The world in which we live has people of all races and creeds that are hungry for more spiritual sustenance than physical food. That is why St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta says that the greatest hunger in this world is not for food, but for love. In response to the spiritual hunger of people in His own day, Jesus proclaims Himself to be, "the Bread of Life that came down from Heaven," and not only feeds them with His words, but His very own body.

The Gospel of this Sunday describes Jesus' discourse in the synagogue at Capernaum after His miraculous feeding of the 5,000. Here Jesus reveals Himself as the true, "Bread of Life that came down from Heaven," to give life to the world. Jesus proclaims that it is He Himself, the Incarnate Son of God, who is the new and perfect manna, who has very literally "come down from Heaven." This means that in the Holy Eucharist, Jesus gives us a share of eternal life while we are still on earth.

We are living in a world where many church going Catholics do not believe in the Real Presence of God in the Eucharist. Yet there are more than 100 Eucharistic miracles which have been scientifically proven and approved by the Catholic Church. Allow me to introduce someone who is in the process of canonization and lived 13 years by only consuming the Eucharist alone.

Blessed Alexandrina Maria da Costa (1904-1955) was a Portuguese mystic who was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 2004. Born in Balazar, a town 145 miles north of the renowned Marian pilgrim center in Fatima, she started working on a farm when she was only 9 years old. Later she supported her family working as a seamstress. When she was 14, her former employer tried to molest her. She jumped from an upstairs window to escape from him resulting in severe injuries, including that of the spine. 6 years later, she became bedridden, and remained that way for 30 years. Amid her suffering, she turned to Jesus and grew closer to Him. In 1931, she had the first of several apparitions of Jesus, during which Jesus told her she would suffer for the salvation of souls. According to her diary, during the Holy Week of 1942, Jesus appeared to her and said, "You will not take food again on earth. Your food will be my flesh; your drink will be my divine blood." After receiving this message from Jesus, she started an absolute fast that lasted for 13 years until she died in 1955. The only nourishment she received for 13 years was Jesus in the Holy Communion. During this period, she was subjected to rigorous medical observation in a hospital for 40 days to find out what was happening. After this medical observation, doctors certified that she was not taking any food and survived by Holy Communion alone. On one occasion, Jesus said to Blessed Alexandrina in a vision, "You are living by the Eucharist alone because I want to prove to the world the power of the Eucharist and the power of my life in souls."

LITURGY

WHAT IS THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY?

"The Immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory." [Pius XII, Munificentissimus Deus 44]

THIS IS DOGMATIC!

This teaching was infallibly defined by Pope Pius XII on Nov. 1, 1950 in the bull Munificentissimus Deus. He explained, this is "a divinely revealed dogma" (ibid.). This means that it is a matter of faith that has been divinely revealed by God and that has been infallibly proposed by the Magisterium.

WHAT DOES EX CATHEDRA MEAN?

Since it is a dogma defined by the Pope, as opposed to an ecumenical council, it is an "ex cathedra" statement which means, one delivered "from the chair" of Peter.

A WORD FROM OUR DEACON

Recently it was announced that I was retiring. This is true of my salaried position as Adult Education Coordinator of the parish. Retirement, as regards to employment, is the same for me as any one of you. However, retirement from being an ordained clergy in the Catholic Church is a bit more difficult to explain. Since many of you have asked with a sense of confusion, I thought I would explain.

Upon their 70th birthday, deacons are automatically retired from their canonical assignment and their diaconal status is changed from active to retired. The procedures to be followed are the same for deacons as for priests of this Archdiocese. In addition, significant family or work-related matters beyond the deacon's control, and which can reasonably be expected to inhibit the ability of the deacon to exercise any diaconal ministry, may justify retirement. Deacons will receive notice in writing from the Archbishop granting them retirement status. Unless explicitly revoked or modified, faculties remain in effect after retirement. A retired deacon is released from active ministry only, and not from the Order of Deacons. Accordingly, he and his wife remain welcome to participate in liturgical celebrations and Archdiocesan functions. Retired deacons are not bound to obligations of continuing education, on-going participation in safe environment programs [unless volunteering], annual retreats, and annual evaluations. At the same time, retired deacons of the Archdiocese can participate in the exercise of their diaconal faculties at a parish with the specific delegation of the pastor.

Fr. Bui, as my pastor, has given me delegation to remain active in the diaconal ministries at St. Edward that have been an integral part of my family's life for the last 21 years. I will continue to be on the schedule for serving Mass on Sundays and weekdays (Monday and Thursday). I will continue with homilies on the regular schedule as well as weddings, annulments, funerals, Baptisms, and Spiritual Direction. Because I retain the faculty to teach, I will continue teaching the faith in many of the parish programs: TMIY, RCIA, Sacrament Preparation, Bible Studies and as a Certified Catechist whenever the OEC department seeks my assistance. I am by no means prepared to become invisible at St. Edward. I suppose the only things that really change are that I don't have private office space and my status at the Archdiocese changes from active to retired. I thank Fr. Bui for allowing me to continue my ministry at St. Edward.
