Pastor's Corner

Who moved my altar? You may have noticed that the altar was recessed slightly over the weekend. It took practically a football team to move it, since it's two solid blocks of hardwood! Why the move? A couple of reasons. The first is to eliminate 'foot traffic' in between the tabernacle and the altar as much as possible. Jesus is truly present in the tabernacle and often times servers and extraordinary ministers of holy communion have their backs turned toward the tabernacle. By moving the altar back, it restricts movement between the tabernacle and the altar to just the priest, as Church documents recommend. With more space in the front of the altar, the various ministers can complete their tasks without irreverent body posture toward the Eucharist in the sanctuary space. When all of us see reverence in the sanctuary, we grow in our love and appreciation of the Blessed Sacrament—which is the very Love of God, Jesus' true presence in our midst! We're putting Jesus first in our worship.

The second reason is to enable the celebration of the mass from either side of the altar for when we have mass in the Extraordinary Form on First Saturdays (according to the 1962 Roman Missal). This month on the first Saturday, we had a sung mass in the Extraordinary form and, as I mentioned before, it was very well attended (about 100 people) and 3 extra hours of confession were needed! This revealed to me a hunger in our community that, as shepherd, I need to be attentive to. It also had the added benefit of being an 'all community mass' since both English and Spanish speakers prayed in the one language of the Church. I know Latin isn't everyone's favorite (most of us, myself included, didn't study it very much in school), but we have to admit the Church's wisdom in using Latin in Mass for so many centuries. Since it is a 'dead' language, it's meanings don't change over time. It also isn't beholden to any particular cultural group—it's use belongs in a particular way to the Catholic Church (Hence, we are called 'Latin Rite' Catholics!). As such, it is especially helpful when we come together as many different cultures to pray. We set aside our own cultural biases (American, Mexican, Japanese, French, South American, African, etc.) and come together into the one culture, the one language of the Church. All divisions should cease in the Eucharist. What a powerful sign of unity to pray together in one language as one people!

This is why we have used Latin mass parts at our 'all community' masses for big feasts, and we will continue to do so. The Second Vatican Council document on the Liturgy actually teaches that, "steps should be taken so that the faithful may also be able to say or to sing together in Latin those parts of the Ordinary of the Mass which pertain to them" (Sacrosanctum Concilium 54). If you have a hard time with languages, it is a small sacrifice to make for the sake of parish unity. (There are videos on YouTube that you can listen to for practice if you need!) Our world is so divided; as a Church, we need to give witness in our worship and our parish that race, culture, and language do not have to separate us. It's the message of Pentecost—the Holy Spirit unites all the languages of the world and makes them intelligible in the one family of the Church.

May the Holy Spirit bring unity and peace to your families this Thanksgiving. Truly, in Jesus Christ we have reason for endless thanks (which is what Eucharistia means!) God bless you all!

Fr. Mark Bentz

Jesus responds today to brokenness, disease, and pain with transformative love and restoration. Through three days of teaching, worship, prayer, and testimony, you'll encounter God in a powerful way, and experience deeper freedom as the Father speaks to you in the depths of your heart and through the supernatural graces of the sacraments. Whether you're struggling with life, or you just want "more" in your walk with God, this conference will empower you with tools, revelation, and a greater desire to live your life passionately on fire for God. Grounded in Church teaching, you'll engage the topics of "Facing our Brokenness," "Encountering the Father's Love," and "Living in Freedom." St. Alice Catholic Church is hosting a Healing the Whole Person retreat, led by the John Paul II Healing Center, on February 22-24th. Learn more, and register for this amazing retreat at <http://jpiihealingcenter.org/> Online registration closes on February 12, 2018.

The Nativity of the Lord (Christmas) 2017

The Nativity of the Lord (Christmas) 2017 is on Monday 25th December which follows the 4th Sunday of Advent 24th December. There have been some questions with regard to the obligations of these Holy days.

The Archdiocese has determined that each obligation must be met by attendance at one of the Masses of the Sunday and one of the Holy day. That is, a Christmas Mass on the evening of Sunday 24th December (Vigil or Night) will not satisfy the obligation for 4th Sunday of Advent.

There are two distinct obligations: that of 4th Sunday of Advent which can be met by attendance at anticipatory Masses on Saturday 23rd December or the morning Masses of Sunday 24th December; and that of Christmas which can be met by attendance at Masses on Christmas Eve (Vigil or Night) and those on Christmas Day.
