Listen:

Today we are so busy and in such a hurry, with so many problems, some of which are not important, that we lack the capacity to listen. We are constantly busy and so we do not have the time to listen. Throughout our days and nights God may be speaking to us. We need to “pick up” on that voice. This reminded me of an Old Testament reading - Revelation to Samuel.

During the time young Samuel was minister to the Lord under Eli... One day while Samuel was asleep the Lord called to him. Samuel replied “Here I am.” Three times Samuel heard the voice, thinking it was the elderly priest Eli. The final time, following Eli’s instruction, Samuel realized that God was calling him: “Speak, for your servant is listening.” (1 Samuel 3:4-10)

“I would like to ask each one of you to answer in your heart: You, husband, do you have time to listen to your wife? You, wife, do you have time to listen to your husband? You, parents, do you have time, time to spend to listen to your children, or your grandparents, the elderly?...Listen. I ask you to learn to listen and dedicate more time to this. In the capacity to listen is the root of peace” (Pope Francis, Angelus, July 17, 2016).¹

HOW GRIEVING PEOPLE CAN MANAGE HOLIDAY STRESSES

Thursday, November 9 8:30-11:00am

one day seminar to help face the challenges of the season and even find joy

A relationship of faith and commitment exists between the Catholic Church and its members and the public, whether they are children, young people, adults or elderly. Sexual abuse in this context, or any other relationship, is a matter of grave concern. Knowledge of such abuse requires a special response in order to facilitate the healing process and assure the safety of the community. With this in mind, The Diocese of Pensacola-Tallahassee is committed to healing the hurting hearts of sexual abuse victims and has established Victims Assistance Coordinators, experienced and trained counselors. These coordinators are available to help persons who have been sexually abused by a priest, deacon or other church personnel. VICTIM ASSISTANCE COORDINATORS: Pensacola/Ft. Walton Beach area: Dr. Lewis Makarowski, PhD, P.A. (850)477-7181. Tallahassee/Panama City area: James Gagnon, MSW LCSW (850)877-0205. For Spanish speakers - en Espanol: Deacon Santiago Molina, (850)627-2350. Diocesan Victim Assistance Hotline: (850)435-3536.
