Pastor's Corner November, the month that constitutes its own unofficial liturgical season, focused on the Last Things (death, judgment, heaven, and hell). We begin the month with All Saints and round it out with the Feast of Christ the King.

This Sunday's readings introduce themes that will be developed throughout the finale of the liturgical year: repentance, the kingdom of God, and final judgment. In particular, the Gospel Reading urges us not merely to repent while we still have time, but also to make right the wrongs we have done to others, that is, to make reparation.

If God loves all he has made, how much more must he love human beings, who share his image and have the potential to receive his Spirit and become his children? Thus the holy sage asserts that God works gently with sinners reminding them of their sins repeatedly and giving them opportunity to repent. We should live in such a way that if Christ came back next week, we wouldn't have to change our plans or behavior at all. The proper preparation for the Second Coming is to repent now because while we don't know when Jesus will come for all mankind, he may come for us at any time. No one knows the day of his or her death, which shows the wisdom of the piety of the Rosary: "Pray for us now and at the hour of our death." Taken from "The Word of the Lord" Reflections on the Sunday Mass Readings. God Bless you.~ Fr. John

DIOCESE VOCATION PRAYER: O Lord, My God, please raise up an army of priests from the sons of the Diocese of Salina. Priests that will carry Your merciful words of absolution upon their lips. Priests that will anoint our loved ones with Your Holy Oil in sickness and at the hour of their death. Priests who will fearlessly proclaim the Gospel in season and out. Priests who will offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for our salvation. Dearest Mother Mary, whisper consoling words of comfort into the hearts of mothers and fathers of our diocese as their sons discern a call into the Holy Orders of Christ's Eternal Priesthood. We ask this with humble hearts through the Holy Name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

Theme: Jesus' love transforms all people and all things!

Adults: Why do you suppose Jesus was so kind to Zaccaeus? What lesson do you draw from this reading regarding those who are considered "public sinners" today?

Youth: Jesus saw Zaccaeus as he was - mistakes and all. what masks, if any, do you hide behind so others won't see who you really are? Who do you trust to see your true self?

Children: Jesus showed that he loved Zaccaeus by having supper with him. How does Jesus show his love for you?
