Dear brothers and sisters of Saint Edward,

For the next few Sundays, we will be reading from the Letter of St. James. St. James addresses his letter to the entire early church rather than to an individual person or a specific community. This “universal letter” has been compared by some scholars to the Old Testament’s wisdom literature, because it provides many relevant insights into the life of discipleship. One sentence stood out to me from the passage, “Be doers of the word and not hearers only.” (James 1:22) This is at the heart of what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ. We are called not only to hear God’s Word, but to put it into action.

St. Francis of Assisi is attributed with saying, “Preach the Gospel at all times, and if necessary, use words.” The greatest witness we can bring to the power of the Gospels is how they impact our own lives and how they inspire us to care for and love one another. When we radiate the joy and peace we experience in our loving relationship with God, we attract others. We do not have to “convert” them; we can simply live our lives in an authentic manner, and let them know that it is being a follower of Jesus that gives us this freedom to love. Tertullian, a prolific Christian author in the late second and early third centuries, wrote that others, observing the lives of the early Christians, would remark, “See, how they love one another.” We must strive that those observing us today would be inspired to say the same.

I am pleased and personally inspired that we have so many wonderful ministries who are indeed being doers of the word on a daily basis. It is at the forefront of my mind that this is a crucial aspect of our community of faith. I thank you for all you do to support these efforts.

I wish you and your loved ones continued blessings of good health and great peace.

Fr. Christian

“... FEED MY SHEEP.” JOHN 21:17

A WORD FROM OUR DIRECTOR OF EVANGELIZATION & CATECHESIS

N.E.W.S. has been an acronym that has sustained me and my health goals for over four years. The N stands for nutrition, the E stands for exercise, the W stands for water and the S stands for sleep. However, for the last year and a half, the S has become a reminder to be intentional in caring for my soul. Now the S stands for Soul Care.

Those who aim to grow in holiness and to be true disciples of Christ, must keep the state of their soul a top priority. How do we take care of our souls especially during trying times?

- The Mass- every Sunday join us for Mass or catch the livestream and aim to participate as fully and actively as you can. Open yourself to God's voice, to the graces available to you through the Eucharist, and resolve each time to do your best at being a disciple of Christ.
- Examination of Conscience- when we are serious about growing in holiness and being genuine disciples, we must be humble enough to face our sins. Resolve to do this at least once a month.
- Confession- the confessional is a place of great healing. Regardless of how long it has been since you've attended the sacrament, make plans to go to confession within the next 4 weeks.
- Adoration- in the scriptures Jesus tells us, “Come to me all you who are weary and burdened and I will give you rest.” (Matthew 11:28). Consider setting aside time to come to the parish and be with Jesus every other week.

These four bullet points help us grow in intimacy with Jesus Christ and while there are more, these are foundational. The way we care for our soul paves the way to our eternal home. If Heaven is your goal; soul care is the way to go.

Annette O'Driscoll
