Dear Friends of Our Lady of the Chesapeake,

Welcome to July! With all the rain we have been having, this summer is going by quickly. Hopefully we will have some nice summer weather in order to enjoy the beauty of God's creation. This weekend we celebrate the 13th Sunday of Ordinary Time. This weekend's Gospel reminds us of our need to have faith in Jesus' ability to bring healing and live to us when we are ill. No problem is beyond his power to heal, not even death itself, for Jesus can and desires to offers us new life.

June 30th is the end of our current fiscal year for the parish. Our parish finances are managed on a July 1st to June 30th timeframe. Later this summer, the Finance Committee and I will be making a report to the parish on our financial condition, but I will give you a heads up and let you know we have some serious financial issues. We have been in deficit spending over the last four years, meaning we are spending more than we are receiving in income. As anyone of us knows from managing our own expenses, this is something that is not sustainable. Our parish cannot continue to spend more money than it receives through you generosity in offertory. Again, more details will be forthcoming later this summer, but I felt it is my responsibility to inform you of this challenging situation in which we find ourselves. I ask for your prayers as well work together to overcome these challenges and put Our Lady of the Chesapeake Parish on a stronger, financial footing going forward.

One way you can help us financially is by signing up for our new e-giving program, GiveCentral. As of 6/25, we have a total of 39 donors signed up and we are scheduled to receive over $3,300 in donations in June. July donations are forecasted to be over $6,500! Your participation in GiveCentral will help us to reduce our expenses while offering you a convenient and consistent way to support OLC. Everyone who signs up by 8/31/18 and begins making their donations via GiveCentral will be entered into a raffle for a $1,500 Royal Caribbean Gift Certificate (or a $1,500 vacation credit for travel booked through Cruise and Travel Planner travel agency.) Go to GiveCentral.org and click on "Start Giving" to sign up. Thanks.

Thank you for your prayers and support for Our Lady of the Chesapeake.

God Bless!

Father Steve

“Daughter your faith has saved you. Go in peace and be cured.” Shame and the Lord

Several years ago in Germany, while giving the sacrament of confirmation, a bishop was questioning the children who were about to be confirmed: “Who can administer the sacrament of confirmation?” he asked. A young girl answered: “Any bishop, once he's attained the age of reason!”

Our old catechisms used to tell us that we reach the age of reason at, roughly, age seven. At one level, that's true, we can be responsible for ourselves then in a way we couldn't when we were toddlers or in kindergarten. But it takes a lot longer than age seven, a lifetime really, to be in full ownership of ourselves. And so, at another level, we might better peg the age of reason sometime after age 30, when we have a more responsible sense of who we are, what our lives mean, and what decisions we need to make in order to bring life to ourselves and thers. It's takes a long time before we can be really responsible.

Parts of us have died and parts of us have been wounded and we are forever hemorrhaging in body, heart, and soul. It's hard for us to give life.

But there's a further problem, by the time we reach maturity, we have also lost some vital, life-giving parts of ourselves. By the time we get to possess ourselves, all of us have been wounded, shamed in our enthusiasm, and parts of our bodies and our souls have died and turned cold. By the time we get to be more fully in possession of ourselves we are no longer whole. And this bitterly limits how well we can love and especially how fully we can give life. Let me illustrate this: In the gospels we are told, within a single story, how Jesus cured two women who, on the surface, seem to have very little in common. The story runs this way: Jesus is approached by a man named Jairus, who asks him to come and cure his daughter who is thirteen years old. As Jesus is making his way to Jairus' house, hemmed in by a curious crowd, a woman who, we are told, had been suffering from internal hemorrhaging for eighteen years and had spent all her money on doctors without getting any better, approaches him surreptitiously, saying to herself: “If I but touch the hem of his garment, I will be healed!” She does just that and, the gospels tell us, instantly the flow of blood stopped. Touching Jesus did for her what doctors couldn't do, it stopped her internal hemorrhaging.

Then, as Jesus is approaching Jairus' house, he is told that the man's daughter is already dead, but he enters the house anyway, goes to the young girl's bed, takes her by the hand, and brings her back to life.

What these two women have in common is this: For different reasons, both are unable to get pregnant and give life; the young girl, because she dies at puberty, just as she has the radical possibility of getting pregnant, and the other woman, because the forces inside her that are meant to give life are damaged and hemorrhaging, making it impossible for her to hold a pregnancy. What Jesus does is give back to both women the possibility of giving life, in one case by stopping the flow of blood and in the other by starting it.

We all need a similar miracle: By the time we're finally ready to give life some deep parts of us have already died and are too cold and lifeless to ever become pregnant. As well, like the woman whose internal bleeding makes it impossible for her to get pregnant, we too are wounded in ways that have us forever hemorrhaging out the life forces we need in order to give life. Parts of us have died and parts of us have been wounded and we are forever hemorrhaging in body, heart, and soul. It's hard for us to give life.

How do we, like the woman, touch the hem of the garment so as to be healed? How do we, like Jairus' daughter, let Jesus take us by the hand and restore to us our fertility?

I remember a comment made to me by a young man who had been struggling for a long time to break an addictive habit in his life. He said: “It took me a long time, and countless failures, to realize that you can't change your life simply by willpower. You can only change it by grace and community.” Alcoholics Anonymous has always known this. Willpower, while important, is not enough. Only by touching some higher power—and this is most easily done inside a community—can we actually change our lives. Therapy too is helpful to a point, but only to a point. In the end, the power to give life can only be restored to us through grace and community, through letting a power beyond give us something that we cannot give to ourselves. Then, and only then, will those parts of us that are dead or diseased begin again to give life. Ron Rolheiser

The OLC Knights of Columbus will meet for one meeting a month for July and August. Our July meeting will be the third Wednesday July 18th and our August meeting will be Wednesday August 1st.

All Knights of Columbus members are invited to our meeting in the Gathering place 7:30 P.M. Any questions call John Donnelly 410-437-0116 e-mail sandysue@cablespeed.com.

The House of Hope is in need of tents, tarps, sleeping bags- they try to supply these items to people who need them but keep running out- there are so many more homeless people than we've ever had- I run the sandwich ministry and I know the number of sandwiches needed has doubled these last few months.

If you have any of the items listed that you no longer need, please call Joyce Weisner at 410-255-4437 or 410-736-2683.

Do you know how to make a sandwich?

Would you like to help those who need a hand up? Winter Relief is on break until next fall. However, during the spring and summer months, OLC volunteers make sandwiches for the homeless of the House of Hope. Many hands make light work, and it only takes an hour or two to put together a much appreciated meal for many. Contact Joyce Weisner at 410-255-4437 or 410-736-2683 if you would like more information or to help.

A Fourth of July Remembrance

As we celebrate the birthday of our country, may we also remember the service of those men and women in the military, especially our wounded warriors. Let us also remember those who have given their all and those who have come home---our Veterans, especially those who are home-less. Finally, let us give a shout out to the families of our brave ones for they also serve in a very special way.
