

Vengan, benditos de mi Padre, dice el Señor; tomen posesión del Reino preparado para ustedes desde la creación del mundo.

Come, you who are blessed by my Father; inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.

We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.

En efecto, por el bautismo fuimos sepultados con él en su muerte, para que, así como Cristo resucitó de entre los muertos por la gloria del Padre, así también nosotros llevemos una vida nueva.

Romans 5:4

“But I say to you, love your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you.” Mt. 5:44

We continue to lift up to the Lord...

...all who have died. We pray for those who struggle with migration, aging, cold weather, disease, illness, violence, grief or addiction. We are grateful for those who feed, house and clothe the world, and those who labor selflessly for our safety, growth and well being, including our catechists, first responders and military. May we always follow the Father's beloved son, Jesus Christ.

All The Faithful Departed, Year C
Todos Los Fieles Difuntos
Gospel of St. Luke / El Evangelio de San Lucas
November / Noviembre 2, 2025

Today, Sacred Scripture remind us of the hope we share. A hope that “the souls of the just are in the hand of God”; that through Baptism, we were united with Christ in His death so that we might also live with Him forever; and finally that: “Everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day”. Eternal life is God’s great gift to us, and it should shape the way we make use of the time, talents, and treasure entrusted to us. Each day is an opportunity to serve God, love our neighbor, and hand on the life-giving gift of faith to others.

Las Escrituras de hoy nos recuerdan la esperanza que compartimos: que «las almas de los justos están en manos de Dios»; que, mediante el Bautismo, fuimos unidos a Cristo en su muerte para que también podamos vivir con Él para siempre. Y, finalmente, que: «Todo aquel que ve al Hijo y cree en él tiene vida eterna, y yo lo resucitaré en el día final». La vida eterna es el gran regalo de Dios, y debe guiar la forma en que usamos el tiempo, los talentos y los recursos que se nos han confiado. Cada día es una oportunidad para servir a Dios, amar a nuestro prójimo y compartir el don de la fe con los demás.

Background on the Gospel Reading

The readings for the Liturgy of the Word on the Feast of All Souls can be selected from several choices including from among those given for the Masses for the Dead. This reflection is based on John 11:17-27 where Jesus consoles Martha at the death of her brother. This selection is not the Gospel passage proclaimed at today's mass.

On the Feast of All Souls, we pray for the souls of all those who have died. There are many choices of readings for this day, all focusing on our belief in the resurrection of the dead and Jesus' promise of eternal life. The Gospel story of the raising of Lazarus offers us many important insights about this aspect of our faith.

Jesus was good friends with Lazarus and his sisters, Martha and Mary. Lazarus had fallen ill, and Martha and Mary had sent word to Jesus. Jesus delays his journey to them, however, and when he arrives in Bethany, he finds that Lazarus is dead and has been buried for four days.

The scene described at Bethany is a sad one; Lazarus and his family have many friends who have come to mourn his death. Martha goes out to meet Jesus when he arrives. She cries with him, saying that if Jesus had been there, Lazarus would not have died. Yet she remains confident that God will do whatever Jesus asks. Jesus consoles her with the promise that Lazarus would rise from the dead.

Martha affirms her belief that there will be resurrection of the dead in the last days. Jesus promises her even more; he says that he himself is the Resurrection and the life for all those who believe in him. Martha professes her faith in this, acknowledging that Jesus is Christ, the Son of God.

This is the profession of faith we continue to make, and it is the promise on which we base our hope for eternal life for ourselves and for all those who have died. In his death and Resurrection, Jesus has conquered death for all those who believe in him.

An offering from the AUGUSTINE INSTITUTE

We believe that we continue to share a relationship with those who have died. When we pray for the souls of the faithful departed, we are praying for those whose souls are journeying through purgatory, being prepared for eternal life in heaven. We believe that our prayers for them will help to speed their journey to eternal life with God in heaven.

Remember your personal commitment to return to God, the Father, a minimum of one hour of worship, prayer, service and wage each week.

Baptism is not only about forgiveness; it represents the end of one life and the beginning of another. In short, to be baptized is to consent to the death of everything that keeps us apart from God.

As we celebrate each week the pascal mystery, may the selfless life of Jesus Christ guide us in every way.

Today, we pray for all who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. The Scriptures remind us of the hope we share in Christ. The Book of Wisdom assures us that “the souls of the just are in the hand of God” while St. Paul teaches that through Baptism, we were united with Christ in His death so that we might also live with Him forever. Jesus promises: “Everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have eternal life, and I shall raise him on the last day”. Eternal life is God’s greatest gift to us, and it shapes the way we live here and now. As good stewards, we are called to make use of the time, talents, and treasure entrusted to us in ways that prepare us for eternity. Each day is an opportunity to serve God, love our neighbor, and hand on the gift of faith to others. As we pray for the faithful departed today, may we renew our commitment to live as disciples who use well the gifts we have been given.
