Masks

As mandated by Governor Sisolak's Directive 47, mask use is now required by all individuals regardless of vaccination status who enter any Diocesan facility. This includes, but is not limited to: Mass, Weddings, Baptisms, etc.

Given that recent CDC guidance has been changing rather rapidly, please note that the re-implementation of the mask mandate is the only adjustment being made at this time. For Example: the Diocese continues to encourage social distancing of three (3) feet between congregants who are not of the same household.

Mass on TV and Online

Since 1989 the Las Vegas Diocese has televised Sunday Mass for the elderly, homebound and hospitalized. Currently Mass is shown from St.

Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish on Sunday mornings at 7:30 AM on KFBT-TV Channel 33.1 Digital (no longer an analog signal) or Cox Cable Channel 6.

The Diocese of Las Vegas posts the previous services online for viewers both inside and outside the southern Nevada community. The Mass Online (YouTube) is currently the very same Mass that broadcasts on TV.

VOLUNTEER

SIGN-UPS

All are invited to volunteer and share your special gifts and talents with others as we continue our lives together after the pandemic. In addition to sharing your gifts, you will be connecting to people as you serve in ministry or on committees.

Sign-up for the Liturgical Ministers for Sunday Masses listed below. Training will be provided.

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (formerly known as Eucharistic Minister) assist with the distribution of the Eucharist (Body and Blood) at Sunday Masses. Must be 18 years of age.

Homebound Communion Minister

Homebound Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion (formerly known as Eucharistic Minister) bring the Eucharist (Body and Blood) to those who are sick at home or in a hospital or nursing homes and are unable to attend Sunday Masses. Must be 18 years of age.

Greeter/Usher

The Greeters are the first minister one meets when they arrive at the church for any celebration. Their warm, friendly smile and welcoming set the tone for the worship experience. The ushers direct the crowd flow and movement, take up the collection, and assist in the communion procession, including those with special needs. Ushers double as the greeters.

Extended Liturgy (Donuts & Coffee host)

Extended Liturgy brings people together to connect once again as a community after Masses (or Liturgies) on Sunday. The hosts in this ministry set up and serve coffee and donuts.

Committees

We know that our neighbors are in need of comfort and human contact like never before as we continue to come out of the pandemic. It is exactly the kind of need Jesus commanded us to answer, a need to love our neighbor.

Sign-up to join one (or even both) of our committees to plan and implement events that will best serve our community, bringing us together as neighbors and friends. The committees are: The Fundraising Committee and The Social Committee.

Fundraising Committee

The Fundraising Committee will work on coming up with several events throughout the year that will raise funds for the parish while bringing people together as a community. Then, the volunteers on the committee will either coordinate or set up an event, be involved with promoting and assisting with the event (e.g., sell tickets, prepare or have food catered for an event, etc.), recruit other volunteers, as needed, and, of course, have fun, too. Contact: Cindy Blatchford, fundraising liaison for more information.

Social Committee

The Social Committee will work on coming up with events that will encourage opportunities to get together often as a community. Its Mission: To organize or support enjoyable and fun parish events or gatherings. These events foster a sense of community within the parish and are self-supported through funds raised within/for the event. Then, the volunteers on the committee will either coordinate or set up an event, be involved with promoting and assisting with an event (e.g., sell tickets, prepare or have food catered for an event, etc.), recruit other volunteers for an event, as needed, and, of course, have fun, too. Contact Mary Biggs, committee chairperson. for more information.

Whatever you do, do from the heart, as for the Lord and not for others, knowing that you will receive from the Lord the due payment of the inheritance; be slaves of the Lord Christ. Colossians 3: 23-24

Sign-up at the tables in the COURTYARD after Mass or

Contact the PARISH OFFICE to Sign-up

All volunteers DO need to complete the fingerprinting background process and the Safe Environment training video.

Line Dancing

Anyone interested in Line Dancing? Becky Trudeau will offer lessons on Monday mornings at 9:30 AM at St. Andrew either outside or inside, depending on the weather conditions. If there is interest, the first class will begin on Monday, October 4th. You can sign-up in the courtyard and after Masses or by contacting the Parish Office. For more information, contact Judee Mikolainis.

What is Line Dancing?

A line dance is a choreographed dance in which a group of people dance along to a repeating sequence of steps while arranged in one or more lines or rows. These lines usually face all in the same direction. Unlike circle dancing, line dancers are not in physical contact with each other. Each dance is usually associated with, and named for, a specific song, such as the Cha Cha Slide, Macarena or Electric Slide are a few of the line dances that have consistently remained part of modern American culture for years. It is a great form of exercise!

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Sunday, September 26, 2021

Mark 9: 38-43, 45, 47-48

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This Sunday's Gospel presents us with one of those characteristics that are very instructive about Jesus' life with his disciples. They had seen a man — who did not belong to the group of Jesus' followers — casting out demons in Jesus' name, and thus they wanted to forbid him to do so. With the zealous enthusiasm typical of young people, John refers the matter to the Teacher, seeking his support. However, quite to the contrary, Jesus replies: "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For he that is not against us is for us" (vv. 39-40).

John and the other disciples display a 'closed' attitude when faced with a circumstance that does not fit with their program, in this case the action, albeit good, of a person 'outside' the circle of followers. Jesus on the other hand, appears very free, fully open to the freedom of the Spirit of God, whose actions are not limited by any confines nor boundaries. Jesus wants to educate his disciples — and us today — on this inner freedom.

It is good for us to reflect on this episode and to perform a small examination of conscience. The disciples' attitude is very human, very common, and we can observe this in Christian communities throughout history, probably in ourselves as well. In good faith, indeed with zeal, one would like to protect the authenticity of a certain experience, safeguarding the founder or leader from false impersonators. But at the same time, there is a sort of fear of 'competition' — and this is bad: the fear of competition —, that someone may steal new followers, and we are thus unable to appreciate the good that others do: it is not good because he is 'not one of us', they say. It is a form of self-referentiality. Actually, there is the root of proselytism here. And the Church — Pope Benedict used to say — does not grow through proselytism; it grows by attraction, that is, it grows by bearing witness to others with the strength of the Holy Spirit.

God's great freedom in giving himself to us represents a challenge and an exhortation to modify our behaviors and our relationships. It is the invitation which Jesus addresses to us today. He calls us not to think according to the categories of 'friend/enemy', 'us/them', 'those who are in/those who are out',

'mine/yours', but rather to go beyond, to open our heart in order to be able to recognize God's presence and action, even in unusual and unpredictable environments that are not part of our circle. It is a matter of being more attentive to the authenticity of the good, the beautiful and the true that is done, rather than to the name and the origin of the one who does it. And — as the remaining part of the Gospel suggests to us today — instead of judging others, we must examine ourselves and 'sever', without compromise, all that can scandalize those persons who are weakest in faith.

May the Virgin Mary, an example of docile openness to God's surprises, help us to recognize the signs of the Lord's presence in our midst, so that we may find him everywhere he manifests himself, even in the most unthinkable and unusual situations. May she teach us to love our community without jealousy or closure, always open to the vast horizon of the action of the Holy Spirit.

OCTOBER

SPECIAL COLLECTION

Sunday, October 24, 2021

World Mission Sunday

In 1926 Pope Pius XI instituted Mission Sunday for the whole Church with the first worldwide Mission Sunday collection taking place in October 1927. The Mission Sunday Collection is now always taken on the next to last Sunday during the month of October. That day is celebrated in all the local churches as the feast of catholicity and universal solidarity so Christians the world over will recognize their common responsibility with regard to the evangelization of the world.

Breaking Open the Word (BOTW)

BOTW will be each Wednesday at 9 AM using Zoom through an email invite on your computer or mobile device. If you signed-up or participated in previous Zoom Meetings, you will be sent on Monday afternoon the link

Reaching Out - Going the extra mile to brighten the lives of those in the nursing homes and to remind them of Christ's love for them.

Thank-you Shirley Reed for continuing to share your artistic talents with our nursing homes. We are always looking for adults, teens, and children who would like to write cards or make their own cards, pictures, and drawings for the residents at our nursing homes. Even if you are not artistically talented, the residents appreciate all of them very much.

If interested, please contact Linda Lysakowski at cvlinda@cox.net or 702-580-1448 and she will see that they get distributed to the nursing homes or facilities that are allowing mail to be delivered or sent.

WELCOMING THE STRANGER

This October, several people who are members of St. Andrew Catholic Community will be volunteering at Casa Alitas near the border in Tucson, AZ to assist refugees entering the United States from countries where freedom is not valued, and their families are in imminent danger. We ask your prayers for these “pilgrims” to Casa Alitas, a refugee center sponsored by Catholic Community Services of the Diocese of Tucson. They will be leaving at 7 am this Friday, Oct 1st and returning on Oct 11, so prayers for a safe journey and a meaningful encounter with the “strangers”—children of God—they will meet there.

You can become involved right here from Boulder City in several ways. Here are two main ways to get involved:

You can donate money online <https://www.ccs-soaz.org/donate/form>

If you are making online donations, after clicking the link, there will be options to direct your donation—check Alitas Program, and then where it asks if this is a gift in honor or memory of someone, check in honor of Sr. Janet Ackerman so the gift will be noted that it is from a supporter of Welcoming the Stranger.

2.

You can send checks, clothes, food, and/or supplies via mail to:

Catholic Community Services – Casa Alitas Program

140 W. Speedway, Blvd., Suite 130

Tucson, AZ 85705

If you send a check or make an online donation directly to CASA Alitas, please include in the "Recognition box" on online donations or in the "memo" on your check —"Sr. Janet Ackerman."

They can take some small items with them in their cars.
If you have items, such as toiletries, that you would like to donate, please contact
Linda Lysakowski at Linda@LindaLysakowski.com or
