

Blessed is the Virgin Mary who kept the word of God and pondered it in her heart.

Dichosa es la Virgen María, que conservaba la Palabra de Dios, guardándola en su corazón.

During this public health crisis all parishioners are dispensed from their Sunday obligation to attend mass by Bishop Shawn until June 30. Saint Mary has resumed public mass in Milan. However, our bishop and government officials require us to observe several public health procedures. If you plan to attend mass, you must have no COVID symptoms, nor been in contact with anyone who does, for the prior fourteen days. You need to wear your mask entering or exiting the building but not while in your pew, pass a temperature check, use hand sanitizer at the church entrance and maintain social distancing. Individuals living in the same house or family units may sit together, others must remain six feet apart at all times. Please remember our bishop has dispensed everyone from the obligation to attend Sunday mass through the month of June. Parishioners at high risk during this crisis should remain home. Streaming of each week's liturgy continues at stmary.church/masses—facebook.com/stmary.life

Because of public health regulations, we may not be able to seat everyone who wishes to attend mass. We will do our best to avoid this circumstance, but it is possible we will be compelled by regulations to restrict admittance.

May God continue his blessings upon us. If you have questions, call Deacon John at 573 864-5502.

Durante esta crisis de salud pública, el obispo Shawn exime a todos los feligreses de su obligación dominical de asistir a misa hasta el 30 de junio. Santa María ha reanudado la misa pública en Milán. Sin embargo, nuestros obispos y funcionarios gubernamentales nos exigen que observemos varios procedimientos de salud pública. Si planea asistir a misa, no debe tener síntomas COVID, ni haber estado en contacto con nadie que lo haga, durante los catorce días anteriores. Debe usar su máscara al entrar o salir del edificio, pero no mientras está en su banco, pasar un control de temperatura, usar desinfectante de manos en la entrada de la iglesia y mantener el distanciamiento social. Las personas que viven en la misma casa o familia pueden sentarse juntas, otras deben permanecer a seis pies de distancia en todo momento.

Recuerde que nuestro obispo ha dispensado a todos de la obligación de asistir a la misa del domingo. Las personas en alto riesgo durante esta crisis deben permanecer en casa. La transmisión de la liturgia continúa en stmary.church/masses o facebook.com/stmary.life. Debido a las regulaciones de salud pública, es posible que no podamos sentar a todos los que deseen asistir a misa. Haremos todo lo posible para evitar esta circunstancia, pero es posible que las regulaciones nos obliguen a restringir la admisión. Que Dios continúe sus bendiciones sobre nosotros. Si tiene preguntas, llame al Diácono John al 573 864-5502.

The Immaculate Heart of Mary, Year A Corazón Inmaculado de la Virgen María, el año A Gospel of St. Matthew / El evangelio de San Mateo June / Junio 21, 2020

From Deacon John...

Did you ever wonder what Mary really said to Jesus after he disappeared for three days? Looking at Jesus, the soon to be teenager, but seeing her baby, Mary asks, "Child, why have you treated us like this? Quite unchildlike, Jesus answers, "Why were you searching for me? Did you not know?" These same types of questions face us as justice, peace and goodwill appear to be abandoned or at least, pushed aside, leaving so many perplexed about the future. Like Mary, we ask, "Why have you treated us like this?" We ask ourselves and we ask God when our expectations are so fractured. Perhaps, we aren't ready to accept that Jesus did not come to meet expectations. He is not tied to the way things used to be or the way we wish things could be. Jesus is only about making plain the way to God, even if that means shattering our expectations.

¿Alguna vez te preguntaste lo que María realmente le dijo a Jesús después de desaparecer por tres días? Al mirar a Jesús, que pronto será adolescente, pero al ver a su bebé, Mary le pregunta: "Hija, ¿por qué nos has tratado así? Muy poco infantil, Jesús responde: "¿Por qué me estabas buscando? ¿No lo sabías? Este mismo tipo de preguntas nos enfrenta cuando la justicia, la paz y la buena voluntad parecen ser abandonadas o al menos, dejadas de lado, dejando a muchos perplejos sobre el futuro. Como María, preguntamos: "¿Por qué nos has tratado así?" Nos preguntamos a nosotros mismos y le preguntamos a Dios, cuando nuestras expectativas están tan fracturadas. Quizás, no estamos listos para aceptar que Jesús no vino a cumplir con las expectativas. No está atado a la forma en que solían ser las cosas ni a la forma en que deseamos que sean. Jesús solo se trata de dejar en claro el camino hacia Dios, incluso si eso significa romper nuestras expectativas.

Background on the Gospel Reading

The Immaculate Heart of Mary, the feast we commemorate in today's liturgy, celebrates the great love that Mary has for God and for others. That love is symbolized in the image of the heart. Just as Jesus' heart is the hallmark of his love for his Father and for the world and its creatures, especially us human creatures.

The gospel today highlights the love that Mary has for her son, Jesus. It tells of a white-knuckle event in Joseph's and her relationship with their pre-teenage son. They had gone to Jerusalem to celebrate the Passover and after the event and some days in the city they set out for home. Unbeknownst to the parents their son did not make the return trip with them.

In the days of slow travel it wasn't till a full day of journeying had passed that Joseph and Mary discovered that Jesus was not with the entourage of their relatives and friends. So Back to Jerusalem they went to search for Jesus.

What must have gone through their minds as they traveled back to find him? Was he OK? Had he been kidnapped? Was he permanently lost and gone from them? It took three days to find him. St. Luke's gospel tells us. For three excruciating days of fear and troublesome, helpless wandering they sought their son. How saddened their hearts must have been.

Finally their search ended when they found Jesus in the Temple in discussion with the elders there questioning them and astonishing them with his interest and his understanding.

Mary confronted him with the consequences of his actions and he responded in what may be a typical twelve year old's push back, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?"

The short story ends with Mary and Joseph taking the child back to their home place; they did not understand what the meaning of the event was, but they settled back in Nazareth and he lived obediently with them. And Mary "kept all these things in her heart."

Mary pondered in her heart the ups and downs of life in Nazareth. And ultimately Mary's heart was broken by the cruel death that was to be Jesus' fate. Mary's heart, large and generous, kept with love, the beauty and the splendor of her son's love inspired (as earlier) to be in his Father's house. And that "being" in the Father's (and our) house makes all the difference for you and me. And our hearts, like Mary's immaculate heart, are invited to contain, to ponder and to share that beauty and splendor with a world needing all the love and heart it can get.

Question of the Week

The Immaculate Heart — Lucas 2:41-51

Key Passage: "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them.

Question for adults: What would your reaction be when recovering a lost child?

Question for children: Why do we respect and obey our parents?

Pregunta de la Semana

El Inmaculado Corazón -- Lucas 2:41-51

Pasaje Crucial: "Hijo mío, ¿por qué te has portado así con nosotros? Tu padre y yo te hemos estado buscando llenos de angustia". Él les respondió: "¿Por qué me andaban buscando? ¿No sabían que debo ocuparme en las cosas de mi Padre?" Ellos no entendieron la respuesta que les dio. Entonces volvió con ellos a Nazaret y siguió sujeto a su autoridad.

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Cuál sería su reacción al recuperar a un niño perdido?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Por qué respetamos y obedecemos a nuestros padres?
