All Souls' Day

"...because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me..."

JOHN 6:38

When praying the "our Father", say the words slowly so you truly recognize what you are saying. Every day when praying this prayer, we repeat what Jesus said in the scripture passage- "thy kingdom come, thy will be done." Even though we say these words, do our actions reflect those words? This is the difference between saints and the rest of us. Saints were faithful and obedient to God's will. Start today – start aligning your words and actions with God's will for you.

St. John Vianney School News

This week, our first graders had so much fun exploring all the beautiful changes that happen during fall. We talked about how every leaf is special and how each one is designed with its own bright, beautiful colors. It reminded us of how amazing God's creations are!

The children shared what they're thankful for—family, friends, pets, and even the colorful leaves outside! To celebrate this season of gratitude, we made our own colorful leaf crafts and took time to thank God for all the blessings in our lives. Our classroom is now filled with thankful hearts and lots of autumn color!

Pastor's Column November 1 - 2, 2025

"Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men" (Matt 4:19). Whenever I hear those words, it takes me back to the days when I realized God was calling me to the priesthood. I was only a boy – maybe 8 years old – the first time the idea came to me. When I told other people – I think they mostly thought it was a cute idea that would fade over time.

To be honest, as time went on, other ideas came to my head. But the priesthood was the only one that kept coming back. By age 14, I was convinced that was what God wanted me to do. Looking back, I can say that God was very persistent. This week is National Vocation Awareness Week. It's a time to make a special effort to pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. It's also a time to think about what we can do to encourage young people to think about whether God might be calling them – and to say yes if He is!

Some people ask me how they can know if God is indeed calling them to be a priest. The best answer I can give is that if they have even a remote feeling that God might want them to be a priest, they should do a couple of things. First, they should speak to a priest they trust – one with whom they feel comfortable. He can answer questions they have and help them sort out their thoughts. He can also help them pray more deeply about it, and help them discern whether or not God may indeed be calling him. I have been honored to do this for several young men over the years, some of whom are fine priests today.

In addition to speaking with a priest, I would encourage such a man to spend time praying before the Tabernacle in Church – quietly sitting with our Lord. Many good priests first heard Christ's call as they sat silently before Him.

Second, I would encourage everyone in our parish to do their part to help those whom God is calling to answer His call. Pray that God will call many young men from our parish to be priests – and pray that those He is calling will have the courage and generosity to say yes! Perhaps we can all say an extra Hail Mary for that each day. What a beautiful parish project that would be.

Finally, look at the Called by Name insert in today's bulletin. The idea is to think prayerfully about young men in our parish whom you think would make a good priest. Pray about it. Then, write their name on the Called by Name insert and give it to one of our priests (or put it in the collection next week). You would be surprised how many young men first thought seriously about answering God's call when someone told them they might make a good priest!

You may notice that our ushers will be counting the people at Mass this month. The diocese asks us to do this every November. It is a way of keeping track of attendance patterns and parish growth. Last year – our count revealed that attendance in our parish had increased 5% from the previous year. What a beautiful testimony to the faith of the good people of this parish.

Today is All Souls Day – a day when Catholics around the world make a special effort to pray for their deceased loved ones and all the souls in purgatory. Our prayers help them on their way to Heaven – which is why the Bible, in Second Maccabees, tells us 'it is a good and holy thing to pray for the dead.' (Macc. 2:45) There are also pamphlets on What Catholics Believe about Purgatory in the back of the Church. It would be a good thing to read.

Throughout the month of November – the Month of All Souls – we will keep the All Souls envelopes near the Altar. These envelopes contain all the names of deceased loved ones that so many of you wrote on them. All of them will be included in our Masses and prayers this month.

In addition to praying for our deceased loved ones, please say a Hail Mary for me, for peace – and for an increase in vocations – each day.

Have a great week!
Fr. John

Dear Youth and Parish Family,

This weekend is a very special one for us, as we lovingly remember all our dear loved ones who have passed away. May God, in His great mercy, welcome them into His eternal peace and let His perpetual light shine upon them. As we honor their memory, may we keep them close in our hearts and live each day with faith, gratitude, and hope in the promise of eternal life.

We are filled with gratitude and joy as we reflect on our Community Building Lock-In Retreat that took place this past weekend. It was a blessed time of prayer, friendship, and renewal. Sincere thanks to all the boys who participated, and to our wonderful chaperones and speakers — Fr. John Barbella, Fr. Greg Zannetti, Mrs. Lorena Palomino, Danny McAloon, and Mrs. Silvia Gurbisz — for sharing their faith and guidance. A special thank you to all the parents and parishioners who donated food and offered prayers. Your kindness and support made this retreat truly special.

We warmly invite you to join us for our SJV Youth Holy Hour on Sunday, November 9th, from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM in the church and school cafeteria. This will be a peaceful time for us to pray together and rest in the Lord's presence.

Our SJV Youth Group and their families will also be making handmade Christmas door wreaths and table centerpieces for sale to support our youth fundraising project. Please refer to page 8 of the bulletin and the church hallway bulletin board for additional information.

Thank you all for your continued prayers and support. May God bless our parish family with peace, love, and growing faith.

With gratitude,

17th Annual Adopt-A-Turkey

This year the Society of St. Vincent de Paul will be partnering with both St. James and St. Cecelia's food pantries. Hopefully we are able to provide Thanksgiving meals to more than 200 families. More than ever food security is a major problem.

What can you do to help? Monetary donations are the best way. This way we may purchase the required items for a nutritious and hearty meal, for those in the community that need our help.

Please place your donations in the collection basket or drop them off at the rectory. Mark your envelopes Adopt-A-Turkey. Thank you in advance for your support.
