ST. EDWARD CATHOLIC CHURCH WELCOMES ALL NEW PARISHIONERS.

Registration forms can be found in the Narthex of the Church and on our website.

PASTORAL MESSAGE

My Dear Parishioners:

Last Saturday, we celebrated the Solemnity of All Saints and Sunday, the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls Day). Every year on All Souls Day, I feel an urge to visit a cemetery to pray for those departed souls who may not have families to pray for them or who need one more prayer to be released from their suffering. When I visited Memorial Oak Cemetery last Sunday, I felt such a great sense of inner-peace after praying for the souls there. In our church, we are taught that these are important feasts in the liturgical year. On these days, we focus our prayerful attention on the fullness of the church, which includes not only the living, but equally the saints in heaven and the souls in purgatory. By recalling the interdependence, we have the saints in heaven interceding for us on earth and us on earth interceding for the souls in purgatory. We are prayfully reminded how much we need each other in order to obtain the gift of eternal life in heaven. But why do we remember the saints at all? They are in heaven and have no need of our prayers. We remember them not because they need us but rather because we need them. The saints in heaven assist us in two ways: by the example of their earthly lives and by the intercession of their prayers in heaven. From their place in heaven, the saints intercede for us to the Father. We adore God alone. We have a devotion to the Blessed Mother and all the saints as we ask their intercession to the Father. Devotion to the saints is one important element of a balanced spiritual life. Let us never cease to beg the saints to assist us by prayers.

As we look to the parish recap from the numbers, you will notice that we are meeting our monthly obligation for operations from contributions. However, once the balance due from the capital campaign is paid by October of next year, we will still have to make our $33,000 per month note payment. If contributions increase significantly, there will not be a need for another capital campaign; but if not, we will need another capital campaign next year in order to pay off the balance on the note. We have 3,000 registered families, but only about 600 families (20%) contribute to the parish. In order to provide the services our families need and meet our obligations to the Archdiocese, we need more participation from the other 2,400 families. My challenge is to get more families to commit to supporting the parish. Our goal is to increase the percentage of participation on a regular basis to at least 33% of our families. Let's come together and make this happen for our parish and community.

Fr. Christian

VETERAN'S DAY CELEBRATION

All veterans are invited to a Mass and reception on Veterans Day, Tuesday, November 11, 2014 at St. Edward Catholic Church. The Ceremony will begin at 8:00am at the flagpole, followed by Mass and a reception in the Parish Life Center.

"Thank You". We appreciate your service!

CHILI COOK OFF

COME ONE
COME ALL!
20 team
competition

Saturday Nov. 15

Everyone is invited to the Knights of Columbus 3rd annual chili cook-off benefiting the American Wheelchair Association.

Chili is ready at 10:00am. The cost is $5 for a chili sample packet.

There will be prizes, carnival games, raffle, show cars, fun and camaraderie. For information call Gary Dirker 281-386-8506.

ATTN: FIRST COMMUNION FAMILIES

Due to scheduling conflicts, we have moved our celebration of First Penance to Wednesday, December 10, 2014 at 6:00 pm. (Note: this change only affects baptized children / youth who are preparing for First Holy Communion in Spring 2015 ). We apologize for this change and inconvenience. Please contact Mary Wilmot, CRE, for more information at mwilmot@saintedward.org.

DSF UPDATE

If you have not made your pledge to DSF, please prayerfully consider doing so. If we receive more than our goal, ½ of the money is returned to the parish.

If we receive less than our goal, the parish will be billed by the Archdiocese for the balance. Please help us reach our goal.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR CHILDREN

CHRISTMAS IS COMING THE GEESE ARE GETTING FAT WON'T YOU PLEASE FILL A NAM BAG AND BRING IT BACK!

It has been a St. Edward tradition to fill Christmas toy bags for Northwest Assistance Ministries to distribute in the Spring/Houston area.

Stop by the Parish Life Center this weekend Nov. 8 & 9 after all Masses to pick up a bag.

There are several age groups to choose from.

Make a needy child's Christmas day one filled with joy by continuing the tradition. Please return bags to PLC by weekend of Dec. 7th.

CASA JUAN DIEGO DRIVE

Catholic Daughters, Court Our Lady of the Pines #2065 asks you to participate in a Coats, Backpacks and Blankets Drive for Casa Juan Diego on December 14th. We are collecting new blankets and new or gently used coats (all buttons, working zippers, clean) for our brothers and sisters in need. This year there is a need for dark-colored backpacks (for men), adult diapers of any kind, style or brand in large sizes, two-pound bags of pinto beans and small bags of sugar. Your donations may be brought to the Parish Life Center on Hospitality Sunday December 14th. We thank you.

Stations of the Cross
Eagle Scout Project – Fundraiser Update

Sean Fagan has raised $5,400 of the funds necessary to purchase and install the outdoor Stations of the Cross for his Eagle Scout Project, which will be mounted on the columns in the plaza, between the Church and the Administration Building. He needs to raise an additional $3,300 to cover all expenses associated with the project.

On November 16th, Hamburger/Cheeseburger lunches will be offered after the 9:30 and 11:30 Masses. Please come over to the Parish Life Center after these Masses and pick up lunch.

If you attend other Masses, but would like to help with the cost of the project, you can place orders in advance and they will be ready for pick-up after either Mass. To place orders in advance, please send an email to jmsfgn4@att.net. Order confirmations will be returned to you.

There is no price set for the meals; but, a generous donation would be greatly appreciated. In the event that the fundraiser exceeds the requirements of the project, all excess proceeds will go to St. Edward.

DIRECTORIES HAVE ARRIVED!!!

All families who had their pictures taken for the new church directory may pick up their free copy in the church office from 8:30am-4:30pm Monday-Friday and 6:30pm-8:00pm Monday-Thursday.

Ministry Spotlight
Knights of Columbus

We invite all practicing Catholic men 18 years or older to join the world's largest Catholic men's fraternal service organization. In 1882, Father Michael J. McGivney established the Knights of Columbus in the basement of St. Mary's Church in New Haven, CT. Today, the Knights of Columbus boasts a global membership of over 1.8 million. The Knights are a service organization committed to principles of charity, unity, fraternity, and patriotism: service to the family, service to the parish, service to our Catholic Faith, and service to the community. These principles grew from the light of our faith and the teachings of our Holy Church. Currently, 184 men in our parish are Knights in The Msgr. Allen R. Doga - Council 14512 and we are always adding more. We meet twice monthly on the first Monday and third Wednesday at 7 pm in the Annex. If you would like more information on the Knights, please contact Chuck Yost-Council Grand Knight at 281-586-0045 or chuck.yost39@gmail.com

Liturgy Notes
Feast of the Dedication of St. John Lateran
November 9

This Roman Catholic observance commemorates our 34th Pope Sylvester's consecration of the Basilica of the Most Holy Savior, commonly known as St. John Lateran, in Rome on November 9, 324. Churches as they are known today—that is, buildings set apart as places of worship—did not exist for the first two centuries of the Christian era; believers gathered in each other's homes. Thus, the pope's public dedication of this church at the beginning of the fourth century was a first in Christianity and merited a special celebration.

St. John Lateran began as the mansion of a wealthy Roman family named Laterani until it was given to the Christians, serving as the residence of popes for a thousand years. The home was built around a great hall, and this hall became the church. It was called a "basilica," a word that originally described an oblong hall, rounded at one or both ends, where public assemblies were held. A baptistry was added and dedicated to St. John the Baptist, and since the 12th century, the church has been known as St. John Lateran.

MISSING ADULT ED MATERIAL

Adult Faith Formation here at St. Edward tries to purchase the best available programs. Recently we purchased Revelations a Bible Study presented by Jeff Cavens. Apparently someone has borrowed the DVDs and inadvertently not returned them to our office. In addition the eight week Bible Timeline DVDs cannot be found. If the borrower or borrowers are finished with these we would sure like them back in our resource room. Thank you and God Bless. Deacon Nick

CHILDREN'S CHOIR PRATICE

Our next Children's Choir practice will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 11 from 4:15-5:00 pm in the church. We will be singing at the 11:30 mass on Sunday, Nov. 16. Please contact Dayna Reina at 713-683-9000 or Linda Jordan at 281-251-7310 if you need any information. Please keep Mrs. Gonzalez in your prayers.

BAPTISM PREPARATION

Two sessions are required for both parents and godparents who have not attended a Baptism preparation program in the last three years. There is no cost for the sessions and pre-registration is not necessary. Birth certificate required for issuance of Baptism certificate. All questions will be addressed at the sessions.

Session I: The Theology & Ritual of Baptism: 7:00pm-8:15pm in the Parish Life Center the 2nd Monday of each month. (In November both sessions will be held on November 10.)

Session II: The Domestic Church: Catholic Family Life: 7:00pm-8:15pm in the Parish Life Center the 4th Monday of the month. It is a required follow up session for new parents and godparents, but all parishioners are welcome. (In November both sessions will be held on November 10.)
