

*Christ our pascal lamb has been sacrificed;
let us feast with joy in the Lord.
Cristo, nuestro cordero pascual, ha sido inmolado;
celebreemos, pues, la Pascua.*

May the blessings of the Risen Christ fill your lives with joy!

Father Patrick, Deacon Jerónimo, and I wish you a blessed Easter Season. We are most thankful to everyone who worked so tirelessly and with great generosity to make our observance of the Lenten Season and our celebration of the Pascal Mystery a meaningful experience. May we continue to give the Lord thanks for the gift of this community of faith.

El padre patricio, diácono jerónimo y yo les deseamos una bendita temporada de Pascua. Estamos muy agradecidos a todos los que trabajaron tan incansablemente y con gran generosidad para hacer de nuestra observancia del Tiempo de Cuaresma y nuestra celebración del Misterio Pascal una experiencia tan significativa. Que todos sigamos dando gracias al Señor por el don de esta comunidad de fe.

All parishioners are dispensed from their Sunday obligation to attend mass by Bishop Shawn provided they either view the Sunday mass streamed from Saint Mary, the Cathedral or the Vatican; or read and meditate upon the Sunday Readings plus recite the rosary or the Chaplet of Mercy. Those at risk during this crisis, especially those age 65 or older, should strongly consider using the dispensation. ### Background on the Gospel Reading Today we begin the Easter Season, our 50-day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. Our Gospel today tells us about the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb. It concludes by telling us that they did not yet understand that Jesus had risen from the dead. Thus, the details provided are not necessarily meant to offer proof of the Resurrection. The details invite us to reflect upon a most amazing gift, that is faith in Jesus and his Resurrection.

Each of the four Gospels tells us that Jesus' empty tomb was first discovered by women. This is notable because in first-century Jewish society women could not serve as legal witnesses. In the case of John's Gospel, the only woman attending the tomb is Mary of Magdala. Unlike the Synoptic accounts, John's Gospel does not describe an appearance of angels at the tomb. Instead, Mary is simply said to have observed that the stone that had sealed the tomb had been moved, and she runs to alert Simon Peter and the beloved disciple. Her statement to them is telling. She assumes that Jesus' body has been removed, perhaps stolen.

Bishop McKnight's April prayer intention for our Local Church

Let us pray for a renewed understanding of our baptismal dignity as sons and daughters of God the Father, and a commitment to living in peace with our sisters and brothers in Christ.

Intención del mes de abril del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local

Oremos por una renovación de nuestro entendimiento de nuestra dignidad bautismal como hijos e hija de Dios Padre y por nuestro compromiso de vivir en paz con nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo.

She does not consider that Jesus has been raised from the dead. Simon Peter and the beloved disciple race to the tomb, presumably to verify Mary's report. The beloved disciple arrives first but does not enter the tomb until after Simon Peter. This detail paints a vivid picture, as does the detail provided about the burial cloths. Some scholars believe that the presence of the burial cloths in the tomb offers evidence to the listener that Jesus' body had not been stolen (it is understood that grave robbers would have taken the burial cloths together with the body).

The Gospel passage concludes, however, that even having seen the empty tomb and the burial cloths, the disciples do not yet understand about the Resurrection. In the passage that follows, Mary of Magdala meets Jesus but mistakes him for the gardener. In the weeks ahead, the Gospel readings from our liturgy will show us how the disciples came to believe in Jesus' Resurrection through his appearances to them. Our Easter faith is based on their witness to both the empty tomb and their continuing relationship with Jesus—in his appearances and in his gift of the Holy Spirit.

Question of the Week

Easter Sunday - John 20:1-9

Key Passage:

Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in and he saw and believed.

Question for adults:

What will you do this week that shows you truly believe in the resurrection of Jesus?

Question for children:

How does your celebration of Easter remind you of Jesus gift of new life?

Pregunta de la Semana

Domingo de Pascua -- Juan 20:1-9

Pasaje Crucial:

Entonces entró también el otro discípulo, el que había llegado primero al sepulcro, y vio y creó.

Pregunta para los adultos:

¿Qué vas a hacer esta semana que muestra que realmente creen en la resurrección de Jesús?

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Cómo demostraras esta semana que tú realmente crees en la resurrección de Jesús?

1 COR 1

During Holy Week, we prayerfully remember the events of Jesus' passion and death. As we meditate on the cross, we ask again and anew what it means to make the statement of faith that Jesus, in his obedient suffering and dying, revealed himself to us as God's Son.
