From Deacon John...

Jesus is getting personal today. He poses the same question to each one of us who call ourselves His stewards. Do we truly live acknowledging that He is the Christ? If we really believe that He is the Son of God, then we must live that belief with both words and actions. Does my budget, my family life, my entertainment say so? The gifts and blessings that God has given us, our time, our talents, our material possessions, are meant to be used in a manner that says "Christ is my Savior and I am His disciple." The best praise we can offer Him is a life lived in grateful response to His unfathomable love. This is the beauty and power of a stewardship way of life.

Jesús se está volviendo personal hoy. Él nos plantea la misma pregunta a cada uno de nosotros que nos llamamos sus mayordomos. ¿Vivimos verdaderamente reconociendo que Él es el Cristo? Si realmente creemos que Él es el Hijo de Dios, entonces debemos vivirlo tanto con palabras como con acciones. ¿Mi presupuesto, mi vida familiar, mi entretenimiento lo dicen? Los dones y bendiciones que Dios nos ha dado, tiempo, talentos, y posesiones materiales, deben usarse de una manera que diga "Cristo es mi Salvador y yo soy Su discípulo". La mejor alabanza que podemos ofrecerle es una vida vivida en respuesta agradecida a su amor insondable. Ésta es la belleza y el poder de una forma de vida de mayordomía.

Background on Today's Gospel

It is important to read today's Gospel and next week's Gospel as two parts of a single story. These readings are a turning point in Matthew's Gospel. This week we hear Jesus name Simon Peter as the rock upon which he will build his Church. Next week we will hear Jesus call this same Simon Peter "Satan" when he reacts negatively to Jesus' prediction about his passion and death.

In today's Gospel, Jesus asks his disciples what people are saying about his identity. The disciples indicate that most people believe that Jesus is a prophet of Israel. Then Jesus asks his disciples who they believe that he is. Simon Peter answers, identifying Jesus as the Messiah, the Son of God.

Jesus commends Simon Peter for this profession of faith, indicating that

Restless Heart: The Confessions of Augustine

This film on the life of St. Augustine offers a message of conversion and redemption. It is the story of a gifted man who pursues fame and fortune without a moral compass - and the dramatic changes that occur in his soul when challenging events lead him to see the light of truth.

Bishop McKnight's August prayer intention for our Local Church

For students, parents and teachers as another school year begins; may our Catholic community provide the proper environment and resources for our young people to thrive and excel in their formation as disciples of Christ, and sons and daughters of our Catholic Church. We pray to the Lord.

Intención del mes de agosto del Obispo McKnight por nuestra Iglesia Local Por los estudiantes, padres y maestros al iniciar otro año escolar; que nuestra comunidad católica proporcione el entorno y los recursos adecuados para que nuestra juventud prospere y sobresalga en su formación como discípulos de Cristo e hijos e hijas de nuestra Iglesia católica. Roguemos al Señor.

this insight has come from God. Because of Simon Peter's response, Jesus calls him the "rock" upon which Jesus will build the Church. This is a word play on the name Peter, which is the Greek word for "rock." Peter is then given special authority by Jesus, a symbolic key to the Kingdom of Heaven. Peter will play an important role in the early Christian community as a spokesperson and a leader.

In today's Gospel, Peter's recognition of Jesus' identity is credited to a revelation by God. This will contrast sharply with Jesus' rebuke of Peter in next week's Gospel. When Peter rejects Jesus' prediction of his passion and death, Peter is said to no longer be thinking as God does but as humans do.

The use of the term church in today's Gospel is one of only three such occurrences in Matthew's Gospel. Peter in this Gospel is being credited as the foundation for the Church, a privilege granted to him because of his recognition of Jesus' identity. The Church continues to be grounded in the faith that Jesus Christ is Lord. God's abundant mercy. Yes, salvation comes through Israel, but it overflows for the benefit of all.

Remember your personal commitment to return to God, the Father, of a minimum of one hour of worship, prayer, service and wage each week.
