

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation; announce the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

Ustedes son linaje escogido, sacerdocio real, nación consagrada a Dios, para que proclamen las obras maravillosas de aquel que los llamó de las tinieblas a su luz.

All parishioners are dispensed from their Sunday obligation to attend mass by Bishop Shawn until September 11 provided they either view the Sunday mass streamed from Saint Mary, the Cathedral or the Vatican; or read and meditate upon the Sunday Readings plus recite the rosary or the Chaplet of Mercy.

Saint Mary has resumed public mass in Milan. However, our bishop and government officials require us to observe several public health procedures. If you plan to attend mass, you must have no COVID symptoms. You need to wear your mask entering and leaving, but not while in your pew, pass a temperature check, use hand sanitizer at the church entrance. Individuals living in the same house or family units may sit together, others must remain six feet apart. Those at risk during this crisis, especially those age 65 or older, should strongly consider using the dispensation. Streaming each week's liturgy continues at stmary.church/masses or facebook.com/stmary.life.

Because of public health regulations, we may not be able to seat everyone who wishes to attend mass. We will do our best to avoid this circumstance, but it is possible we will be compelled by regulations to restrict admittance.

May God continue his blessings upon us. If you have questions, call Deacon John at 573 864-5502.

Todos están exentos de obligación dominical de asistir a misa hasta el 11 de septiembre, siempre que vean la misa dominical transmitida desde su parroquia, catedral o vaticano, o lean y mediten en las lecturas dominicales más reciten el rosario o la corona de la misericordia. .

Santa María ha reanudado la misa pública en Milán. Sin embargo, nuestro obispo y los funcionarios del gobierno nos exigen que observemos varios procedimientos de salud pública. Si planea asistir a misa, no debe tener síntomas COVID. Debe usar su máscara entrando y saliendo, pero no mientras está en su banco, pase un control de temperatura, use desinfectante para manos en la entrada de la iglesia. Las personas que viven en la misma casa o unidades familiares pueden sentarse juntas, otras deben permanecer a seis pies de distancia. Aquellos en riesgo durante esta crisis, especialmente aquellos de 65 años o más, deben considerar usar la dispensación. La transmisión de la liturgia de cada semana continúa en stmary.church/masses o facebook.com/stmary.life.

Debido a las regulaciones de salud pública, es posible que no podamos sentar a todos los que deseen asistir a misa. Haremos todo lo posible para evitar esta circunstancia, pero es posible que las regulaciones nos obliguen a restringir la admisión.

Que Dios continúe sus bendiciones sobre nosotros. Si tiene preguntas, llame al Diácono John al 573 864-5502.

Thirteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time, Year A XIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el año A Gospel of St. Matthew / El evangelio de San Mateo June / Junio 28, 2020

From Deacon John...

In this time of upheaval and hate among fellow citizens when discovering paths to agreement and unity seem so urgent, the gospel of the day echoes Jesus' words expressing division and separation. We read He is the source of conflict between parent and child, husband and wife, brother and sister. Jesus promotes individualism knowing that hatred will be an outcome. It is a paradox of Christianity that love between peoples comes only through diversity. Though Jesus is the definition of love, any return, expression or sharing of that love can only exist when individuality and personal freedom exists. Chesterton describes Christianity as the giant who cuts off his arm that it might shake hands with itself. Acceptance, let alone love, of any neighbor is impossible unless we first bind ourselves to Jesus, the single font of unconditional love.

En este momento de agitación y odio entre los conciudadanos cuando descubrir caminos para el acuerdo y la unidad parece tan urgente, el evangelio del día hace eco de las palabras de Jesús que expresan división y separación. Leemos que Jesús es la fuente de conflicto entre padre e hijo, esposo y esposa, hermano y hermana. Jesús promueve el individualismo sabiendo bien que el odio será un resultado inevitable. Es una paradoja del cristianismo que el amor entre los pueblos solo viene a través de la diversidad. Aunque Jesús es la definición del amor, cualquier retorno, expresión o compartir ese amor solo puede existir cuando existe la individualidad y la libertad personal. Chesterton describe al cristianismo como el gigante que se corta el brazo para poder estrecharle la mano. La aceptación, y mucho menos el amor, de cualquier prójimo es imposible a menos que primero nos unamos a Jesús, la fuente única del amor incondicional.

Background on the Gospel Reading

Today's Gospel is the conclusion of the instructions and consolations that we have heard Jesus offering to his disciples during the past few weeks. In this passage, Jesus summarizes both the costs of discipleship and its rewards. Once again our understanding of the Gospel is strengthened by considering the context in which it was written and the perspective of Matthew's audience.

The conditions of discipleship outlined in Matthew's Gospel may appear harsh. Yet they underline for us a truth—choosing anything with one's whole heart has consequences. Choosing life with Christ means that every relationship we have must be understood from a new perspective. For many in Matthew's community, this choice brought division to their family.

Matthew also outlines the reward of hospitality offered to Jesus' followers. In today's Gospel, Jesus explains the difficulties of discipleship, yet reveals that those who welcome the disciples have also welcomed him.

Today's Gospel also highlights for us the importance of hospitality in the Christian life. To welcome another in Jesus' name is to extend hospitality to Jesus himself. We have many opportunities in our daily life to reach out to others, to be a welcoming presence and a sign of God's love.

Family Connection

One can tell a lot about a family by the way they welcome others into their home.

Despite parental efforts to elicit the best behavior from their children, family efforts to entertain guests are sometimes difficult. Practicing a spirit of Christian hospitality within the family can be an occasion to reflect upon the importance of this virtue. A family spirit of hospitality is a sign of faith.

When your family gathers, ask each person to consider the following questions about manners:

Bishop McKnight's July prayer intention for our Local Church

For the unity of our country: that the God of truth may open our hearts to the truth of the Gospel, that peace may rule our hearts, and that justice may guide our nation of one people of many races.

Intención del mes de julio del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local Por la unidad de nuestro país: que el Dios de la verdad abra nuestros corazones a la verdad del Evangelio, que la paz reine nuestros corazones y que la justicia guíe nuestra nación de un pueblo de muchas razas.

What does it mean to be a good host? What does it mean to be a good guest? Invite each person to share their thoughts and experiences about being a guest or a host. When they have finished, read aloud today's Gospel.

Ask family members to describe what Jesus says about hospitality extended to his disciples. (Those who receive Jesus' disciples also receive Jesus himself; hospitality to Jesus' disciples will be rewarded.) Then encourage family members to talk about what it means to be a good guest or a good host. You might also talk about ways in which your family's hospitality might be improved upon. Conclude in prayer together that your family grows to be one in which Christian hospitality is experienced by all.

Question of the Week

Thirteenth Sunday — Matthew 10:37-42

Key Passage: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it."

Question for adults: What does this Gospel teach you about the cost of discipleship and how does it relate to your experience so far?

Question for children: How can you live as a someone who follows Jesus?

Pregunta de la Semana

XIII Domingo -- Mateo 10, 37-42

Pasaje Crucial: "El que ama a su padre o a su madre más que a mí, no es digno de mí; el que ama a su hijo o a su hija más que a mí, no es digno de mí; y el que no toma su cruz y me sigue, no es digno de mí. El que salve su vida la perderá y el que la pierda por mí, la salvará."

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Qué enseña este pasaje del Evangelio sobre el costo del discipulado y cómo se relaciona con sus experiencias hasta el momento?

Pregunta para los niños: ¿Cómo pueden mostrar con su vida que siguen a Jesús?

We lift up to the Lord all those who have died, may they enjoy the fullness of Christ. As this pandemic enters our communities in a more aggressive way, we pray too, for those suffering from illness or stress, especially those touched by this massive public health crisis. May we be strong and persistent in our desire to live our faith. As today's gospel reminds us, there is always a cross to carry, but a reward to be gained.
