John 10:7

HOLY MASS ON THE LITURGICAL FEAST OF DIVINE MERCY
HOMILY OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS (Excerpt)

*Church of Santo Spirito in Sassia
Second Sunday of Easter, 11 April 2021*

The risen Jesus appeared to the disciples on several occasions. He patiently soothed their troubled hearts. Risen himself, he now brings about "the resurrection of the disciples". He raises their spirits and their lives are changed. Earlier, the Lord's words and his example had failed to change them. Now, at Easter, something new happens, and it happens in the light of mercy. Jesus raises them up with mercy. Having received that mercy, they become merciful in turn. It is hard to be merciful without the experience of having first received mercy.

They receive mercy through three gifts. First, Jesus offers them peace, then the Spirit and finally his wounds. The disciples were upset. They were locked away for fear, fear of being arrested and ending up like the Master. But they were not only huddled together in a room; they were also trapped in their own remorse. They had abandoned and denied Jesus. They felt helpless, discredited, good for nothing. Jesus arrives and says to them twice, "Peace be with you!" He does not bring a peace that removes the problems without, but one that infuses trust within. It is no outward peace, but peace of heart. He tells them "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, even so I send you" (Jn 20:21). It is as if to say, "I am sending you because I believe in you". Those disheartened disciples were put at peace with themselves. The peace of Jesus made them pass from remorse to mission. The peace of Jesus awakens mission. It entails not ease and comfort, but the challenge to break out of ourselves. The peace of Jesus frees from the self-absorption that paralyzes; it shatters the bonds that keep the heart imprisoned. The disciples realized that they had been shown mercy: they realized that God did not condemn or demean them, but instead believed in them. God, in fact, believes in us even more than we believe in ourselves. "He loves us better than we love ourselves (cf. SAINT JOHN HENRY NEWMAN, Meditations and Devotions, III, 12, 2). As far as God is concerned, no one is useless, discredited or a castaway. Today Jesus also tells us, "Peace be with you! You are precious in my eyes. Peace be with you! You are important for me. Peace be with you! You have a mission. No one can take your place. You are irreplaceable. And I believe in you"....

Dear sister, dear brother, do you want proof that God has touched your life? See if you can stoop to bind the wounds of others. Today is the day to ask, "Am I, who so often have received God's peace, his mercy, merciful to others? Do I, who have so often been fed by the Body of Jesus, make any effort to relieve the hunger of the poor?" Let us not remain indifferent. Let us not live a one-way faith, a faith that receives but does not give, a faith that accepts the gift but does not give it in return. Having received mercy, let us now become merciful. For if love is only about us, faith becomes arid, barren and sentimental. Without others, faith becomes disembodied. Without works of mercy, it dies (cf. Jas 2:17). Dear brothers and sisters, let us be renewed by the peace, forgiveness and wounds of the merciful Jesus. Let us ask for the grace to become witnesses of mercy. Only in this way will our faith be alive and our lives unified. Only in this way will we proclaim the Gospel of God, which is the Gospel of mercy.

The entire message will be in published in "The Crown" or you can go to http://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/messages/urbi/documents/papa-francesco_20210404_urbi-et-orbi-pasqua.html

World Day of Prayer for Vocations
April 25, 2021

The purpose of World Day of Prayer for Vocations is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers for his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life.

Please pray that young men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life or secular institutes.

2021 marks the 58th Anniversary of the world Day of Prayer for Vocations

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, You made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ.

We ask that You inspire young people whom you call to priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow Your will. Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

It is up to us to petition the Lord to bless us with laborers for His vineyard. To join others in pledging to continuously pray for an increase of vocations go to <https://invisiblemonastery.com>.

USHERS

NEEDED

Ushers are needed for the 5:00 pm Sunday Mass. If you are willing to serve, please contact Matt Thai at mthai@saintedward.org or call the Parish office.

Assuring a welcome presence, you enhance the beauty of the Liturgy and become an instrument through whom God is present to those who come to worship.

Jesus said, "Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the One who sent me." (Mt 10:40)

Gospel Reflection for Kids

John 10:11-18: Jesus described himself in many ways. We don't know many shepherds, but in Jesus' time, they were everywhere, some very caring and others who didn't care for their sheep very well. Jesus describes Himself as the Good Shepherd who knows each one of us, who laid down His life for us.

Who are the people in your life who are "good shepherds" for you, who lead you, who care for you?

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION:

4th Sunday of Easter: April 25th

That we take time in daily silent prayer to talk and listen for Jesus' voice.

"I am the good shepherd...and I lay down my life for the sheep... and they will heed my voice." - John 10:14-16

When you pray, do you only ask Jesus for the things that you want? Do you ever ask Him what He wants from you? How do you listen for His response? Many times Jesus responds in "quiet whispers" that are not so obvious. So, take time every day, in silence, to actively listen for His voice.

ST. EDWARD CATHOLIC SCHOOL

How does Faith Direct work?

- You can visit faith.direct/TX603 and enroll securely online or text “Enroll” to 281-767-4313.
- For those of you who would not be comfortable going online, you can still enroll in this program by completing an enrollment form and mailing it to Faith Direct. You do not need a computer to give electronically!
- You can elect to have your specified bank or credit card account debited on the 4th & 15th of the month for both offertory and any second collections you support.
- Parishioners can elect to receive “offertory cards” in lieu of envelopes to be placed in the collection basket.

Thank you! Your support has made this program a cost-effective, efficient and secure way for our parish to receive your gifts.
