Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Our community celebrated our patron's feast day with the veneration of a first-class relic. This relic, a fragment of St. Edward's bone, was previously in the possession of the Archdiocese and had been in their care since 1928. The process for receiving this relic has truly been guided by the Holy Spirit.

Our community has neither official documentation nor letters of authenticity regarding past relics. If there are any relics that were placed in dedication to our church (old and new), we cannot say for certain who or what they are, and the Archdiocese does not have them listed on file.

Fr. Christian approached Matthew Crews and I earlier this summer about the possibility of acquiring relics of our own. We agreed - I began discussions with St. Anthony of Padua Catholic Church (who themselves have a relic chapel), and Matthew began corresponding with the Archdiocese. In late August, we received word that the Office of Archives had a first-class relic of St. Edward the Confessor, and, from there, our plan quickly fell into place. Fr. Christian was adamant from the start - "St. Edward needs to come home to his parish". Archbishop Vasquez graciously approved Fr. Christian's request, and our team began working on his shrine, which was dedicated at the 11:30AM Mass on October 12, 2025, and rests behind the ambo in the sanctuary.

This would not have been possible without the master carpentry of one of our parishioners, Tom Eisterhold. He has completed countless projects for our parish over the years, and this was no easy task. In less than a month, Tom replicated the ambry (the "house" of the Holy Oils). This is the "cabinet" on the wall next to the celebrant's chair - originally built by Paul Kiker. Partially using some of Mr. Kiker's wood taken from the backs of the Stations of the Cross in the old church, Tom completed the reliquary - the shrine for St. Edward's relic. The "great commission," as Tom put it, had been carried out.

I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped in this process. We have honored St. Edward, the Rex Justus - the righteous king - who reigned with justice and holiness and strove to be his people's servant more than lord. He is indeed "home" as we house his relic, and as we continue to pray for his intercession - St. Edward the Confessor, pray for us!

In Christ,

Joseph Reina, Director of Liturgy
