Did You Know? Bishop Thomas J. Tobin of Rhode Island has a message for Catholic voters: never vote for any candidate who supports abortion. Bishop Tobin made the remarks in an April 21 post on Facebook: Catholics: Vote Pro-Life

As the primary election draws near in Rhode Island, I encourage faithful Catholics to vote pro-life – and never to vote for any candidate, of any party, who supports abortion. And don't be fooled by those who say they "aren't pro-abortion, but are just pro-choice." It's a smoke screen for what they really believe, but are afraid to admit. After all, what kind of choice are they promoting? They're not talking about choosing a favorite ice cream flavor, are they? And it's not about so-called "reproductive freedom or women's health care" either. Clearly, politicians who support abortion are encouraging a choice that ends the life of an innocent human being and ultimately harms the mother, personally and spiritually!

As Pope Francis has reminded us: "It is not progressive to try to resolve problems by eliminating human life." (EG #214)

LECTIO DIVINA

Lectio Divina is one of the great treasures of the Christian tradition of prayer. This tradition of prayer flows out of a Hebrew method of studying the Scriptures, which was called haggadah. Haggadah was an interactive interpretation of the Scriptures by means of the free use of the text to explore its inner meaning. It was part of the devotional practice of the Jews in the days of Jesus.

The ancient practice of Lectio Divina (Divine Reading) - the prayerful reading of Scripture - is being rediscovered and renewed in our time. Notice that it is a prayer tradition. We need to distinguish Lectio Divina from Bible or Scripture study, which provides a solid conceptual background for the practice of Lectio Divina. Scripture study is a way of exploring the stories and teachings of a religious tradition through analysis of its sacred texts. Lectio Divina is a contemplative practice that is a direct way of connecting to and relating with God.

Come join us as we continue the celebration of Easter to Pentecost with 6 sessions of the prayer of Lectio Divina and Centering Prayer. Join Deacon Dom and our community on Tuesday nights from 7pm to 8pm. Location: Chapel. To sign up for class, please email: dominic@SMSeminary.com
