Deacon's Blog

Forgive with Heart:

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, 'Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?' Jesus answered, 'I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times.' (Matthew 18:21,22)

“Whenever we forgive from the heart,
we build a bridge
over which we must pass
on our way from earth to heaven.
For each of us is a sinner.
And the only way we can pass
from earth to heaven is over the bridge of God's forgiveness.
'If you forgive others....,' Jesus said,
'your Father in heaven
will also forgive you'
In other words,
the surest insurance policy
against the loss of heaven is to forgive others from the heart.”¹

Padre Pio: Miracle Man

This movie captures the Capuchin friar's intense faith, devotion, and deep spiritual concern for others, as well as his great compassion for the sick and suffering. It reveals the amazing details and events in Padre Pio's life as a boy and throughout his fifty years as a friar, dramatizing the frequent attacks from the devil, as well as the persecution he suffered at the hands of people, including those in the Church.

The Calling of Matthew

Dr. Tim Gray provides an extended analysis of Caravaggio's The Calling of St. Matthew.

The Reluctant Saint: The Story of St. Joseph Cupertino

This film portrays the life of St. Joseph of Cupertino, the humble Franciscan friar who literally rose to sainthood. In the impoverished village of seventeenth century Cupertino, Italy, Joseph's peasant mother convinces the reluctant abbot to accept her son into the monastery. With the support of the kindly local bishop who sees in him a great deal more than others do, and by a series of miraculous incidents, the simple but pious Joseph is ordained a priest.

Sacraments

If you are in need of receiving one of the Sacraments, please call the parish office.

There is a beautiful statement attributed to St. Augustine that says: "The one who sings prays twice".

Since becoming your Minister of Music a little over a year ago, I've discovered that this parish really does SING. It is such a joy every weekend listening to everyone praise the Lord!

So, here at Nativity we are looking for singers in all vocal ranges—no choral experience or knowledge of music is necessary. Ministry in music will not only be rewarding for your own personal life, and an appreciation for the value of working with others in unison glorifying God with "one voice". The choir meets for rehearsal on Wednesday from 5-6:15pm and warm ups on Sunday at 10:30am. The choir sings for the 11am Mass and major solemnities. IF you are interested, please see me after Mass, email me at music@nativityofourlordcc.org or visit our church website. I know several in this parish can SING OUT, therefore, come see me before I come see you! Thank you - Brent Badon

A relationship of faith and commitment exists between the Catholic Church and its members and the public, whether they are children, young people, adults or elderly. Sexual abuse in this context, or any other relationship, is a matter of grave concern. Knowledge of such abuse requires a special response in order to facilitate the healing process and assure the safety of the community. With this in mind, The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee is committed to healing the hurting hearts of sexual abuse victims and has established Victims Assistance Coordinators, experienced and trained counselors. These coordinators are available to help persons who have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon or other church personnel. VICTIM ASSISTANCE COORDINATORS: Pensacola/Ft. Walton Beach area: Dr. Lewis Makarowski, PhD, P.A. (850)477-7181. Tallahassee/Panama City area: James Gagnon, MSW LCSW (850)877-0205. For Spanish speakers - en Espanol: Deacon Santiago Molina, (850)627-2350. Diocesan Victim Assistance Hotline: (850)435-3536.
