Luke 19:1-10

Let nothing stop you from seeing the Lord!

Notice the determination of Zacchaeus in this Sunday's Gospel reading. His view of Jesus was obstructed, but that didn't stop him from seeing Jesus. He had an obstacle (the crowd) and a handicap (his short stature), but he refused to allow any of this to prevent him from reaching his goal of getting a clear view of Jesus.

In fact, Zacchaeus was so eager to experience Jesus that he did something drastic: He climbed a tree! Maybe he felt embarrassed hanging onto a tree limb; maybe onlookers thought he was odd. Maybe someone tried to talk him down. Maybe the tree was rough and tore his clothes and scratched his skin. None of that stopped him.

We all have handicaps ~ prejudices, misconceptions, bad training, spiritual laziness, fears and doubts, and so on ~ which obstruct our view of Jesus. And we all have short stature: we are much smaller than God and cannot see the goodness that he sees in and beyond our hardships. In our short-sightedness, we conclude that Jesus has abandoned us, and we feel so very alone.

Instead, we should be like Zacchaeus. In our desire to see Jesus fully, as he really is, we should do everything possible to find a way around all obstacles and overcome all spiritual handicaps.

Notice that once Zacchaeus climbed the tree, Jesus zeroed in on him and gave him personal attention and affirmation. How did Zacchaeus respond? He quickly descended from the tree and welcomed Jesus with delight. He had so much enthusiasm that he wanted to quadruple the penance for his sins!

Do you see Jesus in the Eucharist at Mass? If Zacchaeus' reaction to Christ's presence isn't our reaction, it means our view is still partly obstructed. We need to climb higher.

Pray: Praised be You, Lord Jesus, because You come to me every day to take me to a new life, renewed in Your endless love. Amen.

Ladies' Society

Christmas decorations are clogging the stores now. We know you have more than you can use because we do too. Please think about what you have and what you can part with so that we can sell it at the flea market on November 9 & 10. The office is the place to bring your items and we can still use small appliances (we know you have two George Foreman grills and can only use one) so look around and donate those extras. Please look at your garden tools and donate that extra rake or that huge pot. We'd love to have all these things so that we can help the church financially. Thank you for all that you have donated thus far.

SAVE the DATES! Jan. 10 at 6:30 p.m. - Pro-life Mass with Bishop Wack at St. Paul Catholic Church, Pensacola, Jan. 11 at 9:30 a.m. - Mass at St. Joseph Catholic Church, Pensacola (geared to youth and young adults), Jan. 11 at 11:00 a.m. - Emerald Coast Walk for Life (4th annual) with keynote speaker Melissa Ohden, an abortion survivor.
