DEADLINE FOR BULLETIN

Friday, 9 days before Sunday publication.

ST. EDWARD CATHOLIC CHURCH WELCOMES ALL NEW PARISHIONERS.

Registration forms can be found in the Narthex of the Church and on our website.

Dear Parishioners,

The Beatitudes (Mt. 5. 1-12): St. Matthew makes sure that Jesus is on a mountain, like the new Moses, the Teacher who gives the new law. According to Matthew, the Beatitudes are the new commandments for the community of faith.

The Beatitudes can be summarized in three points:

The Beatitudes are not meant to exalt poverty and suffering, but to assure us that as followers of Christ we can trust God's love for us and his presence in bad times.

These blessings came upon some surprising people and turned upside down some of the values of the time that held, that wealth and prosperity were signs of God's favor.

In a violent society, Jesus blessed the peacemakers, and called them children of God. Jesus began the Sermon on the Mount with what we call the Beatitudes. They stand in contrast with many prevailing ideas about happiness! Many people looking for happiness in wrong places like wealth, power, positions etc. without realizing that happiness is the byproduct of other things and especially of our relationship to God.

All the Beatitudes have an eschatological meaning also, that is, they promise us definitive salvation not in this world, but in the next. But the spirit of the Beatitudes does give us, in this life, peace in the midst of tribulation. The Beatitudes imply a completely new approach, quite at odds with the usual way man evaluates things: they rule out any kind of pharisaical religiosity, which regards earthly happiness as a blessing from God and a reward for good behavior, and unhappiness and misfortune as a form of punishment. In all ages, the Beatitudes put spiritual goods on a much higher plane than material possessions. The healthy and the sick, the powerful and the weak, the rich and the poor--all are called, independently of their circumstances, to the deep happiness that is experienced by those who live up to the Beatitudes which Jesus teaches.

Fr. Thomas Joseph

Go Make Disciples

*"ST. IGNATIUS pointed out two criteria on love.
The first: love is expressed more clearly in actions than in words.
The second: there is greater love in giving than in receiving."* POPE FRANCIS

"GO MAKE DISCIPLES" 2017 DIOCESAN SERVICES FUND

Our 2017 Diocesan Services Fund (DSF) begins next weekend in every parish throughout the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. Christ calls us to reach those who are sick or in need, to bless them, serve them, and show them mercy. The thousands of people served by the ministries of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston need your compassion and generosity. Your kind gift to DSF enables us to reach out to people in this parish and throughout the entire archdiocese through more than 60 important programs.

This week, all registered parishioners will receive a letter from Cardinal DiNardo, along with a personalized pledge card, inviting you to Go Make Disciples. Pray about your DSF 2017 commitment, then complete the enclosed pledge card and return it via mail in the special envelope provided or bring it to Mass next weekend. If you prefer, you may go online at www.archgh.org/dsf to make your donation. Your generosity will allow our Catholic community to continue many vital programs and services. Our parish goal for this year is $170,000.
