THANK YOU!

I would like to say "Thank You" to Mary Flora. Mary has been a member here at Immaculate Conception for years! Mary is our organist and has been so faithful in being here the majority of Sunday's & Holy Day's to play for us. You never realized how much you appreciate someone until they can't make it to play! Mary, we have missed you and continue to keep you in our prayers for a quick healing!

Thank you

Our Military Men & Women serving our country ~ Mason Campbell & Patrick Crippen. If you have someone serving please let Daylene know.

Pastor's Corner "Some years ago I was driving through the back hills of Ohio with my son, and we passed a billboard in a farmer's field that read: "God has a Judgment Day coming!"

My son asked me if the farmer who had placed the billboard in his field was Catholic or Protestant. I suggested he probably was a Protestant. My son asked why Catholics didn't put up billboards like that. I theorized that perhaps fewer Catholics owned farms close to the highway, or maybe they were less convinced that announcing the coming judgment was really an effective means of evangelism.

Billboards announcing Judgment Day are not a part of American Catholic culture. Nonetheless, the readings for this coming Sunday affirm the truth of that well-meaning farmer's sign. God does have a day of judgment coming. Is that good news or bad news? It would depend, I suppose, on whether we have suffered injustice or committed it." Taken from "The Word of the Lord" Reflections on the Sunday Mass Readings. God Bless you.~ Fr. John

ST. ANN'S: St. Ann's will meet this Tuesday, November 15 at 7 p.m. Ladies we will be talking about the Chicken Noodle Dinner and how it went and what we might change in the future. If you helped with the Chicken Noodle Dinner in any way, please plan to come to the meeting to give your input. The Christmas Dinner will also be discussed.

Ask Him.....

to give you freedom from fear, freedom to trust, freedom to endure, and freedom to forgive.

Alcoholics Anonymous

Meets every Sunday at 8 p.m. in the parish hall & Wednesday mornings at 8 a.m. also in the parish hall. These are open meetings and all are welcome!

DIOCESE VOCATION PRAYER: O Lord, My God, please raise up an army of priests from the sons of the Diocese of Salina. Priests that will carry Your merciful words of absolution upon their lips. Priests that will anoint our loved ones with Your Holy Oil in sickness and at the hour of their death. Priests who will fearlessly proclaim the Gospel in season and out. Priests who will offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for our salvation. Dearest Mother Mary, whisper consoling words of comfort into the hearts of mothers and fathers of our diocese as their sons discern a call into the Holy Orders of Christ's Eternal Priesthood. We ask this with humble hearts through the Holy Name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

QUESTION OF THE WEEK:

Theme: The day of the Lord is a day of hope and joy.

Adults: Paul's words to the Thessalonians are tough: if you want to eat, you must work! How does this translate into our society today? How do you reconcile this with Jesus' command to love and feed the poor?

Youth: Jesus tells us that even though bad things will happen, we are safe in God. When have you felt the safety of God's life in your own life?

Children: Jesus teaches us that work is good for us. What kind of work do you during the week? How does it help you?
