Third Sunday of Advent

The Advent season is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to prepare our way to the Lord. This Sunday is called "Gaudete Sunday" which signifies hope and rejoicing. I remind everyone to take this opportunity to rejoice in the Lord, prepare the way by reconciling with God through the sacrament of Reconciliation. Also, find ways to participate in some kind of charity.

Thank you to those who responded to the Diocesan Services Fund; we were able to meet our goal.

May God bless you and your loved ones this Advent season.

The Year of Consecrated Life

Pope Francis declared that a Year of Consecrated Life (YCL) would be celebrated throughout the world from November 30, 2014 through February 2, 2016. The consecrated life is defined in our catechism as “a permanent state of life recognized by the church, entered into freely in response to the call of Christ to perfection, and characterized by the profession of the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity, and obedience.” We commonly refer to these as vows. We should acknowledge and pray for those who have dedicated their lives to Christ and His church in this way.

Prayer for the Year of Consecrated Life

O God, throughout the ages you have called women and men to pursue lives of perfect charity through the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity, and obedience. During this Year of Consecrated Life, we give you thanks for these courageous witnesses of Faith and models of inspiration. Their pursuit of holy lives teaches us to make a more perfect offering of ourselves to you. Continue to enrich your Church by calling forth sons and daughters who, having found the pearl of great price, treasure the Kingdom of Heaven above all things. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

CHRISTMAS FLOWER ENVELOPES

Christmas Flower Offering envelopes are available in the Narthex for those who wish to make a contribution in memory of a loved one.

Ministry Spotlight Altar Society

The beauty of the Mass can overwhelm but the spirit, the words, the music, and the fellowship brings us closer to the Kingdom of God. All of it was put together for His glory. Every part matters... down to the smallest detail like the vessels that hold the Body and Blood of Christ and the linens used upon the altar. The group responsible for these 'little things' is the Altar Society. The Blessed Mother inspires them to promote love and respect for the House of the Lord. In the spirit of fellowship, they care for the altar, the sacristies, the chapel, and all of the linens and vessels. Their weekly schedule includes cleaning various areas in the church, laundering linens, polishing vessels, tending to the Holy water, and ordering new supplies when needed. Currently, only 30 parishioners participate in this ministry. 30 more volunteers would go far in lightening the load. They meet monthly, except during the summer, on the first Saturday after the 8:30am mass. Join and share in the fellowship. If you are interested in joining the Altar Society, or if you have any questions, please contact Kathy Dumoit at 281-370-1146 or kdumoit@sbcglobal.net.

Make a resolution to learn more about your faith!

Liturgy Notes

There are seven short verses sung before the Magnificat during Evening Prayer of the Church on the seven days before the vigil of Christmas. They each begin with the exclamation "O". Each of them ends with a plea for the Messiah to come. As Christmas approaches the cry becomes more urgent.

The antiphons were composed in the seventh or eighth century when monks put together texts from the Old Testament which looked forward to the coming of our salvation. They form a rich mosaic of scriptural images. These seven verses, or antiphons as they are called, appear to be the originals although from time to time other texts were used. They became very popular in the Middle Ages. While the monastic choirs sang the antiphons the great bells of the church were rung.

A curious feature of these antiphons is that the first letter of each invocation may be taken from the Latin to form an acrostic in reverse. So the first letters of Sapientia, Adonai, Radix, Clavis, Oriens, Rex, and Emmanuel, provide the Latin words: ERO CRAS. The phrase spells out the response of Christ himself to the heartfelt prayer of his people: "Tomorrow I will be there".

Why not join with the Prayer of the Church each evening and reflect on these words preparing for Christmas day by day:

O Sapientia - December 17th (Proverbs 1:20; 8; 9; I Corinthians 1:30)

O Wisdom, you come forth from the mouth of the Most High. You fill the universe and hold all things together in a strong yet gentle manner. O come to teach us the way of truth.

O Adonai - December 18th (Exodus 3; Micah 5:2; Matthew 2:6)

O Adonai and leader of Israel, you appeared to Moses in a burning bush and you gave him the Law on Sinai. O come and save us with your mighty power.

O Radix Jesse - December 19th (Isaiah 11:10; Romans 15:12; Revelation 5:5)

O stock of Jesse, you stand as a signal for the nations; kings fall silent before you whom the peoples acclaim. O come to deliver us, and do not delay.

O Clavis David - December 20th (Isaiah 22:22; Revelation 3:7)

O key of David and scepter of Israel, what you open no one else can close again; what you close no one can open. O come to lead the captive from prison; free those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death.

O Oriens - December 21st (Malachi 3:20; Luke 1:78, 79)

O Rising Sun, you are the splendor of eternal light and the sun of justice. O come and enlighten those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death.

O Rex Gentium - December 22nd (Revelation 15:3; Psalm 118:22; Isaiah 28:16; Matthew 21:42; Mark 12:10; Luke 20:17; Acts 4:11; Ephesians 2:20; I Peter 2:6)

O King whom all the peoples desire, you are the cornerstone which makes all one. O come and save man whom you made from clay.

O Emmanuel - December 23rd (Isaiah 7:14; 8:8; Haggai 2:7; Matthew 1:23)

O Emmanuel, you are our king and judge, the One whom the peoples await and their Savior. O come and save us, Lord, our God.
