Nominations For Pastoral Council Membership - As the new school year approaches, we will resume many previously restricted activities. That particularly includes a much-needed resumption of everyday parish life, ritual, and activities. A major part in that rejuvenation is the role the Pastoral Council serves in discerning future parish goals, direction, and choices. This weekend begins an opportunity to submit names of those parish members you feel might serve well as Pastoral Council members leading us in a renewed parish life. The Hospitality Ministers have forms to use in submitting those names. Thanks you for your help in discerning this parish need.

Con el comienzo del nuevo año escolar, reanudaremos muchas actividades previamente restringidas. Eso incluye en particular una reanudación muy necesaria de la vida, los rituales y las actividades cotidianas de la parroquia. Una parte importante de ese rejuvenecimiento es el papel que desempeña el Consejo Pastoral para discernir las metas, la dirección y las opciones futuras de la parroquia. Este fin de semana comienza una oportunidad para enviar los nombres de los miembros de la parroquia que usted cree que podrían servir como miembros del Consejo Pastoral que nos llevan a una vida parroquial renovada. Los Ministros de Hospitalidad tienen formularios para usar al enviar esos nombres. Gracias por su ayuda para discernir esta necesidad parroquial.

Background on the Gospel Reading

On this Sunday, we continue to read from the “Bread of Life discourse” found in the sixth chapter of John’s Gospel. Recall that we have been reading from this chapter for the past two weeks and will continue to read from it for another two. Last week, the crowd asked for a sign that would show that Jesus came from God. Jesus replied by saying that he is the sign and the bread of life sent by God. At this point, our Lectionary omits six verses in which Jesus predicts the unbelief of the crowd and further develops his connection with God the Father. In these verses, Jesus says that he was sent by God to do the Father’s will. Jesus promises that those who look upon the Son with faith will find eternal life. Some of these themes are repeated in today’s Gospel reading.

Today’s Gospel begins with a report that the Jews complained about Jesus’ claims regarding his identity. They knew his family, and they knew he was the son of Joseph. They could not comprehend what Jesus meant when he said that he came down from heaven. Jesus responds to the complaints by saying that only those who are chosen by God will recognize him as the one that God sent. This is a recurring theme in John’s Gospel, that God has chosen those who will have faith in Jesus.

In the verses that follow, Jesus talks more about his unity with the Father. He is the one who has seen the Father and, therefore, knows the Father. Those who listen to God will recognize that Jesus is the one sent from God. Those who believe will have eternal life. Jesus concludes with the central element of our eucharistic theology. He promises that the bread of life will bring eternal life to those who partake of it, and that the bread of life will be his own flesh, given for the life of the world.

Bishop McKnight’s August prayer intention for our Local Church

As we begin this school year, may all recognize our shared mission to hand on our Catholic faith to the next generation.

Intención del mes de agosto del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local

Al comenzar este nuevo año escolar, que todos recordemos nuestra misión común de transmitir nuestra fe católica a las próximas generaciones.

In today’s reading, we hear Jesus say, as he did in last week’s Gospel, that he is the bread of life.

We also hear that he is the living bread. Both of these statements help us understand the gift that Jesus gives us in the Eucharist. We celebrate this gift each time we gather for Mass. We believe that receiving Jesus in the Eucharist will lead us to eternal life.

Question of the Week

Sunday Week Nineteen - John 6:41-51

Key Passage:

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven," and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother? Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven?'"

Question for adults:

By definition, Christians profess belief in Jesus Christ. Why then, do so many deny or doubt Christ’s real presence in the Eucharist?

Question for children:

What do you think happens when someone dies?

Pregunta de la Semana

Decimonoveno Domingo — Juan 6, 41-51

Pasaje Crucial:

En aquel tiempo, los judíos murmuraban contra Jesús, porque había dicho: “Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo”, y decían: “¿No es éste, Jesús, el hijo de José? ¿Acaso no conocemos a su padre y a su madre? ¿Cómo nos dice ahora que ha bajado del cielo?”

Pregunta para los adultos:

Por definición, los cristianos profesan creer en Jesucristo. Entonces, ¿por qué tantos niegan o dudan de la presencia real de Cristo en la Eucaristía?

Pregunta para los niños:

¿Qué crees que pasa cuando alguien muere?

Sunday Celebration in the Absence of a Priest —The Diocese of Jefferson City, as so many others throughout the United States, has many more parishes than priests. In our diocese, roughly one third of the parishes do not have a resident priest. Our parish is one of six parishes that are administered by Permanent Deacons or Religious Women. Roughly thirty other parishes are without a priest or administrator in permanent residence. Strong effort is made to celebrate mass within every parish as frequently as possible. However, during some weekends while Father Patrick is with his family in Ireland, we will not have a priest available to us. On those weekends, we will have a “Sunday Celebration in the Absence of a Priest.” This “Sunday Celebration” is a ritual the bishops of the United States have provided for circumstances like ours, and participation fulfills your Sunday obligation. Masses will continue to be celebrated in Centerville, Kirksville, and at 11:00 am Sundays in Milan.

of Christ. We pray for those suffering from illness, disease or stress, especially those touched by this massive public health crisis. We pray too, for all those who serve the public good in any way. May we be strong in our faith and persistent in our efforts as the hands and feet of our Lord. The gospels challenge us to be Christ's presence.

May He, who is the Living Bread of Life, nourish and sustain us in our Efforts.
