*"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and
two fish;
but what good are these for so many?"*

John 6:9

Did you know?

What does it mean when we strike our breast at the words: “Through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault...”?

Excerpt from Pope Benedict XVI's The Spirit of the Liturgy

“Another gesture came into Christianity from the narrative already mentioned of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector (cf. Luke 18:9-14): striking the breast. Apparently, in the North Africa of St. Augustine, it was very popular and practiced in a somewhat exaggerated and superficial manner, so much so, in fact, that the Bishop of Hippo [St. Augustine] had to remind his flock, with gentle irony, to moderate their ‘sin-bashing’. However, this gesture, by which we point not at someone else but at ourselves as the guilty party, remains a meaningful gesture of prayer. This is exactly what we need, time and again, to do: to see and acknowledge our guilt and so also to beg for forgiveness. When we say mea culpa (through my fault), we turn, so to speak, to ourselves, to our own front door, and thus we are able rightly to ask forgiveness of God, the saints, and the people gathered around us, whom we have wronged. During the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God), we look upon him who is the Shepherd and for us became Lamb and, as Lamb, bore our iniquities. At this moment it is only right and proper that we should strike our breasts and remind ourselves, even physically, that our iniquities lay on his shoulders, that ‘with his stripes we are healed’ (Isaiah 53:5).”

Saint quote of the day:

"The secret of happiness is to live moment by moment and to thank God for all that He, in His goodness, sends to us day after day."

DSF SUMMARY REPORT—2018

Parish Goal	$170,000.00
Total Amount Pledged	$131,770.32
Pledged Under Goal	($38,229.68)

Response to Feasibility Study Comments:

Several comments were made about the Parish not scheduling meetings in the school classrooms. Those classrooms may be scheduled for any meeting, however, the biggest problem has always been the lack of willingness to work with the classroom set up. The desks are certainly adult size but most groups prefer tables and chairs in a certain set up. If anyone requesting meeting space is willing to use the desks and chairs available, they can be scheduled in the classrooms. All churches with schools have space that must be used for dual purposes with everyone willing to work with the set up available.

Comments were made about space for the youth. There are plans in place to have a space dedicated for the youth, freeing up the current youth room for additional meeting space. Hopefully, we can move forward with the plans in the next year.

Anyone meeting in the current annex or youth room, will notice that the restrooms are being totally remodeled. The roof is also being replaced on those two rooms. The funds will come from the large donation we received last December. The restroom remodeling should be complete in about 3 weeks; but in the meantime, restrooms in the PLC can be used for those meeting in the Annex/Youth Room.

Adult Confirmation

These classes are offered for adult Catholics (18 and older) who have been baptized in the Catholic Church but have never received the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Children's Liturgy is on break! Here are some tips to help our littlest saints practice good church manners this summer.

- Sit near the front so that children can see what is happening on the altar.
- Bring a "Mass Bag" with a children's bible, saint books, and other (quiet) religious articles for young children. Older children can follow the Mass using a children's missal (available from any Catholic bookstore).
- If you have a child who is unhappy or over-excited, you can bring them to the narthex (front part of the church). Once they are calm, please rejoin us in the sanctuary so that your family can worship with us!

Members of the congregation can help by:

- setting a good example for our little ones to follow during the Mass;
- being kind and encouraging to parents of young children; and
- complimenting families when you notice children paying attention and participating in Mass.

Children's Liturgy will return to our regular schedule in August.
