2021 Catholic Stewardship Appeal (CSA)

The Eucharist is the source of our Catholic Stewardship Appeal. Eucharist means “thanksgiving,” and the CSA is an opportunity for us to thank God for all He has given us, particularly the gift of His Son. We are reminded that followers of Jesus are to be bread broken for the life of the world. Through the CSA, we make known the Kingdom of God by helping each other to live our faith and share our Gospel belief. From honoring the dignity of each life, to teaching people about our faith, to sharing our resources with those who are alone or in need, our gifts to the CSA and the ministries these gifts support are our grateful offerings to God. Saint Mary in Milan is about 40% of the way to achieving this year’s objective. If each of our families would give a small portion of their income, we would easily achieve our parish goal.

La Eucaristía es la fuente de nuestro llamamiento de corresponsabilidad católica. Eucaristía significa "acción de gracias" y el CSA es una oportunidad para que agradezcamos a Dios por todo lo que nos ha dado, particularmente el regalo de Su Hijo. Se nos recuerda que los seguidores de Jesús deben ser pan partido por la vida del mundo. A través de la CSA, damos a conocer el Reino de Dios ayudándonos unos a otros a vivir nuestra fe y compartir nuestra creencia en el Evangelio. Desde honrar la dignidad de cada vida, hasta enseñar a las personas sobre nuestra fe, hasta compartir nuestros recursos con aquellos que están solos o en necesidad, nuestros dones a la CSA y los ministerios que estos dones apoyan son nuestras ofrendas agradecidas a Dios. Santa María en Milán es el 40% del camino para lograr el objetivo. Si cada una de nuestras familias diera una pequeña parte de sus ingresos, fácilmente alcanzaríamos nuestra meta parroquial.

If you are ill, traveling, or otherwise dispensed from the obligation to participate in Holy Mass, please continue to join us online. Otherwise, we look forward to seeing you in person at Mass!

Si está enfermo, está viajando o de alguna otra manera está exento de nuestra obligación de participar en la Santa Misa, continúe uniéndose a nosotros en línea. De lo contrario, ¡esperamos verte en persona en la misa!

The 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B 32º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, año B Gospel of St. Mark / El Evangelio de San Marcos November / Noviembre 7

From Deacon John...

In the eyes of the world, at a time when there was no Social Security, these widows were weak and dependent upon others. They found themselves in desperate situations in the midst of famine and poverty. Yet, each demonstrated strength and generosity that distinguished them. From where did this come? It came from knowing they were daughters of the Most High God. They had no need to panic. Their faith kept them detached from material possessions, allowing them to think of others despite their trials. They saw themselves as stewards of the resources God gave them, regardless of how little they had.

A los ojos del mundo, en una época en la que no existía el Seguro Social, estas viudas eran débiles y dependían de los demás. Se encontraron en situaciones desesperadas, en medio de la hambruna y la pobreza. Sin embargo, cada uno demostró la fuerza y la generosidad que los distinguió. ¿De dónde vino esto? Provino de saber que eran hijas del Dios Altísimo. No tenían por qué entrar en pánico. Su fe los mantuvo alejados de las posesiones materiales, lo que les permitió pensar en los demás a pesar de sus pruebas. Se veían a sí mismos como administradores de los recursos que Dios les dio, independientemente de lo poco que tuvieran.

Background on the Gospel Reading

The context for today's Gospel continues to be mounting tension between Jesus and the Jewish authorities. Mark reports some of Jesus' teaching in the Temple area in today's reading and in the preceding verses not included in our Lectionary sequence. In the first of today's Gospel, we hear Jesus warn the crowds not to follow the example of the scribes in seeking honor and attention from others. It is important to recall that Mark says that Jesus taught these things while in the vicinity of the Temple in Jerusalem. Mark is setting the stage for Jesus' passion. Jesus then observes how Jewish pilgrims are making their contributions to the temple treasury. The Temple in Jerusalem was the center of Jewish worship in the time of Jesus. It was expected that observant Jews would make pilgrimages to the Temple to offer prayer and sacrifices. Pilgrims were also expected to make a financial contribution to the temple treasury. As we would expect to be the case, Jesus observes that those who were rich contributed large sums to the treasury. Those with less means made smaller contributions. A similar situation exists in most of our parishes as well. Jesus calls attention, however, to a poor widow who makes the smallest of contributions—two coins of little value. Jesus upholds the poor widow's offering for his disciples' consideration, commending her because her small offering was an act of profound generosity, giving from her livelihood rather than her surplus.

To give from our livelihood is not only an act of generosity, it is also an act of trust in God. We can only give from our need if we trust that God will provide for us. Jesus himself demonstrates the ultimate act of generosity and trust in God as he gives his life for us on the cross.

Bishop McKnight's November prayer intention for our Local Church

For a deeper spirituality of stewardship among all the baptized: That from our gratitude for God's many blessings we may offer our personal gifts and talents in service to the evangelizing mission of the Church.

Intención del mes de noviembre del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local Por una espiritualidad de 'buenos administradores' más profunda en todos los bautizados: Que desde nuestra gratitud por las muchas bendiciones de Dios podamos ofrecer nuestros dones y talentos personales al servicio de la misión evangelizadora de la Iglesia.

In his vision of a tithing parish, Bishop Shawn asks that we recognize our gifts, learning to live gratefully. Consider a commitment to return to God the Father, a minimum of one hour of worship, one hour of prayer, one hour of service and one hour of wage each week.

En su visión de una parroquia del diezmo, el obispo Shawn pide que reconozcamos nuestros dones, aprendiendo a vivir con gratitud. Considere un compromiso de regresar a Dios el Padre, un mínimo de una hora de adoración, una hora de oración, una hora de servicio y una hora de salario cada semana.

Question of the Week

32nd Sunday – Mark 12:38-44

Key Passage: “Amen I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood.”

Question for adults:

How is it more meaningful to give from want than to give from abundance?

Question for children:

Tell about a time when you were generous and it was not easy.

Pregunta de la Semana

32° Domingo — Marcos 12, 38-44

Pasaje Crucial: Jesús les dijo: “Yo les aseguro que esa pobre viuda ha echado en la alcancía más que todos. Porque los demás han echado de lo que les sobraba; pero ésta, en su pobreza ha echado todo lo que tenía para vivir”.

Pregunta para los adultos: ¿Cómo es más significativo dar por necesidad que dar por abundancia?

Pregunta para los niños: Cuéntenos de un momento en el que fuiste generoso y no fue fácil.
