From The Deacon's Desk...

This year's CSA theme of "One Faith. One Family" makes it clear that the Church is a community called by Christ to continue His mission on earth. There is a universal Church led by the Holy Father in Rome, and a local Church led by our Bishop and comprised of 95 parishes and 15 missions! A letter from Bishop Gaydos should arrive very soon asking for your generous support of the Catholic Stewardship Appeal. Consider the blessings you have been given and make a CSA pledge on behalf of your diocesan family

El tema de CSA de este año es "One Faith. Una familia" deja en claro que la Iglesia es una comunidad llamada por Cristo para continuar su misión en la tierra. ¡Hay una Iglesia universal dirigida por el Santo Padre en Roma, y una Iglesia local dirigida por nuestro Obispo y compuesta por 95 parroquias y 15 misiones! Una carta del Obispo Gaydos debe llegar muy pronto para pedirle su generoso apoyo a la Campaña Católica de Mayordomía. Considere las bendiciones que se le han otorgado y haga una promesa de CSA en nombre de su familia diocesana.

Pasaje Crucial: Ellos le presentaron una moneda. Jesús les preguntó: “¿De quien es esta imagen Y esta inscripción?” Le respondieron: “Del Cesar”. Y Jesús concluyó: “Den, pues al Cesar lo que es del Cesar, y a Dios lo que es de Dios”.

Pregunta para los adultos: Los valores cívicos, algunas veces en conflicto con los valores de la Iglesia. ¿Qué técnicas se encuentra el éxito en el cumplimiento de la resolución entre las diferentes posiciones?

Pregunta para los niños: Usamos el dinero para pagar por las cosas cotidianas que queremos o necesitamos. ¿Qué es lo que utilizamos para mostrar nuestro agradecimiento por las cosas que Dios provee para nosotros?

This year's Catholic Stewardship Appeal theme of "One Faith. One Family" makes it clear that the Church is a community called by Christ to continue His mission on earth. There is a universal Church led by the Holy Father in Rome, and a local Church called the Diocese of Jefferson City, led by our Bishop and comprised of 95 parishes and 15 missions! A letter from Bishop Gaydos should arrive very soon asking for your generous support of the Catholic Stewardship Appeal. If you've given in the past, please consider renewing a previous gift or even increasing it. If you haven't given before, consider the blessings you have been given and make a CSA pledge on behalf of your diocesan family.

Pope: Common witness of faith can strengthen

Catholics, Methodists

By Editor, Catholic News Service, October 19, 2017

(CNS) Catholics and Methodists can strengthen each other through a shared witness of faith, especially through acts of love toward the poor and the marginalized, Pope Francis said.

the pope said Oct. 19.

"When, as Catholics and Methodists, we join in assisting and comforting the weak and the marginalized -- those who in the midst of our societies feel distant, foreign and alienated --

Pope Francis greets Ivan Abrahams, general secretary of the World Methodist Council, during an audience at the Vatican Oct. 19. Members of the World Methodist Council were in Rome to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the formation of the Joint International Methodist-Catholic Dialogue Commission. (CNS photo/L'Osservatore Romano) Oct. 19, 2017.

The mutual call to holiness shared by both communities "is necessarily a call to communion with others, too," we are responding to the Lord's summons," he said. The pope met at the Vatican with members of the World

Methodist Council who were in Rome to commemorate formation of the Joint International Methodist-Catholic Dialogue Commission.

Welcoming the delegation members, the pope said that in the Bible, the 50th year is a significant moment for the people of Israel in which liberty is proclaimed throughout the land. "We are grateful to God because we can say that, in a certain sense, we too have been freed from the slavery of estrangement and mutual suspicion," he said.

The pope said that since Vatican 2, both communities have striven to continue along the path of knowledge and mutual esteem through dialogue "in a spirit of honesty and integrity" with "love for the truth, with charity and with humility." "We are brothers and sisters who, following a long separation, are happy to move forward with open hearts," he said.

The pope also recalled the life and example of John Wesley, a founder of Methodism, who dedicated his life to helping others "live a holy life."

By recognizing those who dedicate themselves to reading the Bible and to prayer, he said, Catholics "cannot fail to rejoice" when the work of the Holy Spirit is recognized "in other Christian confessions."

Like the disciples awaiting the arrival of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, Catholics and Methodists must "remain together" in prayer and hope so that the Spirit of God may "bring about the miracle of reconciled unity."

"We have learned to see one another as brothers and sisters in Christ," Pope Francis said. "Now is the time to prepare ourselves, with humble hope and concrete efforts, for that full recognition that will come about, by God's grace, when at last we will be able to join one another in the breaking of the bread."

Question of the Week

29th Sunday Matthew 22:15-21

Key Passage: "Show me the coin that pays the census tax, whose image is this and whose inscription?" They replied, "Caesar's." "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Question for adults: Secular values often conflict with Church teachings. What techniques do you use to resolve differences?

Question for children: We use money to pay for things we want or need. What do we use to show our thanks for the things God provides for us?
