Funeral Planning Guide for Parishioners

The following is designed to guide you through the process of arranging a funeral in coordination with the Church and the chosen Funeral Home. Feel free to reach out if you have any questions or need assistance. Funeral liturgy (prayers within Mass or outside of Mass) is celebrated for children intended to be Baptized, Catechumens, and Initiated Catholics.

1. Notification of Death:

- Hospice or prior to death – ask for a priest to celebrate Viaticum for the baptized Catholic (aka Last Rites). Or celebrate Baptism if unbaptized.
- Unexpected death – Police/County may be involved until the release of the body.

2. Choose a Funeral Home:

- Select a Funeral Home to handle the arrangements. Only a licensed Funeral Director can take custody and transport the body.

3. Make Arrangements with the Funeral Home:

- The church can only finalize date(s) upon agreement with the Funeral Home.
- They will assist you in completing necessary paperwork.
- Among other important decisions - decide between a casket or cremation.
- Examine the various interment options, including burial plot, inurnment, niches, and others at the cemetery.
- Please refrain from keeping an urn of cremated remains in your house.

4. Contact the Church:

- Reach out to the church to coordinate dates for the funeral. Sometimes the Funeral Director will coordinate with the church if requested.

5. Parish Hall Use (for Registered Parishioners):

- If available, the Parish Hall (PLC) may be used for a reception after Mass or after burial.
- Two-hour limit.
- Church provides tables and chairs; family is responsible for food, drinks, utensils, etc.

6. Vigil/Rosary:

- Held at the Funeral Home (not at the church).
- Encouraged but optional.

7. Funeral Liturgy Options:

- Mass cannot be celebrated at the Funeral Home.
- Choices:
  - Vigil/Rosary at Funeral Home, Funeral Mass at Church, Committal at Cemetery.
  - Funeral Mass at Church and Committal at Cemetery.
  - Vigil/Rosary at Funeral Home, Funeral Liturgy Outside of Mass at Funeral Home, Committal at Cemetery.
  - Funeral Liturgy Outside of Mass at Funeral Home and Committal at Cemetery.
  - Committal at Cemetery only (includes Final Commendation).
  - Memorial Mass (when the body is not present).

8. Church Fees:

- No fee for the church.
- Donations are accepted for the clergy and church.

9. Rite of Committal:

- Celebrated by a priest or deacon at the burial or inurnment in the cemetery.

10. Mass Intentions:

- Consider requesting Mass intentions for the deceased by contacting the parish office.

MINISTRY MESSAGE

Scripture defines obedience as the act of hearing or hearkening to a higher authority, especially God, and submitting to their commandments. Scripture shows examples of obedience from different relationships, such as wife to husband, children to parents, slaves to masters, Christians to church leaders and persons in authority. All of these examples lead ultimately to the relationship between God and man. The creature owes complete obedience to the creator. In the Old Testament, this relationship between God and man is emphasized in the obedience of characters such as Abraham. The angel says, "Abraham, Abraham," to stop Abraham from slaying Isaac, and Abraham responded, "Here I am!" (Genesis 22:11). God says, "Jacob, Jacob," to promise to make of him a great nation, and Jacob responded, "Here I am!" (Genesis 46:2). God says, "Moses, Moses," from the burning bush, and Moses responded, "Here I am!" (Exodus 3:4). This morning, Samuel answers, "speak; for your servant is listening." It is the right response. Samuel acknowledges his servant status before the Lord. He also acknowledges the Lord's right to speak and Samuel's need to listen. St. Paul speaks to us in 1 Corinthians of disobedience due to immorality. Immorality in the Bible means sinning against God or breaking His laws. Immorality can destroy the relationship between God and His people. We recognize God's right to speak by hearkening to his law, and by obedience to his law. There are many attractions, distractions, desires, hungers, feelings, and the like that we experience in our lives. If these lead us to act against God's law and we choose to act on them rather than on God's law, then we are choosing to sin. St. Paul points out that we have a choice as to whether we act immorally or not. We are free to choose but must be aware of the consequences of our choice. Do we say, "here I am Lord. I come to do your will," or do we say, "here is some of me Lord. I'll pick and choose what of your will I will do."

In Christ,

Jason Nick
