GOSPEL MEDITATION

From the United States Catholic Catechism for Adults (Life Issues That Confront Us...Murder.) God forbids murder. "The innocent and the just you shall not put to death" (Ex 23:7). The intentional murder of any person is strictly forbidden by this commandment (cf. CCC, nos. 2268-2269). Such actions are gravely sinful. Self-defense against an unjust aggressor is morally permitted. There is also a moral duty for the defense of others by those who are responsible for their lives.

Palm Sunday – Passion Sunday

This Sunday, called Palm or Passion Sunday, is the first day of Holy Week. Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday are called the Triduum, three days that are the highlight of the Church year. There are two Gospels proclaimed at today's Mass. The first Gospel, proclaimed before the procession with palms, tells of Jesus' triumphant entrance into Jerusalem. Riding on a borrowed colt, Jesus was hailed by the crowds as they shouted blessings and praise to God. This event is reported in each of the four Gospels. The second, at the Liturgy of the Word, the events of Jesus' passion are proclaimed in their entirety. In Lectionary Cycle C, we read the passion of Jesus as found in the Gospel of Luke. We will hear these events proclaimed again during the Triduum when we read the passion of Jesus from the Gospel of John. (Source: LoyolaPress)

Growing in Our Desire for Jesus-Reflections on Divine Mercy

The more we come to know Jesus, the more we desire Him. And the more we desire Him, the more we come to know Him. This is a beautiful cyclical experience of knowing and desiring, desiring and knowing (See Diary #273). Do you desire to know your precious Lord? Do you long for Him in a burning way? Reflect upon this desire in your soul and if it is lacking, know that it's because you need to come to know Him more. Reflect, also, upon the ways in which you do sense a real knowledge of Jesus. What does that knowledge of Him do to you? Allow it to move from your head to your heart and from your heart to all your affections. Allow Him to work on you, to draw you and to envelop you in His Mercy. Lord, help me to come to know You. Help me to comprehend You in Your perfection and Mercy. And as I do come to know You, flood my soul with a longing and desire for more of You. May this desire increase my love of You and help me to know You all the more. Jesus, I trust in You. (Source: 365 Days with Saint Faustina)

Word of Life

"The so-called right to abortion has pitted mothers against their children and women against men. It has sown violence and discord at the heart of the most intimate human relationships." — Saint Mother Teresa, Letter to the U.S. Supreme Court, 1994

MINISTRY MESSAGE

April 10, 2022 Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord
Pope St. John Paul II rightly taught, "To believe in Jesus is to accept what he says, even when it runs contrary to what others are saying. It means rejecting the lure of sin, however attractive it may be, in order to set out on a difficult path of Gospel virtues." Acceptance, rejection, suffering, betrayal, fear, reluctance, persecution, and painful, undeserved and unjust death are all played out in dramatic fashion today. Jesus spoke of God's unconditional love, mercy, and forgiveness. Who doesn't like hearing about love, especially God's?

Jesus did not have backs turned on him, face intense suffering, and succumb to a horrific death because he spoke of God's love. All of those things occurred because of the implications of actually believing in God's love.

God's love comes with an intimate and equal bond with love of neighbor. This moves the believer outward to truly see their brothers and sisters as equals and compels them to work for a world that mirrors God's kingdom: a world based on justice, peace, mercy, and forgiveness. Sometimes, people want to keep God's love to themselves and use it solely for their own benefit. When they only want to use God's love to justify their own intentions and for their own projects, problems occur.

Sin makes something hurtful, destructive, and self-serving look very attractive and justifiable. The lure of sin creates friends who begin to believe the lie that the sin expounds. This is what happened on Calvary. When you begin actually doing what Jesus is saying and translate love into action, it inevitably will upset popular and longstanding conventions and structures. Many of these serve to protect status, foster personal gain and success, and further divide those who have from those who do not. Most people who hear the Gospel are attracted to what they hear, at first. When they realize that it means standing apart from popular opinion, even if that opinion is against the Gospel and sinful, they cower back in fear and join the throngs shouting, "Crucify him!" There is an ambivalence found in many believers as they struggle with whether their belief is strong enough "to set out on the difficult path of Gospel virtues."

It takes a lot of courage to admit that the system is broken. It takes even more courage to point out the sin. And it takes an unbreakable love of God to then accept the consequences of doing so.

The Fulton Sheen meditations can be found beginning with the March 6th bulletin, which is available at <https://www.stmarysnashville.com/bulletins>

Thirteenth Station – Jesus is Taken Down From the Cross and Laid in Mary's Arms

We adore Thee, O Christ, and we praise Thee, Because by Thy Holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

The Prodigal Son has returned, for is not Jesus the prodigal? Thirty-three years ago He left His Father's heavenly home and went off into the foreign country of this world, spending Himself and being spent, teaching mankind, opening blind eyes to the light of God's sunshine, and unstopping deaf ears to the music of the human voice. And now, the heavenly Spendthrift has wasted the substance of His body and blood amongst sinners, and quite spent and exhausted, is laid in the arms of His Blessed Mother, who for the moment thinks that Bethlehem has come back again.

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God, That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Oh, no, Mary! Bethlehem has not come back! Those hands that once clutched at Magi gifts are carpentered with nails; that baby brow on which majesty once made its throne is now wearing a crown of thorns; the baby feet that once could not walk because they could not bear the weight of Divine Omnipotence, now can not walk because pierced with nails. Someone, Mary, has intervened between Bethlehem and this hour. It is not Bethlehem returning! It is Calvary! and that which intervened is my sins! O, Mary, intercede for me to Thy Son. Let me draw from thy heart thy seven swords. Mother of God, let me be thy prodigal!

Prayer After the Way of the Cross

Offered for the Intention of the Holy Father, Vicar of Jesus Christ.

Jesus, Thou art the Word of God, and the Word of God, Thou hast told us, is a seed which bringeth forth life only on condition that it falleth to the ground. As the seed of ever-lasting life, Thou didst fall to the earth by Thy death on Good Friday, but Thou didst gloriously rise to Thy new life on Easter Sunday. Thus Thou hast taught us that Christian living means dying to the world in a Calvary of time, as a prelude to an eternity-long Easter in heaven. Grant that on that day when Thou wilt come in the clouds of heaven to judge the living and the dead, bearing Thy Cross as a sign of triumph and Thy scars as pledges of love, that I may show Thee my cross and my scars, and in return be privileged to hear from Thy own lips: "Come, ye blessed of My Father into the Kingdom prepared for you from all eternity." Amen.

Meditations by Venerable Fulton John Sheen, delivered on 20 March 1932.

Fourteenth Station – Jesus is Laid in the Tomb

We adore Thee, O Christ, and we praise Thee, Because by Thy Holy Cross Thou hast redeemed the world.

Generally, the world is willing to concede at least a twofold hospitality: a place in which to be born, and a place in which to die. But both of these it denied Him who is the Master of life and death. For birth, He was given a cave under the floor of the world; for death, He was given the bed of the Cross, for a pillow, a crown of thorns, and, lest hands and feet should slip out, they tucked them in with nails. And thus the glory of His birth was hidden in the least of the cities of Israel, and the ignominy of His death in the greatest of them all. Born in a stranger's cave, buried in a stranger's grave, Christ declares to the world that human birth and human death were equally foreign to Him; but to whom can earthly birth and earthly death be strange, except to God?

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God, That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Sweet Jesus, now I understand, as Thou art placed in the sepulcher, that the law of life is the law of death, that nothing is born but that something dies, and nothing dies but that something lives. Thy life has taught me that unless there is a Cross there will never be an empty tomb; unless there is a crown of thorns there will never be a halo of light; and unless there is a scourged body there will never be a glorified body. Having the joy of Thy resurrection set before me, give me strength to endure the Cross and share in the fellowship of Thy sufferings until that other resurrection day, when in the heavenly Jerusalem, tears shall be wiped away, and Thy love which is God shall reign forever and ever. Amen.

Food for the Soul

What measure of mercy do you desire for your own? Knowing yourself so loved that what was lost through sin has been restored to you, in full measure, flowing over? Mercy utterly undeserved, mercy poured out again and again.

Dear St. Mary Navilleton Parishioners,
Words can't express our sincerest gratitude and appreciation for all the love and care you've shown to Fr. Pius and to our family during his illness and passing. It's no wonder he loved this parish so much!

We are in awe of all your thoughts, prayers, cards, calls, flowers, visits to the hospital and your turn out at his Visitation and funeral Mass of Celebration of Life. The Mass honoring him along with the Blessed Mother on the Solemnity of the Annunciation, on Friday, March 25th, followed by the awesome ice cream social was just amazing. (It was way more than just ice cream!) What a great crowd! He would have loved every minute of it!

To sum up, we can't thank you enough for the love, kindness, and thoughtfulness you gave to him over all the years he was your Pastor, as well as to all of us, his family. We're so blessed that you've become part of our lives through him.

Love and God's blessings to you all,
The family of Fr. Pius
