A special THANK YOU to all who helped with the Christmas Faire. I feared that this was not going to happen this year since no one had come forward to run it until Ken Choquette volunteered in the early Fall. Ken was willing to coordinate the Faire so as to raise funds for the Scout's Florida trip. I was delighted the Faire would take place again! Ken did an excellent job and the Faire brought in a net of $4,580. I am delighted, and I think you will agree, to be able to contribute $3,000 to the Scouts upcoming Florida Sea Base trip. Helping young people deepen their character and knowledge is of great importance to us all.
-Fr. Bill

We are blessed to have such a caring and generous parish!
Thank you to everyone that participated in our Giving Tree this year. We had a total of 218 tags and all the gift requests were filled.

Thank you to Karen, Dan & Gwen Smith who coordinated the program this year. Thank you to Faith Formation student, Wyatt Sadusky, who helped us organize the gifts for distribution last Sunday.

RCIA Classes have started and are held on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 pm in the Rectory on the following dates.

Important Reminder
If you are NOT vaccinated the CDC and Massachusetts require you to wear a face covering during Mass and in the Hall and to distance from others outside your household.
Pews designated for social distancing are located along both side walls of the church. Hand Sanitizer is located at the entrances and exits of the church. If you are not feeling well, you are excused from attending Mass. Taking these safety precautions will help keep others safe.
