Thank You From Your Pastor!

It's been said that religion is not so much what we do for God as what God has done for us; it's sitting back in amazement in thinking about the countless expressions of His love for us and then praising and thanking him for His love. During this Octave of Easter, we praise and thank Jesus, the Son of God, for dying and rising from the dead to save us from sin and death and giving us a share in His joyful, eternal life.

Religion is also what we do for God. As your Pastor, along with Fr. Mario, I thank everyone who served in the various Holy Week Liturgies: the Priests and the Deacons, the Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and the Lectors, the Choir and all the Ministers of Music, the Sacristans and Altar Servers, the Ushers, the Knights of Columbus, Catholic Daughters, the Altar Society and others who've worked behind the scenes to make our liturgies prayerful and praise-filled.

Finally, Fr. Mario and I thank all St. Edward's parishioners for your prayerful participation in the liturgies of Lent and Holy Week in sharing your time, talent and treasure. You are truly Spirit-filled and Alleluia People.

May God bless you on this Mercy Sunday and through the days ahead.

Rev. Christian Bui

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Among all of the elements of devotion to The Divine Mercy requested by our Lord through St. Maria Faustina Kowalska, the Feast of Mercy holds first place. The Lord's will with regard to its establishment was already made known in His first revelation to the saint, as recorded in her Diary. In all, there were 14 revelations concerning the desired feast.

Our Lord's explicit desire is that this feast be celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. This Sunday is designated in "The Liturgy of the Hours and the Celebration of the Eucharist" as the "Octave Day of Easter." It was officially called the Second Sunday of Easter after the liturgical reform of Vatican II. Now, by the Decree of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments, the name of this liturgical day has been changed to: "Second Sunday of Easter or Divine Mercy Sunday."

Pope John Paul II made the surprise announcement of this change in his homily at the canonization of St. Faustina on April 30, 2000. There, he declared: "It is important then that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church, will be called 'Divine Mercy Sunday.' "

By the words "the whole message," Pope John Paul II was referring to the connection between the "Easter Mystery of the Redemption" — in other words, the suffering, death, burial, resurrection, and ascension of Christ, followed by the sending of the Holy Spirit — and this Feast of Divine Mercy, the Octave Day of Easter, which fulfills the grace of atonement as lived through by Christ Jesus and offered to all who come to Him with trust. http://thedivinemercy.org/mercysunday/dms.php

HOSPITALITY SUNDAY COORDINATORS

St. Edward is in need of 3 volunteers to step up and coordinate Hospitality Sunday every 2nd Sunday of the month. Rather than have ONE volunteer coordinating every month, each one of the 3 volunteers will coordinate a Hospitality Sunday every 3 months; approximately 4 times a year. Please call Annette Titlow at 713-376-6601 if interested and for more information about this ministry.

DEACON IN THE PEW?

You may have noticed Deacon Ken Martin at some weekend Masses sitting in a pew with his wife Mary Ann, instead of always being vested and serving at the altar where you are accustomed to seeing him. Yes, Deacon Ken is still a deacon! He has reached the deacon retirement age of 70 which is set by the archdiocese. Though he retains all the faculties conferred on him at his ordination to the diaconate in 1994, retirement status allows a deacon the flexibility to spend less time in active ministry and more time for personal and family life. So, Deacon Ken continues to be blessed by being part of the St. Edward community-now you just don't know where you'll see him.!

VIRTUS REFRESHER WORKSHOP

"Keeping the Promise Alive" is a mandatory refresher course that went into effect 2011-2012. Employees and volunteers are required to attend "Keeping the Promise Alive" after 5 years of attending the "Protecting God's Children" workshop. It is a 1.5 hour session with one video that provides ongoing awareness for the prevention of child sexual abuse. The material covered in "Keeping the Promise Alive" is designed to identify and reinforce the lessons of the original "Protecting God's Children" program by clarifying some of the more challenging aspects of the sessions and strengthening the participants' ability to recognize risky behavior by adults in their environment and take action to intervene in potentially threatening situations.

A "Keeping the Promise Alive" workshop will be held here at St. Edward on May 6, 2015 at 6:30pm-8:00pm.

Important Notice: Please log into your original account created when you attended a VIRTUS Protecting God's Children workshop. If you do not remember your user id and password, please contact, Jane Truttier, Parish Safe Environment Coordinater at 281-353-9774 or via email at jtruttier@saintedward.org

Did You Know?

Now that the Canadian Supreme Court has imposed a nationwide euthanasia regime, doctors are going to have to learn to kill. That's not so easy. Some of the killed will be physically healthy since the new charter compels access to lethal jabs for anyone with a diagnosable condition that causes irremediable suffering–which the patient decides, and which can include "psychological pain." All doctors practicing in Canada will have to be Jack Kevorkians now as a condition of licensure and good standing. *by WESLEY J.
