DEADLINE FOR BULLETIN

Friday, 9 days before Sunday publication.

ST. EDWARD CATHOLIC CHURCH WELCOMES ALL NEW PARISHIONERS.

Registration forms can be found in the Narthex of the Church and on our website.

Words of Gratitude on the 30th Sacerdotal Anniversary

This Sunday, the 19th of July, I mark my 30th Anniversary of Priesthood Ordination and First Mass. I remember vividly the very moment I first envisioned myself as a priest. It was 1985, when the Ordaining Bishop, Most Rev. Emilio Z. Marquez, D.D. conferred the Lord's Gift of Sacerdotal Ordination through the laying of hands with the form of priestly ordination. That was truly an awesome moment of grace and gratitude to God who always has been faithful to me, despite the many times of my infidelity. In my years as a priest, notably a 'young' priest as compared to my confreres, who are wizened way beyond my years, a question that is often asked is why did I become a priest. I have always viewed that as somewhat of a trick question, because it means that it has a one-off answer, and that it is in the past. I have noticed that any answer that I give indicates the struggles that I have been going through at those particular times that the question was posed. Bringing these to my spiritual director for reflection and direction, I realize that the motives for becoming a priest have a somewhat evolving texture, much like the ways that identifying the motives for becoming a seminarian had a similar evolving weave.

So for the present, I shall settle with 'meaning'. Being a priest has not only added meaning to my life, but I do hope that it has also brought meaning to the lives of the many whom I have encountered, touched and hopefully, healed and motivated in these last thirty years of active ministry. Happiness just doesn't cut it, because not even Jesus was happy all the time in his ministry. I'm willing to wager that hanging on the cross hoisted above Calvary on that first Good Friday could not have been a very happy moment in Jesus' life. In fact, His use of the Greek 'makarios' in Matthew's Beatitudes has been translated into 'happy are the ...' has us standing on our heads to see how Jesus defines happiness.

No, it has not been happy all the time for me either as a priest these thirty years past, but having said that I don't think that any one of my friends, parishioners, former classmates and schoolmates can ever say that their choice of vocation in life has been one that has been happy at every single moment of their lives. If so, then the tapestry of their lives would be more like a flat sheet made up of one single shade. But if our lives are indeed a picturesque tapestry on which not just we, but God the master weaver as well adjusts the warps and wefts of the loom of life, then the ups and downs, the joys and sorrows, successes and failures, the times of sickness and health, plenty and poverty, all add to the depth of meaning and beauty beyond adequate description.

As I celebrate with you my Priestly Anniversary, I always remember my brother priests in the Presbyteral Brotherhood and I salute their commitment and courage, and their quest for holiness. But perhaps 30 years is a good beginning to look at things anew, and where possible, add more meaning to a world that is constantly searching for it, albeit in often the wrong places. I also thank you, my dear Parishioners of Saint Edward for your cordial acceptance and encouraging support, for all your prayers, as well as to Rev. Christian Bui, our Pastor, for his trust and confidence, to his Eminence Daniel Cardinal DiNardo for his paternal guidance, to all the members of the Parish Staff, with whom I work to serve, to all my confreres in the Disciples of Hope religious community and to the members of the St. Edward Vocation Committee. To you who stand as a personal reminder for me to thank the Lord whenever I meet and think of you. God bless you all!

Your Priest-Servant in the Lord Jesus, Father Mario

WHATEVER HAPPENED TO 'SUNDAY BEST'?

In Church we should always dress with a special regard for decency. Appropriate attire is needed to respect the sanctity and holiness of the Mass and of God's House. Modesty requires that we do not wear clothes that expose our body unnecessarily, regardless of the fashion. A man or woman in modest dress sends a multidimensional message of dignity, self-confidence and respectability, and focuses attention on inner character and substance. Houston Catholic Bookstore has published a modesty pamphlet which we have made available in the Narthex.

PART TIME POSITIONS AVAILABLE

ART TEACHER: St. Edward Catholic School is seeking an Art Teacher for the 2015-2016 school year. A part-time position, Monday - Friday, from 8:00am-12:00pm, for grades Kinder - 4th. Ministry Spotlight*Northwest Assistance Ministries

Did you know St. Edward Catholic Community is a covenant church to Northwest Assistance Ministries, otherwise known as NAM? What does this mean? Glad you asked! Along with the other covenant churches, our congregation is bound to support NAM in their endeavor to serve the needs of the people in our community. We support NAM monetarily through donations from the church budget as well as some of the Loaves & Fishes collections. We also support them physically through those who volunteer their time and talents in a service of their choice. We also actively support them in their seasonal projects through the generosity our congregation shows with the toy bags at Christmas and the Back to School supplies and food drives. There are two congregational representatives from each covenant church that attend quarterly meetings with the NAM Board of Directors. These meetings keep the line of transparency open between NAM and their donors. NAM's assistance programs are numerous and cover many needs of our community including Meals on Wheels, Food Pantry, Children's Clinic, Family Violence Center, 50+ Senior Center, Resale Shop, Housing Services, and several self help classes. This is a wonderful organization that has helped thousands in our area and will continue to do so with St. Edward's help and support. Thank you for reflecting God's love to NAM and the people they support. If you would like to learn more or get involved please go to www.namonline.org for more information.

VIRTUS TRAINING-PGC

Preventing child sexual abuse is the goal of the Archdiocesan Safe Environment Office. "Protecting God's Children" is the program selected by the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston to educate clergy, staff and volunteers who work with children and youth about child sexual abuse and the ways to create a safe environment for children. The 3-hour live session includes videos and facilitated discussions that focus on the prevention of abuse and the protection of children. Adults learn how to recognize the warning signs of sexual abuse and to respond appropriately. You will learn about steps that the faith community can take to create a safe environment for all God's children and how to respond when adults behave in a way that raises concerns.

A "Protecting God's Children" workshop will be offered here at St. Edward on August 15 at 1pm-4pm in the Parish Life Center.

All attendees must have a current Driver's License (any state), State-issued Identification Card, Passport (any country), Mexico or Guatemala Consulate ID in order to attend a "Protecting God's Children" workshop. When pre-registering for the class, YOU MUST USE YOUR NAME and DATE OF BIRTH as it appears on your ID. Please register online at www.virtusonline.org.

SPIRITUAL FAMILIES PROGRAM

Thank you to everyone who participated in the Spiritual Families Program throughout the seminary school year. Your prayers are appreciated and are bearing fruit. We rejoice for the good news that five of our seminarians were ordained to the priesthood! Please feel free to continue to pray for your Spiritual Families seminarian especially during the summer. Another special way to pray for vocations this summer is to take home a vocation cross for a week; there is information and sign-up in the Narthex.

Did You Know?

On Friday, June 26, 2015, the Supreme Court declared that same sex couples have a right to marry anywhere in the U.S. The Court's 5-4 ruling means that 14 states, in the south and Midwest, including Texas, will have to stop enforcing their bans. Cardinal DiNardo said, "The ruling does not and cannot change what marriage really is. No one and no court can make what is false true."

If you would like to be put on our email list for RLM updates, please email Evelin Martinez at evelinmart@yahoo.com.
