Deacon's Blog

Memories:

"When I was a child, I had many memories of growing up. You may have had the same. Maybe it was when you went fishing for the first time. Learning to put that slimy ugly looking bait on a hook. Or, maybe it was the first time that you were learning how to drive a vehicle in the big open field. Do you have memories of these?"

"You probably don't think of what you are doing today really means anything in the way you live your faith – going to work every day, doing house chores, paying bills, or nurturing children/grandchildren. But, it is. We all proclaim our faith differently – in the words we write or speak; in the work of our hands, whether it's in creating a masterpiece of art, hugging a grieving friend, or visiting someone in the hospital/nursing home. We proclaim in the way God has perfectly suited us to proclaim."<sup>1</sup>

"Human beings have been patterned on God's own nature (Genesis 1:27-28). Human parenting has its origin in Him too, for He's 'the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth derive its name' (Ephesians 3:14-15). Like every father and mother, we weren't perfect in what we do/did, we sometimes failed to imitate heaven. But, when it does imitate heaven, we get a glimpse, a memory, of our faith in God. His nature of love."<sup>2</sup>

A relationship of faith and commitment exists between the Catholic Church and its members and the public, whether they are children, young people, adults or elderly. Sexual abuse in this context, or any other relationship, is a matter of grave concern. Knowledge of such abuse requires a special response in order to facilitate the healing process and assure the safety of the community. With this in mind, The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee is committed to healing the hurting hearts of sexual abuse victims and has established Victims Assistance Coordinators, experienced and trained counselors. These coordinators are available to help persons who have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon or other church personnel. VICTIM ASSISTANCE COORDINATORS: Pensacola/Ft. Walton Beach area: Dr. Lewis Makarowski, PhD, P.A. (850)477-7181. Tallahassee/Panama City area: James Gagnon, MSW LCSW (850)877-0205. For Spanish speakers - en Espanol: Deacon Santiago Molina, (850)627-2350. Diocesan Victim Assistance Hotline: (850)435-3536.
