ST. EDWARD CATHOLIC CHURCH WELCOMES ALL NEW PARISHIONERS.

Registration forms can be found in the Narthex of the Church and on our website.

First Holy Communion

First Communion is considered the holiest and most important occasion in a Roman Catholic person's life. It is the first time that a person receives the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist, which is the eating of consecrated bread and drinking of consecrated wine. Catholics believe these to be the body and blood of Jesus Christ. Most Catholic children receive their First Communion when they're 7 or 8 years old, because this is considered the age of reason. Other people can receive communion for the first time whenever they've met all of the Catholic Church's requirements.

For anyone to receive communion, the Sacrament of Baptism must have been received, that person must be considered to be without sin and in a state of grace. If a child has been baptized, he or she generally begins studying for First Communion in first grade. Catholic children who don't attend Catholic school go to religious instruction classes after school or on weekends. In most cases for young children, at least two years of religious education must be undertaken before they can receive communion for the first time. Traditionally, young Catholic children will make their first confession, also called the Sacrament of Penance, a week before receiving their First Communion. At confession, the child will tell his or her sins and misdeeds to a priest and receive a penance in exchange. The penance usually is several prayers to be recited immediately after leaving the confessional. After this, the child is absolved of sin, and he or she is ready for his or her First Communion.

On the day of one's First Communion, and whenever receiving communion thereafter, those who are partaking must fast — which means not eating any food — for at least one hour before receiving the sacrament. Drinking water or taking medicine, however, are exceptions. This type of fasting is called the Eucharistic Fast.

A child's First Communion is often a cause for celebration, but the event has a deeper meaning. We believe that the event means that a child has studied and understood, to the best of his or her ability, what Catholics call the mystery of transubstantiation — the changing of the substance of ordinary bread and wine into the substance of Jesus Christ's body and blood, at the Consecration of the Mass. After First Communion, young Catholics must attend church every Sunday, and they are encouraged to receive communion frequently, even weekly. If one has missed Sunday Mass without good reason or has committed a mortal sin, that person is expected to go to confession before receiving communion again.

We the community of St. Edward are proud of our First Communicants as they embrace the Catholic Faith and partake of the Body and Blood of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Deacon Nick

VIRTUS REFRESHER WORKSHOP

"Keeping the Promise Alive" is a mandatory refresher course that went into effect 2011-2012. Employees and volunteers are required to attend "Keeping the Promise Alive" after 5 years of attending the "Protecting God's Children" workshop. It is a 1.5 hour session with one video that provides ongoing awareness for the prevention of child sexual abuse. The material covered in "Keeping the Promise Alive" is designed to identify and reinforce the lessons of the original "Protecting God's Children" program by clarifying some of the more challenging aspects of the sessions and strengthening the participants' ability to recognize risky behavior by adults in their environment and take action to intervene in potentially threatening situations.

A "Keeping the Promise Alive" workshop will be held here at St. Edward on May 6, 2015 at 6:30pm-8:00pm.

Important Notice: Please log into your original account created when you attended a VIRTUS Protecting God's Children workshop. If you do not remember your user id and password, please contact, Jane Truttier, Parish Safe Environment Coordinator at 281-353-9774 or via email at jtruttier@saintedward.org

Did You Know?

"Whatever proportions these crimes finally assumed,
it became evident to all who investigated them that they had started from small beginnings. The beginnings at first were merely a subtle shift in emphasis in basic attitude, basic in the euthanasia movement, that there is such a thing as life not worthy to be lived. This attitude in its early stages concerned itself merely with the severely and chronically sick.
Gradually, the sphere of those to be included in this category was enlarged..."

Registration for Sacramental Preparation Begins Soon!

Registrations for First Penance / First Holy Communion and Youth Confirmation will begin May 1st.

If you have a child who will begin preparing for a sacrament in the fall, please note:

- Registration for sacrament preparation is separate from religious education. That is, registering your child for religious education classes (or Catholic school) does not "automatically" register him / her for First Holy Communion or Confirmation preparation.
- Registration for sacraments is done in person. Beginning May 1st, you will be able to contact Frances Bernardic in the OEC at 281-353-9774 to schedule a registration appointment.
- If your child / youth is not baptized, or was not baptized in a Catholic church, please contact Amy Auzenne, DRE as soon as possible to discuss the best way to help your child prepare for sacraments.
