingly to faith and hope and charity.
3. More sparing, therefore, let us make the words we speak, the food we take, our sleep, our laughter, ev'ry sense; learn peace through holy penitence.

Communion Processional Song Be Not Afraid

1. You shall cross the barren desert, but you shall not die of thirst. You shall wander far in safety though you do not know the way. You shall speak your words in foreign lands and all will understand. You shall see the face of God and live. Refrain: Be not afraid. I go before you always. Come, follow me, and I will give you rest.
2. If you pass through raging waters in the sea, you shall not drown. If you walk amid the burning flames, you shall not be harmed. If you stand before the pow'r of hell and death is at your side, know that I am with you through it all.
3. Blessed are your poor, for the kingdom shall be theirs. Blest are you that weep and mourn, for one day you shall laugh. And if wicked tongues insult and hate you all because of me, blessed, blessed are you!

Song as we Go Fourth Again We Keep This Solemn Fast

4. Let us avoid each harmful way that lures the careless mind astray; by watchful prayer our spirits free from scheming of the Enemy.
5. We pray, O blessed Three in One, our God while endless ages run, that this, our Lent of forty days, may bring us growth and give you praise.

GOSPEL QUESTIONS TO MEDIATE ON

1. What temptations do you face?
2. How do temptations sneak up on you?
3. How do some sinful things appear good?
4. Reflect on a time you struggled mightily against a temptation and resisted it.

Lent is the time of Conversion

“Now is the time! Here comes God’s kingdom! Change your hearts and lives, and trust this good news” (Mark 1:15)

Lent is a season of conversion, a time of freedom. Jesus himself, as we recall today, was driven into the desert by the Spirit in order to be tempted in freedom. For forty days, he will stand before us and with us as God’s incarnate Son. In Lent, we find new criteria of justice and a community with which we can press forward on a road not yet taken. It is time to act and in Lent, to act also means to pause in prayer in order to receive the word of God. For this reason, prayer, almsgiving and fasting are not three unrelated acts, but a single movement of openness and self-emptying in which we cast out the idols that weigh us down, the attachments that imprison us. Then the atrophied and isolated heart will Revive. In the presence of God, we become brothers and sister, more sensitive to one another: in place of threats and enemies, we discover companions and fellow travelers. This is God’s dream, the promised land to which we journey once we have left our slavery behind.
