DEACON BLOG

Listening to the Holy Spirit:

“In today’s first reading, we hear of the community who is struggling. The Acts of the Apostles is so realistic. It’s as if we are living in a mirror image of the communities back then. People trying to fool the Apostles. People arguing to get their fair share of the food. The Church was growing.”

“Previously in the Acts we were told that the early Christians shared with each other and lived in harmony. How quickly things change. Our human nature kicks in. I want this, I want that. The Hellenists complained that their daily distribution was being neglected. The Apostles find themselves having to settle a squabble between the two groups of followers.”

“The solution was solved when they brought the community together to listen and then had them pick those who would be tasked with distributing the daily distribution. Those selected became the first deacons, and the conflict was resolved. The role of deacons filled the practical needs of the growing Church. The Apostles chose seven men filled with the Spirit. The lesson from this is: we are all sinners, but under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we can solve our conflicts and grow in faith. Let us truly be the body of Christ by demonstrating the Father’s love to others.”¹

Spiritual Motherhood | The Augustine Institute Show

Join Dr. Tim Gray and Sr. Maris Stella for a conversation on the vocation of every woman, that of motherhood. Although all women will not be called to be physical mothers, every woman is called to be a spiritual mother.

The 13th Day

In a world torn apart by persecution, war, and oppression, three children in Fatima were chosen by God to offer an urgent message of hope to the world. Based on the memoirs of the oldest seer, Lucia Santos, The 13th Day dramatizes the true story of three young shepherds who experienced six apparitions of Our Lady, which culminated in the final prophesied miracle on October 13.

REAL WOMANHOOD
LISA COTTER

Real Womanhood by Lisa Cotter

What does it mean to be a real woman in today's culture? Join Lisa Cotter in her talk Real Womanhood, as she draws on modern-day saints, St. John Paul II to define what it means to be an authentic woman.

A relationship of faith and commitment exists between the Catholic Church and its members and the public, whether they are children, young people, adults or elderly. Sexual abuse is this context, or any other relationship, is a matter of grave concern. Knowledge of such abuse requires a special response in order to facilitate the healing process and assure the safety of the community. With this in mind, The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee is committed to healing the hurting hearts of sexual abuse victims and has established Victims Assistance Coordinators, experienced and trained counselors. These coordinators are available to help persons who have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon or other church personnel. VICTIM ASSISTANCE COORDINATORS: Pensacola/Ft. Walton Beach area: Dr. Lewis Makarowski, PhD, P.A. (850)477-7181. Tallahassee/Panama City area: James Gagnon, MSW LCSW (850)877-0205. For Spanish speakers - en Espanol: Deacon Santiago Molina, (850)627-2350. Diocesan Victim Assistance Hotline: (850)435-3536.
