GREAT

Father Pat's Page

Have you taken a walk on the path from the church building to Hillview? It's looking great this time of the year. What is really encouraging is to see people sitting on one of the benches just passing some time. It's a quiet, inviting place to spend some time when you're not in a rush and have a few minutes to spare. Walk along the path sometime, I'm certain you'll be glad you did.

+

We're still looking for a few people to volunteer from time to time to give someone a ride to church every now and then. This isn't a weekly commitment ... just sometimes. There are a few regular parishioners who can't make it to Mass simply because circumstances in their lives have changed and they are without a ride. Think about it.

+

I certainly hope you enjoy the new pictorial directory. They have arrived and they look great. Thanks again to everyone who participated in bringing this book to us. What an asset we have.

+

Our new Webpage is up and operating. It's a tremendous change from the previous one and this one is much, much easier to maneuver. If you have some thoughts on what you might like to see included, just call Jackie and let us know. We can always be bigger and better and more in tune. That's our goal.

+

With our Saturday and Sunday socials curtailed for the summer months, it was certainly enjoyable to have our regular Donut Sunday as not part of the temporary shift in schedule. We need our time together. Speaking of ... a few celebrations on the way ... next Sunday after each of the weekend Masses we'll celebrate Father Chris' 6th anniversary of ordination as a priest. Come join us in the hall after Mass.

Two pics on this page:

One is of a prayer for travel for two sisters (twins/parishioners) who have now left for a vacation in Ireland. The other pic is of our children who were participating in our 10:30am Mass "Children's Liturgy of the Word". Certainly a great group of young people and we are definitely indebted to those adults leading this "service of the word". Enjoy ...
